CONTENTS
REGISTER OF THE KENTUCKY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Listed below are the contents of the Register from the first issue in 1903 to the current issue in a searchable PDF format.

VOLUME 1

Number One, January 1903

A New Light on Daniel Boone’s Ancestry
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton................................................................. 11

Kentucky’s First Railroad, which was the First One West of the Allegheny Mountains............................................................. 18

Fort Hill ....................................................................................... 26

Address of Hon. John A. Steele, Vice President, before Kentucky Historical Society, February 11, 1899 ............................... 27

The Seal of Kentucky................................................................... 31

Before Unpublished Copy of a Letter from Gen. Ben Logan to Governor Isaac Shelby
Benjamin Logan ........................................................................... 33

Counties in Kentucky and Origin of their Names
Published by Courtesy of the Geographer of the Smithsonian Institute.................................................................................. 34

Paragraphs.................................................................................... 38

The Kentucky River and Its Islands
Resident of Frankfort, Kentucky.................................................... 40

Department of Genealogy and History
Averill............................................................................................ 42
Bibb .............................................................................................. 43
Crockett ....................................................................................... 45
Dudley
Mrs. Mary Dudley Aldridge............................................................. 51
Reunion of the Alves Tribe.............................................................. 54
Number Two, May 1903

Governor Isaac Shelby ................................................................. 9

The Last Message ........................................................................... 13

John J. Audubon ............................................................................ 17

The Attack on the Spanish Gunboats at Cardenas
A Kentuckian, Comr. Chap. Todd ................................................... 21

Historical Sketches of Banners Used by Kentucky Troops
During the Spanish War, 1899
Capt. Ed. Porter Thompson, compiler of Confederate Records ....... 26

A Beautiful Compliment ............................................................... 27

The Migration of Trade Centers
Dr. Robert E. Jones, President of Hobart College ......................... 28

Historical Information and How Obtained ..................................... 37

A Journalistic Anniversary ............................................................. 40

A Few Historic Homes and Places in the Capitol of the State ....... 41

A History of the First Presbyterian Church of Frankfort, Kentucky, Etc.
W. A. Averill ................................................................................. 42

Compliment to a Former Frankfort Boy,
Rev. William L. McEwan, D. D. ..................................................... 43

Romance of Mary Ball—The Love Story of the Mother of Washington
Woman’s Home Companion .......................................................... 44

The First School Taught in Kentucky ............................................. 45
Paragraphs.......................................................... 46

Treasurers of the State of Kentucky .............................. 46

Department of Genealogy and History
Edmonsons—James
Mrs. Sarah Ellen James Chesney .................................. 47
Fall
His daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Fall Taylor ....................... 54
Governor James Garrard................................................ 61
Governor Christopher Greenup..................................... 69
Design for Goebel Monument is Selected on Certain Conditions
Work of Sculptor Marreitti, of New York, is Preferred by Committee .. 71
Inquiries........................................................................... 72
List of Portraits, Pictures, Etc., in the Kentucky State Historical Society’s Rooms.............................................................. 73

Necrology
Capt. Ed Porter Thompson ........................................... 75
Richard P. Stoll ................................................................ 76

Report of Kentucky State Historical Society .................. 77

Report from Kentucky State Historical Society since February ........ 78

Proceedings at the Dedication of the Hall in the State Capitol,
June 7, 1769-1881
From Kentucky Yeoman Report ..................................... 79

Number Three, September 1903

Biographical Sketch of General, afterward Governor,
Charles S. Scott
His Great-Granddaughter, Miss Pattie Burnley, with Supplemental Extracts from History, by the Editor of The Register.... 7

Brief Sketch of Governor George Madison
Elected August 16th; Died October 14th, 1816.
Genealogical Chart of the Madison Family, prepared for The Register
by a Great-Grandson of Governor Madison, Frank P. Blair, Chicago, Illinois............................................................. 19

Sketch of Governor Gabriel Slaughter, with Photograph from his Portrait............................................................................. 25
“The Blockade of Southern Cuba”
By request of a Historian, “The Southern Blockade of Cuba” was written by Commander Chapman Coleman Todd, a native of Frankfort, Kentucky. Copied for the Historical Society of Kentucky by Harry Innes Todd, 1899 ............................................................... 32

Lost Island
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton ...................................................................... 43

Biographical Sketch of the Life and Writings of Theodore O’Hara, author of The Bivouac of the Dead
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton ...................................................................... 47

The Bivouac of the Dead
Theodore O’Hara .............................................................................. 57

“The Old Pioneer” ............................................................................. 58

The Old Pioneer, Daniel Boone
Theodore O’Hara .............................................................................. 59

Theodore O’Hara as an Orator .......................................................... 60

Department of History and Genealogy
Johnson and Arnold Families ........................................................... 63
James Arnold and his Descendants ................................................ 64
The Strother Family .......................................................................... 67
The Keiths
Mrs. Annie H. Miles .......................................................................... 71
History of the Lee Family
Mrs. Mary Willis Woodson .............................................................. 73
History of the Lee Family, of Kentucky—Continued
General Henry Lee
His Granddaughter, Lucy C. Lee, of Maysville, Kentucky, with Supplement by the Editor of The Register .................................. 82

Paragraphs ....................................................................................... 89

Just a Word About the Lost Cause ................................................... 91

Bryan’s Views of Immortality ............................................................ 92

Inquiries ........................................................................................... 93

Inquiries Answered .......................................................................... 93
A Woman's 20th–Century Enterprise in Louisville................................. 94

The Battle of the Thames........................................................................ 96

Report of the Meeting of the Kentucky State Historical Society, 6th of June, 1903, at the Historical Rooms........................................... 97

Report from Kentucky State Historical Society by the Secretary ....... 98

Donations to the Historical Rooms......................................................... 99

A few Opinions of the Press and Letters of Distinguished Writers of The Register Since its First Appearance........................................... 103

Historical Notes Worth Preserving....................................................... 108

VOLUME 2

Number Four, January 1904

Biographical Sketch of Governor John Adair Governor of the State of Kentucky from 1820 to 1824, with Wm. T. Barry for Lieutenant Governor Mrs. Jennie C. Morton................................................................. 11

Governor Joseph Desha of Distinguished Huguenot Ancestry ........... 14

Biographical Sketch of Governor Thomas Metcalfe, with Portrait Taken from his portrait in the Historical Rooms, donated by his daughter, the late Mrs. Keturah Milward of Versailles, Kentucky Mrs. Jennie C. Morton................................................................. 21

Picture of Henry Clay Painted in Leipsig for Mrs. Wyliys King of St. Louis, during his lifetime................................................................. 26

Photograph of Governor George Madison Taken from his picture in the rooms of the Kentucky State Historical Society with silhouettes of his great grandfather and grandmother, James Taylor and his Wife, Martha Thompson Taylor of Orange County, Virginia...................................................... 27
The Old Capitol ................................................................. 11
Governor John Breathitt...................................................... 15
Governor James T. Morehead ............................................... 17
Washington
First County Seat of Mason County, Kentucky
Miss Lucy Coleman Lee ...................................................... 21
Domestic Etymology ............................................................. 24
“Here”
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton .......................................................... 26
World’s Fair at St. Louis, 1904 ............................................. 26
The Frankfort Corner Stone ................................................. 27
My Ancestors
Emma Huntington Nason ...................................................... 29
The Conquered Banner
Father Ryan ........................................................................... 30
“Uncle Ned”........................................................................... 30
The Governor’s Mansion
On High and Clinton Streets, Frankfort, Kentucky
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton .............................................................. 35
Genealogical and Historical Department
Slaughter Genealogy—concluded
The Slaughter Family
W. A. Slaughter ........................................................................ 47
Supplement to the “Steele Genealogy”
In January Number of The Register, 1904
Miss Idelle Keyes, Boston, Massachusetts .............................. 51
The Payne Genealogy ............................................................. 53
The Williams and Hutchcraft Genealogy and History
H. D. Hutchcraft of Louisville, Kentucky, and
E. F. B., Paris, Kentucky ......................................................... 56
The Home of Rev. Wm. Hickman, Sr.
George C. Downing ............................................................... 61
Clippings of Historic People and Events ................................. 67
Marriage License Older than State of Indiana is Found on Street 70
Miss Yandell, the Kentucky Sculptor 74
Paragraphs 75
To An Evangelist 77
Report from the Kentucky State Historical Society by the Secretary 78
Read Before the Society, February 11, 1904 78
Meeting on the 11th of February 80
January, 1904 81

Department of Inquiries and Answers 85

Number Six, September 1904

Governor James Clark
Was Elected Governor of Kentucky August, 1836
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton 11

Governor Charles A. Wickliffe
With Portrait Taken by G. C. Downing, and Picture of Wickland
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton 17

General Forrest’s Account of Miss Emma Samsom as a Pilot 25

Genealogical and Historical Department
Bacons, Hardins, Jennings, Boone
History of the Bacons
Mrs. Sallie Jouett James 31
The Hardins of Kentucky
Hardin Family—General John Hardin 39
Jacob Boone, Pioneer
With Sketch of Maysville, Kentucky
Boone Pedigree
Mrs. Belle Mitchell Rogers 49
The Jennings Estate
With Charts and Extracts
Published by Permission of Mrs. General N. B. Hays Romantic Pursuit of a Fortune Since 1798
Ed. The Register 67

Paragraphs and Clippings of History
Old and New Something about the Building of the Old Capitol, Commenced in 1827 76

Clippings 78
Department of Inquiries and Answers
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton................................................................. 95

Report of the Kentucky State Historical Society—Annual Meeting,
June 7th .................................................................................... 97

Necrology .................................................................................. 100

VOLUME 3

Number Seven, January 1905

Governor Robert P. Letcher, Sketch of His Life
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton................................................................. 13

The Home of Governor Letcher, with Picture and Portrait of Himself Taken from His Portrait in the Historical Rooms
G. C. Downing........................................................................... 19

Governor William Owsley, with Sketch and Portrait Taken From His Portrait in the Kentucky Historical Rooms
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton................................................................. 25

A Gymkhana In Harrodsburgh Over One Hundred Years Ago
Humorous Historical Sketch
Jno. F. B. Lillard ....................................................................... 33

List of Auditors of the State of Kentucky ............................... 37

Names of the Historic Families of Kentucky ......................... 38

Current History
Unveiling Ceremonies of the Monument Erected by the State of Michigan in Honor of the Brave Kentuckians and Others Who Lost Their Lives in the Defense of This Country in the Battle and Massacre of River Raisin, on January 22nd and 23rd, 1813 Monroe, Michigan, September 1, 1904............. 39
Michigan’s Tribute to Kentucky ................................................ 45
Monroe’s Tribute to Kentucky.................................................... 49
Mr. Conant’s Hard Work Mainly Responsible for the Success of Dedication Exercises ....................................... 63

Department of Genealogy and History
The McKamies; The Steeles; The Williams.................................................. 69
Gen. “Cerro Gordo” Williams Family of Kentucky ...................................... 75

Clippings and Paragraphs of Current History.......................................... 79

Department of Inquiries and Answers
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton............................................................................. 91

Report of the Secretary........................................................................... 93

Number Eight, May 1905

Governor John J. Crittenden
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton........................................................................... 11
With picture taken from his portrait; and a picture of his home on Main and Washington Streets
Prof. G. D. Downing............................................................................. 21

Michigan’s Tribute to Kentucky
Handsome Monument Erected in Honor of Kentucky Heroes who Fell at the Battle of the River Raisin, January 22-23, 1813 Tragic Death of Col. John Allen of Shelby County, who, with Capt. Bland Ballard, Engaged in Battle
Col. Bennett Young’s Eloquent Eulogy of those who Fought at the River Raisin and at the Thames........................................................... 29

The New Capitol Site
A Historical Sketch of the New location................................................ 45

Clippings and Paragraphs of Current History
“Across the Plains”
John Montgomery.................................................................................. 53

“Ingleside,” A Pioneer Home of Franklin County
G. C. Downing....................................................................................... 75

Department of History and Genealogy
Taylor and Morris Families
Mrs. Henry D. McHenry........................................................................ 81
Harrison Genealogy
Wm. Edwards Baxter............................................................................. 82
The Irvines of Madison County, Kentucky
Mrs. Sophia Fox Sea............................................................................. 87
The Major Genealogy of Franklin County, Kentucky, Being the Descendants of John Major

10
Number Nine, September 1905

Sketch of Gov. John L. Helm
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton................................................................. 11

Sketch of the Life of Gov. John J. Crittenden (concluded) ............ 14

Copy of the original letter of John Breckinridge to his friend,
Col. Joseph Cabell, in Buckingham, Virginia ......................... 20

Kentucky’s First Immigrants
Rev. Wm. Crowe of Frankfort, Kentucky ..................................... 23

The Early Courts of Kentucky
Rear Admiral Chapman C. Todd ............................................... 33

Lady Gay’s Failure
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton................................................................. 36

Something about Col. Dick Johnson’s Indian School in reply to Letters of Inquiry from Choctaw and Cherokee Chiefs
A Cherokee Genealogist............................................................... 39

Sketch of the Life of Mrs. Sophia Fox Sea
Chapter - First of a Series of Sketches of the Distinguished Women of Kentucky in the Last Quarter of the 19th Century
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton................................................................. 47
Names of the Historic Families of Kentucky
Families that Emigrated to Kentucky During and After the Revolutionary War
continued from May 1905................................................................. 49

Clippings and Paragraphs of Current History................................. 53

Picture of Gov. Christopher Greenup
This Copy is from a Miniature by James Peale
G. C. Downing................................................................. 69

Department of History and Genealogy
Jemina Johnson Chapter of The Daughters of the American Revolution at Paris, Kentucky........................................................... 73
Captain John Wall and Major John Taylor
Sketch of the Revolutionary Ancestry of Mrs. W. W. Longmoor, Sr., of Frankfort, Kentucky .......................................................... 79
The Boone-Bryan History
Dr. J. D. Bryan, a Great-Grand Nephew of Daniel Boone .............. 81
Hawkins
Mrs. Annie Hawkins Miles .................................................. 93

Necrology
Major Jno. C. Herndon ............................................................. 95

Department of Questions, Inquiries, and Answers ......................... 99

Reports of Secretary and Treasurer
From the Kentucky State Historical Society, since February 11, 1905
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton, Secretary and Treasurer......................... 101

VOLUME 4

Number Ten, January 1906

Sketch of Governor Lazarus W. Powell, with picture from his portrait in the Historical Rooms
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton............................................................. 11

A Pioneer Log House.......................................................... 17

To Dr. Louis Marshall from J. Steele
Relative to the Duel between Thomas F. Marshall and Judge Rowan of Nelson County, Kentucky, prior to 1842..................... 18

Secretaries of State by Election.............................................................. 19

A Biographical Sketch of Madison Cawein, of Louisville, Kentucky
“Has Kentucky Produced a Poet?”
John W. Townsend................................................................. 23

Forks of Elkhorn Church
G. C. Downing............................................................... 35

“The Plutarch of his Age”
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton
Read before the Meeting of the State Historical Society,
October 3, 1905, by Miss Sally Jackson............................... 45

General Marquis Calmes of “Caneland,” A Revolutionary Hero of Woodford County, Kentucky
Jno. A. Steele ............................................................ 49

Genealogical and Historical Department
Lafons, Jacksons, Youngs, Upshaws, and Taylors.................. 55

The Study of Roman Gods, Roman History, Greek and Roman Literature
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton......................................................... 63

Clippings and Paragraphs of Current History.............................. 67

Department of Inquiries and Answers............................................. 89

Report by the Secretary
From the Kentucky State Historical Society from October 3, 1906 .... 91

Number Eleven, May 1906

Governor Charles S. Morehead, 1855-1859
Sketch of his Life
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton.......................................................... 11

Old Homes of Historic Note......................................................... 17

Sketch of Federal Hill where Foster wrote “My Old Kentucky Home,” Bardstown, Kentucky................................. 28
Proceedings of the Joint Committees from the Filson Club, Louisville, Kentucky, and the Kentucky State Historical Society in the Historical Rooms at the Capitol, Frankfort, Kentucky, January 17, 1906 ................................................................. 29

Sketch of the Life of Mrs. Jennie C. Morton by Henry T. Stanton. With picture ................................................................. 37
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton, Poet
From the “Illustrated Kentuckian” ........................................... 38

Sketches of Distinguished Women
By the Editor
Sketch of Mrs. Fannie Porter Dickey of Glasgow, Kentucky .......... 45
Mrs. Sarah P. McQuown ............................................................ 49

Department of Genealogy and History
Upshaws, etc; General William Nelson; The Harrisons
History of the Upshaws, Lafons, Jacksons, and Youngs
For the “Society of Colonial Daughters”
Miss Sally Jackson ................................................................. 53
Major General William Nelson
Dr. A. M. Ellis, Maysville, Kentucky ........................................ 56
The Harrisons
Lelia Harrison Handy ............................................................. 65

Clippings and Paragraphs of Current History .............................. 67

Department of Inquiries and Answers ......................................... 89

Report of the Secretary
From the Kentucky State Historical Society from November 1905 ....... 94

Number Twelve, September 1906

Sketch and Picture of Governor Beriah Magoffin
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton ............................................................. 11

A Neglected Kentucky Hero
General Joseph Monford Street
George Wilson ................................................................. 21

George Rogers Clark
Paper by Z. F. Smith
Read before the meeting of the State Historical Society, June 7th, in the Historical Rooms in the Capitol, Frankfort, Kentucky .......... 32
Names Inscribed on the Military Monument Erected by Kentucky A. D. 1850 in the Frankfort Cemetery
Monument Designed and Erected by R. E. Lawnitz of New York ....... 43

The History of the Kentucky Historical Society
Delivered as an Address Before the Kentucky State Historical Society, at the Annual Meeting, July 7, 1906 ......................... 49

Daniel Boone
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton ................................................................. 52

Old Kentucky Homes and Their Histories
The Ward Home near Georgetown
G. C. Downing ........................................................................ 57

Historical and Genealogical Department
The Woods, Whitemans, and Youngs
Biographical Sketch of the Wood Family of Mason County, Kentucky
Lucy Coleman Lee ................................................................. 61
The Youngs and Jacksons
The Young and Jackson Ancestry of Mrs. Virginia Crittenden and Miss Sally Jackson, Sisters
Miss Sally Jackson ................................................................. 67

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs of Current History .... 71

Inquiries and Answers ........................................................... 85

Reports of the Secretary-Treasurer and Editor of the Kentucky State Historical Society .......................................................... 89

Necrology
Death of Mrs. Anna Chinn Lewis at Wentzville, Missouri, August 12, 1906 ..................... 95

VOLUME 5

Number Thirteen, January 1907

Sketch and Portrait of Governor James F. Robinson with introduction by the Editor ............................. 13

Governor Thomas E. Bramlette ............................................ 27
Lord Byron’s Tribute to Daniel Boone ...................................................... 31

Historical and Genealogical Department
The Bells, Chinns, Davises, and Lindsays ............................................... 33
Ancestry and History of Clement Bell, Esq.
Son of Ezekiel Bell, of Salisbury, Maryland
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton .............................................................................. 35

Addenda
Interesting Notes and Data Concerning the Bells, Chinns, Davises, and Lindsays ................................................................. 49
The Lindsays .......................................................................................... 51
The Chinns of Kentucky
Ancestry of Judge Franklin Chinn, of Bellsgrove, Franklin County, Kentucky With Biographical Tribute to his Memory by the Editor of the Kentucky Yeoman ............................................................................. 57

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs of Current History ............. 67
To the Public .......................................................................................... 91
Department of Inquiries and Answers .................................................. 96

Reports from Kentucky State Historical Society
by the Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Jennie C. Morton ............................... 99

Necrology .............................................................................................. 101

Number Fourteen, May 1907

Governor John W. Stephenson
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton .............................................................................. 13

Brief Sketch of Governor Preston H. Leslie ........................................... 16

Kentucky and Virginia in 1907
Z. F. Smith, author of Smith’s History of Kentucky ............................... 21

What Will Kentucky Stand for at the Jamestown Exposition?
The City Now in the World’s Eye
Armies of Three Wars Have Marched over the Grounds Now Occupied by the Jamestown Exposition .............................................. 32
Number Fifteen, September 1907

Sketch and Picture of Governor Preston H. Leslie
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton ................................................................. 13

An Old Letter
Editor of The Register .............................................................. 19

Retrospection ........................................................................... 21

The Plaster Cast of Daniel Boone’s Head ...................................... 22

Thomas Moore ......................................................................... 25

Deed of Henry Lee of Westmoreland County, Virginia, to George Washington of Mount Vernon
Editor of The Register .............................................................. 33

Franklin County, Kentucky
Number Seventeen, May 1908

Major General Zachary Taylor
President of the United States, 1849-1850
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton................................................................. 11

Pre-Historic People of Kentucky
The Story of Rafinesque of the Great Atalan Empire in the Ohio Valley Four Thousand Years Ago
Z. F. Smith ................................................................................. 19

The Discovery of Humbolt Bay by a Kentuckian concluded from January 1908...................................................... 33

Forget Me Not
Mrs. Jennie T. McHenry of Hartford, Kentucky ......................... 45

Franklin County, Chapter IV
Early Settlements on the South Side of the Kentucky River
Frankfort, Leestown, and other points of interest prior to 1800
L. F. Johnson ................................................................................. 49

A Few Old Franklin Families
That Part of Franklin County, Kentucky, Between the Kentucky
River and South Elkhorn Creek, and South of the Georgetown
Turnpike ....................................................................................... 61

Department of History and Genealogy
The Pogues by H. M. Williamson................................................ 75
The Downings and Others by George C. Downing ....................... 77

Report of the Kentucky State Historical Society by the Secretary–Treasurer
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton
October 3 to December 31, 1907 .................................................. 99
Necrology
John N. Crutcher, Died March 25, 1908, Aged 77 Years ................... 104

Number Eighteen, September 1908

The New Capitol
Program
Laying Corner Stone of New Capitol at Frankfort,
Saturday, June 16, 1906................................................................. 9
The New Capitol ........................................................................... 13

A Kentucky Ideal of a Century Ago
Transylvania University
Hon. Z. F. Smith................................................................. 17

Kentucky-Tennessee Boundary Line
History of the Line of 36:30, the Boundary Line between Virginia and North Carolina and between Kentucky and Tennessee
J. Stoddard Johnston................................................................. 25

Kentucky Heroes
M. A. B................................................................. 39

History of Franklin County (continued)
Course of Events from 1800 to 1810
L. F. Johnson ................................................................. 47

Supplement
Chronicles of the Old Neighborhood, Chapter 1
Franklin County—East End
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton................................................................. 59

Lines in the Cemetery at Frankfort ................................................... 81

June Meeting on the 6th, 1908
Last Meeting of State Historical Society in the Old Rooms in the Old Capitol ....................................................................................... 85

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs of Current Literature
About the Portraits of the Czar and Czarina of Russia in the
Kentucky State Historical Society ..................................................... 95

Monument to Gov. Wm. Goebel ........................................................ 109 Report from the Kentucky State Historical Society
by the Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Jennie C. Morton......................... 113

The International Anglo–Saxon Society
Its History and Purpose ........................................................................ 119

Editorial ........................................................................................................... 122

Tribute to Wm. J. Murphy
Died May 10, 1908, Age 60 Years ............................................................. 123

Necrology
Mrs. Laura Hensley Torrence
Born March 1828; died 13th of May 1908............................................. 127

VOLUME 7

Number Nineteen, January 1909

Sketch and Picture of Richard H. Collins, Historian
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton............................................................... 11

Sketch of Rt. Rev. Benjamin Bosworth Smith, D. D......................... 19

History of the Frankfort Cemetery
(From the Streets of the Capital, 1898)
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton............................................................... 25

Historic Home at Shelbyville, Kentucky
C. B. ....................................................................................... 37

Response to a toast proposed at the “Harrodsburg Historical Society Celebration” of the 134th Anniversary of the Founding of Harrodsburg
The Pioneer Child’s Education
Miss Martha Stephenson................................................................. 41

Natura Nostra (Republished)
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton................................................................. 44

Franklin County, Kentucky
Chapter VI
A. D. 1810 to 1820
L. F. Johnson .................................................................................. 47
Broadway of Other Days
(From Streets of the Capital)
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton ................................................................. 63

Department of History and Genealogy
The Richardson of Kentucky and Others
Early Marriage Bonds, in Franklin County Court copied by G. C. Downing ............................................................ 75

Department of Inquiries and Answers ........................................... 85

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs of Current Literature ........ 93

The Library Association of Kentucky, November 12-13, 1908 .......... 101

Report of the Secretary of the Kentucky State Historical Society ...... 105

Number Twenty, May 1909

General Fayette Hewitt ............................................................ 11

The Great Revival of 1800
The First Camp Meeting
Z. F. Smith ............................................................................... 21

A Sketch of Colonel Richard Henderson of the Transylvania Company
Miss Susan S. Towles ................................................................. 39

Pre-Historic Animals in Kentucky and the Ohio Valley
Read before the Filson Club, February 1, 1909
R. B. Gilbert, M. D., of Louisville, Kentucky .............................. 49

Diary of John Findlay Torrence, 1841 ........................................ 59

The Two Ambitions of Men
Address of Rev. Jas. F. Record .................................................... 69

History of Franklin County—Chapter 7—1820-1830 ..................... 79

Artist-Builders in the Sea
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton ............................................................... 89

From the Streets of the Capital
Clinton Street
Number Twenty-One, September 1909

George W. Ranck
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton, Frankfort, Kentucky ............................... 11

The Old Pioneer—Daniel Boone
Theodore O’Hara ........................................................................... 19

Address of Welcome
N. L. Curry, at the Centennial of Harrodsburg, Kentucky, July 2, 1909................................................................................. 22

The Old Courthouse and the Courts and Bar of Mercer County, Kentucky, Hon. W. W. Stephenson, President of the Mercer Historical Society, Branch of the Kentucky State Historical Society... 31

Kentucky the Home of Jefferson Davis
John Wilson Townsend .................................................................. 39

Historic Homes in Mason County, Kentucky
Read before the State Historical Society by the author,
Miss Lucy C. Lee ................................................................. 45

Franklin County (continued), 1820-1830
From Chapter in May 1909
L. F. Johnson ................................................................. 51

Philip Slater Fall
Miss Pattie Burnley .......................................................... 63

1809-1909 Centennial Celebration of the First Sabbath School
West of the Allegheny Mountains, May 8, 1909
Rebecca Gordon Averill, Frankfort, Kentucky ....................... 69

A Children’s Pageant .......................................................... 71

Department of Genealogy and History
The Trabue Family and Others
Mrs. Z. F. Smith, Louisville, Kentucky ..................................... 77

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs ................................ 91

Department of Inquiries and Answers .................................... 111

Report of the Mason County Historical Society to the Kentucky
State Historical Society ......................................................... 115

Report of the Secretary-Treasurer of the Kentucky State Historical Society ..................................................................................... 119

Report of the Librarian of the Kentucky State Historical Society for the year ending June 7, 1909
Miss Sally Jackson ............................................................... 125

Necrology
Miss Emma Payne Scott of Paris, Kentucky ......................... 129

VOLUME 8

Number Twenty-Two, January 1910

Birds of Kentucky
Charles Wickliffe Beckham .................................................. 11

The History of Harrodsburg

24
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>continued from September 1909</td>
<td>27</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hon. W. W. Stephenson</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Historians and Their Papers</td>
<td>39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A Vanishing Race</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mrs. Jennie C. Morton, Frankfort, Kentucky</td>
<td>51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kentucky, Mother of Governors</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jno. Wilson Townsend</td>
<td>61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Case in Court Two Thousand Years</td>
<td>76</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>History of Franklin County (Kentucky) continued</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Chapter No. 8—Course of Events from 1830 to 1840</td>
<td>79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>L. F. Johnson</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A Question</td>
<td>94</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Department of History and Genealogy</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Captain Robert Thurston</td>
<td>97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Department of Archives</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Correspondence of Gov. Isaac Shelby During the War of 1812</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>copied from the Archives of Kentucky</td>
<td>103</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Correspondence of Gov. Isaac Shelby</td>
<td>105</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Department of Clippings and Paragraphs</td>
<td>115</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Department of Inquiries and Answers</td>
<td>131</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Department of Necrology</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mrs. Virginia Jackson Crittenden</td>
<td>135</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Editorial</td>
<td>139</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Number Twenty-Three, May 1910

Joel T. Hart
A Kentucky Sculptor, One of the Famous Sculptors of the World...... 11

Correspondence of Gov. Isaac Shelby with General Harrison
During the War of 1812
copied from the State Archives
W. W. Longmoor................................................................. 15

Rooms of the Kentucky State Historical Society in the New Capitol ... 23

A Sweet Memory
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton....................................................... 27

The Song Birds of Kentucky and of Nelson County
continued from January 1910 .......................................... 31

History of David Rice Atchison of Kentucky
“The One Day President of the United States”
Jno. Wilson Townsend.................................................... 39

History of Franklin County (continued)
Chapter Nine Course of Events from 1840 to 1850
Hon. L. F. Johnson.......................................................... 47

Department of Genealogy and History
The Thurstons and Kindred Families
The Thurston-Waddy Family of Shelby County, Kentucky
Prof. G. C. Downing....................................................... 65

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs ............................ 73

History of The Jackson Purchase
From Z. F. Smith’s History of Kentucky (pages 507-8) .......... 93

Department of Inquiries and Answers ............................... 99

Report of the Secretary-Treasurer
Kentucky State Historical Society .................................. 103

Number Twenty-Four, September 1910

Presentation and Unveiling of Bust of Governor Isaac Shelby
Presented by Lexington Chapter D. A. R. to Kentucky State Historical Society, June 22, 1910
A Notable Gift.............................................................. 9

Daniel Boone
John Wilson Townsend
Address before the State Historical Society, June 7, 1910 .... 17

Correspondence of Gov. Isaac Shelby
Number Twenty-Five, January 1911

Rear Admiral Lucien Young: the Heroic Career of a Kentucky Naval Officer
George Baber of Louisville, Kentucky .......................................................... 9

Rosa Vertner Jeffrey: An Adopted Kentucky Singer
John Wilson Townsend .................................................................................. 17

Kentucky, The Answer to “The Yesterday of States” (Exchange)
A reply to by the Editor of The Register .................................................... 23

“Kentucky: A Poem”
U. G. Foote of Missouri ............................................................................. 29

Education in Harrodsburg and Neighborhood Since 1775
Chapter II (concluded)
Miss Martha Stephenson ........................................................................... 33

Estill Springs: A Celebrated Summer Resort in Estill County
Mrs. Ella H. Ellwanger .............................................................................. 45

Correspondence of Gov. Isaac Shelby
copied from the State Archives
W. W. Longmoor ......................................................................................... 57

Department of History and Genealogy
The Venables
Miss Morton of Virginia ............................................................................. 67

The Burgoyne Cannon
A. C. Quisenberry ...................................................................................... 73

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs .................................................... 77

Department of Inquiries and Answers ....................................................... 91

Official Report of the Meeting of the Executive Committee of the Kentucky State Historical Society, October 3, 1910 ..................... 95

Report of Secretary-Treasurer
Kentucky State Historical Society
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton ................................................................................ 101
Number Twenty-Six, May 1911

Gen. Zachary Taylor and the Mexican War
Introduction to the Hero of the Mexican War ........................................ 11
History by Illustration: Zachary Taylor, Hero of the Mexican War
Anderson Chenault Quisenberry.......................................................... 13

Henry Watterson, World Famous Editor of The Louisville Courier-Journal
Mrs. Ella H. Ellwanger........................................................................ 43

John Boyd Huston: The Lawyer and Orator
George Baber ........................................................................................ 53

Those Who Have Been and Are Not
A Brief History of the Physicians Who Once Lived in Harrodsburg, Kentucky, or Vicinity, and Have Since Passed Away
A. D. Price, M. D., Harrodsburg, Kentucky
First installment read to the Harrodsburg Historical Society,
March 4, 1910...................................................................................... 59

Historical and Genealogical Department
The Raileys, Randolps, Mayos, & c.
Will Railey, Frankfort
Woodsons and Watkins
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton.......................................................................... 69

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs ......................................... 87

Department of Questions and Answers ............................................. 103

Report of the Secretary-Treasurer
Kentucky State Historical Society ...................................................... 105

Number Twenty-Seven, September 1911

In Memoriam: Hon. Z. F. Smith
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton......................................................................... 10

William West Richeson
The Kentuckian that Taught Grant
Number Twenty-Nine, May 1912

Recollections of Jefferson Davis
Mrs. Hezekiah Sturges ................................................................. 9

Colonel George Croghan
“The Hero of Fort Stephenson”
A. C. Quisenberry ........................................................................ 23

What’s In A Name?
Tell Me Your Name and I’ll Tell You What You Are
Ella Hutchison Ellwanger ................................................................. 33

History Two-Fold
Then and Now
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton ................................................................. 43
Number Thirty, September 1912

Historic Homes of Harrodsburg, Kentucky
Illustrated
W. W. Stephenson ................................................................. 9

A Brief Sketch of Mrs. De Nevarro of England
(Née Mary Anderson, the Actress)
As Frankforters Knew Mary Anderson
Mrs. Ella Hutchison Ellwanger .............................................. 17

The Play
published by Thomas A. Hall .................................................. 19

The Duel Between John Rowan and Dr. James Chambers
J. Stoddard Johnston .............................................................. 27

The Story of Three Governors
Laurie J. Blakely, Covington, Kentucky ................................. 37

In the Hollow of his Hand
Mrs. W. Leslie Collins .......................................................... 45

Kentucky Troops in the War of 1812
A. C. Quisenberry ................................................................. 49

Wapping Street, Frankfort, Kentucky
Miss Sally Jackson ............................................................... 69
Chapter XXVI from "History of Muhlenberg County, Kentucky"
General Muhlenberg
Otto A. Rothert, Louisville, Kentucky ................................................     9

A Hundred Years Ago—"The River Raisin"
A. C. Quisenberry .............................................................................   17

Regrets
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton ......................................................................   37

Kentucky
A Land of Heroism, Eloquence, Statesmanship, and Letters
George Baber ...................................................................................   41

Epitaphs
Ella Hutchison Ellwanger ..................................................................   55

The Battle of Chickamauga
Kentucky Heroism in the Engagement
A Kentuckian Commemorates the Event in Verse
George Baber ...................................................................................   65

Extracts From the Messages of Governor Desha—Resolutions of the General Assembly, Reports of Committees, etc., Relative to the Visit of General LaFayette to Frankfort, and to the Painting of LaFayette’s Portrait by Jouett
A Section of the Governor’s Message
November 1, 1824 ............................................................................   71

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs
Current Literature
A Happy New Year ...........................................................................   81
Number Thirty-Two, May 1913

Daniel Boone in the Kanawha Valley
W. S. Laidley ................................................................. 9

An Elegant Gift
A Bronze Bust of Nathaniel Southgate Shaler
Presented to the State Historical Society
R. A. F. Penrose of Philadelphia
Tribute to Prof. Shaler by Mrs. Jennie C. Morton, Regent of the Kentucky State Historical Society......................... 15

Kentucky Volunteers in the Texas Revolution
James E. Winston ....................................................... 19

A Hundred Years Ago
Siege of Fort Meigs and “Dudley’s Defeat”
A. C. Quisenberry.......................................................... 31

A Souvenir
From the Grave of Helen Hunt Jackson
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton..................................................... 41

Inscriptions for Theodore O’Hara’s Tomb.......................... 45

Rothert’s Forthcoming “History of Muhlenberg County”
Young E. Allison.......................................................... 49

The First Pioneer Families of Virginia
A. C. Quisenberry.......................................................... 57

Department of Paragraphs and Clippings ......................... 79
To Woodrow Wilson
The President of the United States of America................................. 81

Library List Since January 1913.......................................................... 92

Number Thirty-Three, September 1913

One Hundred Years Ago—The Battle of the Thames
A. C. Quisenberry............................................................................... 9

Second Street, South Frankfort
Chapter One
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton, May 1899...................................................... 31

The Struggle for Civil and Religious Liberty—Kentuckians Did Their Part
George Baber ................................................................................... 45

Mrs. Julia Wickliffe Beckham
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton..................................................................... 53

Letter of Governor Shelby to the Honorable Thomas Todd and Reply Thereto
(This letter, in the possession of Charles Todd of Owensboro, Kentucky, was kindly copied by him, for The Register. It is good reading a hundred years later.—Editor of The Register).............. 59

An Andrew Jackson Letter................................................................. 63

Sketch of Theodore O'Hara
J. Stoddard Johnston...................................................................... 67

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs ........................................... 75

Historical and Genealogical Department
Preface .............................................................................................. 84
Hume Genealogy
Being an Account of the Francis Hume Branch of the Wedderburn Humes, of Scotland, Virginia, and Kentucky compiled by Edgar E. Hume, Jr., A. M., M. D................................. 85

Boone Day at the Capitol
Celebration of the Kentucky State Historical Society
Annual Meeting, June 7, 1913
Brief Review of the Work of the Kentucky State Historical Society and the O'Hara Memorial
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton, Regent and Secretary-Treasurer ..................... 97

VOLUME 12

Number Thirty-Four, January 1914

Kentucky’s Soldier Bard
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton ........................................................................ 9

Kentucky “Regulars” in the War of 1812
A. C. Quisenberry ............................................................................ 13

Old Graham Springs
At Harrodsburg, Kentucky, Once the Most Fashionable Summer Resort in the State—Now Only a Memory of the Past
Miss Martha Stephenson .................................................................. 27

General W. H. Lytle and his famous poem
“I Am Dying, Egypt, Dying”
J. Stoddard Johnston ....................................................................... 39

The Three Wooleys The Jurist and Legislator; The Orator, Soldier, and Lawyer; The Author and Public Official
George Baber .................................................................................... 47

At Ashland
Home of Henry Clay, Lexington, Kentucky ....................................... 57

Department of Paragraphs and Clippings ......................................... 61

Department of Genealogy
The Hume Genealogy
Being an account of the Francis Hume branch of the Wedderburn Humes of Scotland, Virginia, and Kentucky (continued)
compiled by Edgar Erskine Hume, A.M., M.D. .................................. 85

Report of the Secretary-Treasurer
Kentucky State Historical Society
Newspapers, Magazines, Books, and Pamphlets ............................... 113

Records from Lincoln County
Lucien Beckner ............................................................................... 119

Necrology
Number Thirty-Five, May 1914

Rear Admiral James E. Jouett
A Distinguished Kentuckian and A Heroic Naval Officer
George Baber ................................................................. 9

Unveiling of Monument at Louisville, Kentucky, by the Colonial Dames of America, November 8, 1913, to commemorate the establishment of the Town of Louisville, 1780
Ella Hutchison Ellwanger .............................................. 19

Coal Mining and its Bearing on Local History, Louisville, Kentucky
Otto A. Rothert ............................................................. 33

Historic Streets of Frankfort
South Frankfort
Main Street—Later Capitol Avenue
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton .................................................... 39

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs .......................... 47

Department of History and Genealogy
Col. Joseph Lindsay, soldier with Gen. George Rogers Clark, conductor of the expedition which first took Vincennes
Mrs. Martha T. Nuckols, Lexington, Kentucky ................. 61

Soldiers of the War of 1812
Richard Price, Who Lost Their Lives in the Campaigns of 1813 .... 64

Early Marriage Bonds of Franklin County, Kentucky, 1800-1801-1802
compiled from the records
George C. Downing
continued from May 1909 .................................................. 67

Lincoln County Records
Lincoln County Marriages From the Formation of Number Thirty-Six, September 1914

Adlai Ewing Stevenson
A Kentuckian who, removing to Illinois, had a Distinguished Career and reached the Vice Presidency of the United States
A Sketch of his Public Services
George Baber ................................................................. 9

A Hundred Years Ago—MacArthur’s Raid—The Treaty of Peace
A. C. Quisenberry ............................................................................. 19

Chinese Lyric ................................................................................... 31

A Tragedy of Surnames..................................................................... 32

Some Early Engineers and Architects in Kentucky
Alfred Pirtle
A paper read before the Engineers’ and Architects’ Club of Louisville, Kentucky, October 21, 1913 ............................................. 37

Department of Journalism
Lexington, Kentucky ......................................................................... 54

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs ......................................... 61

Early Marriage Bonds of Franklin County, Kentucky, 1803-1804-1805 compiled from the records by George C. Downing
continued from May 1914 ................................................................. 79

Records of Lincoln County (concluded) compiled by Lucien Beckner ............................................................. 89

Boone Day—Sixth of June ................................................................. 100

Necrology—W. W. Stephenson .......................................................... 109
VOLUME 13

Number Thirty-Seven, January 1915

The Battle of New Orleans
Last Battle of the War of 1812-15
A. C. Quisenberry ................................................................. 9

Minnehaha
A Mid-Summer Memory
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton ......................................................... 29

Department of Paragraphs and Clippings .................................. 33

The Panama Canal
M. H. Thatcher, late Isthmian Canal Commissioner, and Head of the Department of Civil Administration, Canal Zone ... 47

Department of History and Genealogy
Throckmorton and Warner and Descendants
Sir John Throckmorton ......................................................... 79

The Pryor Ancestry ................................................................. 89

Report of Newspapers, Magazines, Pamphlets, and Books for Historical Society .......................................................... 92

Number Thirty-Eight, May 1915

The Washington Portrait Unveiled
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton .......................................................... 9

Proceedings of the Celebration, February 22nd,
In the Hall of Fame, at the Capitol, Frankfort, Kentucky, with Clippings, Tributes to Washington, etc.
From Frankfort State Journal .................................................. 10

Flags Associated with Washington during the American Revolution
An Address by R. C. Ballard Thruston, President General of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution,
Before the Kentucky State Historical Society, at its meeting on February 22, 1915, Frankfort, Kentucky ................................. 21

Address of the Artist, Prof. Pasquale Farina, At the Washington—The Incomparable American

Address by Rev. Roger T. Nooe on the Occasion of the Unveiling of the Washington Portrait

Biographical Sketch of General John B. Castleman
Mrs. Ella H. Ellwanger

Some Early Industries of Mercer County
Read by Mary A. Stephenson
Before the Harrodsburg Historical Society, March 6, 1914

Old Times in Warren
Reminiscences of the Green River Section of Kentucky
George Baber

Department of Paragraphs and Clippings

Department of Questions and Answers

Books, Magazines, and Newspapers

Number Thirty-Nine, September 1915

The Register Looking Backward

The World’s War

Governor James B. McCreary
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton

Prentice Statue Unveiled in Louisville the Second Time
Ella Hutchison Ellwanger

To Eugene Field

Report of Boone Day
In the Hall of Fame, Kentucky State Historical Society, Frankfort, Kentucky, June 7, 1915, 11 o’clock a.m.

Secretary-Treasurer
To Observe Boone Day at Historical Society Rooms “Open Doors” From 9 Until 2 O’clock Tomorrow at Society’s Headquarters
Boone’s Memory is Honored
Monument Now Shows Spot Where Pioneer Entered Kentucky With North Carolinians
Four States Pay Tribute to Heroes of Early Days ............................... 47

Streets of the Capital of Kentucky
Streets of Old Frankfort, North from the Kentucky River Bank
The Streets of New or South Frankfort
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton ...................................................................... 55

Conservation of Our Resources
A New Contributor
Miss Cora Benedict ........................................................................ 59

“The Golden Horseshoe of Virginia” ................................................. 62

Department of Paragraphs and Clippings ........................................ 67

“Heads of Families” in Franklin County
Census of 1810
A. C. Quisenberry ........................................................................... 79

VOLUME 14

Number Forty, January 1916

Colonel J. Stoddard Johnston
A Great Kentuckian, Who Was Distinguished as a Soldier, Scholar, Politician, and Journalist
George Baber ................................................................................... 9

Boone Records
From MSS. “Society of Friends,” Pennsylvania
J. D. Bryan (Deceased), and James Boone of Pennsylvania .......... 17

Burr and Blennerhassett at Chaumiere
Mrs. Alysonia Rennick Todd (Deceased) ........................................ 39

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs ................................. 51

A Song ............................................................................................. 60

The Review of the Kentucky State Historical Society
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton
Number Forty-One, May 1916

Biographical Sketch of Major Henry T. Stanton
Poet and Journalist of Kentucky
Col. J. Stoddard Johnston ................................................................. 9

A Sketch of the Life and Times of General Benjamin Logan
Bessie Taul Conkwright ................................................................. 21

“Heads of Families” in Woodford County, Census of 1810
A. C. Quisenberry ................................................................. 39

Jared De Mint
An Indian Episode in the Early History of Franklin County
Leonna Jett Shryock (Mrs. E. D. Shryock), Deceased ....................... 57

Dr. William Louis Rodman
A Short Sketch of the Life of this Illustrious Kentuckian .......... 65

Department of Paragraphs and Clippings ................................... 75

Number Forty-Two, September 1916

Brief History of Frankfort Cemetery and Sketch of Judge Thomas James
The Frankfort Cemetery ................................................................. 9

General Benjamin Logan (concluded)
Bessie Conkwright ................................................................. 21

The Blairs
George Baber of Kentucky ...................................................... 37

Bathurst
Home of the Jones Family of Virginia and Kentucky ................. 53

“Crazy Ellen”
Henry T. Stanton ...................................................................... 59

Crowned
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton.................................................................................. 65

The Newspapers
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton.................................................................................. 69

Dedication of Lot for Revolutionary Soldiers
List of Inscriptions on Monuments of Revolutionary Soldiers, Frankfort Cemetery.......................................................................................... 73

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs ......................................................... 87

VOLUME 15

Number Forty-Three, January 1917

Kentucky’s “Neutrality” in 1861
A. C. Quisenberry........................................................................................ 9

Whitley Mansion
Eliza A. Herring.......................................................................................... 25

The Dorseys of Kentucky
Stanton Lindsey Dorsey.................................................................................. 29

My Partners
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton.................................................................................. 39

Life and Poems of Amelia Welby
Ella Hutchison Ellwanger............................................................................. 43

The New Year
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton.................................................................................. 49

Meeting of the Kentucky State Historical Society, October 3, 1916.... 50

The Frankfort Corner Stone
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton.................................................................................. 53

Death of Will T. Hundleigh, Artist, on the 15th of September, at his home in Georgetown.................................................................................. 55

Rose Hill
Cora Benedict.............................................................................................. 56

Department of Paragraphs and Clippings and Enquiries and Answers .................................................................................................................. 61

The D. A. R. Department
A New Department .......................................................................................... 78

A List of Soldiers of the Various Wars, buried in the Frankfort Cemetery at Frankfort, Kentucky compiled by the Frankfort chapter N. S. D. A. R., Mrs. George Baker, Regent, for the D. A. R. Department of Register ......................... 79

Names of Soldiers Inscribed on Kentucky State Military Monument in Commemoration of their Valorous Services in Defense of their Country.......................................................... 86

Number Forty-Four, May 1917

The Hoskins of Kentucky
Eliza A. Herring ................................................................................................ 9

The Alleged Secession of Kentucky
A. C. Quisenberry .......................................................................................... 15

Lincoln, Jefferson Davis, and Francis Blair
Gist Blair ......................................................................................................... 35

A Kentucky Tragedy
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton .................................................................................. 43

The Hanna House on Second Street from History of Second Street, South Frankfort, published in The Register, Vol. II, September, 1913 ................................................................. 47

Israel Donalson, Maysville’s First School Teacher
His Thrilling Escape from the Indians
A. F. Curran .................................................................................................. 51

The Crowner at the Coronation of King Edward VII
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton
from the Poet’s Corner in the Evening Post, Louisville, Kentucky, 1901 ............................................................. 65

History of Education in Kentucky
Miss Martha Stephenson ................................................................................ 69

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs ......................................................... 83
Number Forty-Five, September 1917

Boone Day 7th of June 1917
Memorial Occasion
In Honor of the late Lieutenant Richard Caswell Saufley, Aviator of the United States Navy, Annapolis, Maryland, Killed While Making a Flight in an Aeroplane, Pensacola, Florida, June 9, 1916................................................................. 9

“Our Sky Pilot”
In Memory of Lieutenant Richard Caswell Saufley of the United States Navy
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton................................................................. 19

History of Morgan’s Men
A. C. Quisenberry................................................................. 23

Mulberry Hill
The First Home of George Rogers Clark in Kentucky
Alfred Pirtle ................................................................. 49

Kentucky Honors Robert Burns Wilson
Caroline W. Berry................................................................. 57

Her Song
(Republished by request of an Oregon correspondent)
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton................................................................. 63

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs ........................................ 67

Heartless
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton................................................................. 79

Review of the Kentucky State Historical Society
From June 7, 1916, to June 7, 1917 ........................................... 83

The Strothers
William E. Railey
Author of The Randolph-Railey Genealogy .............................. 89

VOLUME 16

Number Forty-Six, January 1918
Brief Sketches of the Randolphs and Their Connections the Woodsons; the Keiths; the Strothers
Also a Brief Sketch of the Owsleys and the Whitleys
William Edward Railey, 1917, member, Kentucky Historical Society. 61

Representatives of Frankfort and Franklin County, Kentucky, in the United States Army and Navy, April 1, 1918 compiled by George C. Downing .......................... 79

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs .................. 87

Song of the Kentucky Boy in France
Harry Shaw, Sr......................................................... 101

Number Forty-Eight, September 1918

The Battles of Big Hill and Richmond, Kentucky, September, 1862
A. C. Quisenberry
With Supplement from “Under the Stars and Bars”.............. 9

Historic Frankfort
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton............................................... 29

Stephen C. Foster
Poet and Songwriter, Author of “My Old Kentucky Home”
Mrs. Jennie C. Morton............................................... 35

Old Farm and Church Burying Grounds of Franklin County, Kentucky
compiled for Frankfort Chapter, D. A. R., Frankfort, Kentucky
Mrs. George Baker, Regent ........................................... 39

Notes and Corrections of the Railey Genealogy
W. E. Railey, With Letters to Him of Genealogical Interest to Others . 47

Department of Clippings and Paragraphs
From Newspapers, Magazines, and the Official Register .......... 55

Augusta County, Virginia, in the History of the United States
Boutwell Dunlap ......................................................... 77

VOLUME 17

Number Forty-Nine, January 1919
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Oxmoor—Its Builder and Its Historian</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ella Hutchison Ellwanger</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Marjorie Ayleffe Smith Indian Collection presented by Edward Smith</td>
<td>25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>J. E. Barton</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Confederate Campaign in Kentucky, 1862</td>
<td>31</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Battle of Perryville</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. C. Quisenberry</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Two Poems</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“He Was My Friend”</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mrs. Jennie Chinn Morton</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“The Boys From U. S. A.”</td>
<td>41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>George M. Spears, Dallas, Texas</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Passing of Three Notably Great Men of Kentucky in 1918</td>
<td>45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hon. John Edwards and John Edwards, Gentleman</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>First two John Edwardses in Bourbon County, Kentucky</td>
<td>50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Henry Strother</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Early Railroading in Kentucky</td>
<td>55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>R. S. Cotterill</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The War, The Armistice, and the Peace Conference</td>
<td>65</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Associate Editor</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Department of Paragraphs and Clippings</td>
<td>73</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Number Fifty, May 1919

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>On the Roll of Honor</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>First Lieutenant James Francis Quisenberry, Company E,</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>319th Engineers, United States Army</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Famous Steamboats on Western and Southern Waters</td>
<td>17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ella Hutchison Ellwanger</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>His Last Trip</td>
<td>43</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Will S. Hays</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Genealogy and History of the Trabue Family</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Number Fifty-One, September 1919

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>James Andrew Hill</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A Gallant Young Soldier, Killed on the Battlefield of France, September 1918</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Boone Day, June 7, 1919</td>
<td>17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Shakertown, Its Present and Its Past</td>
<td>31</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ella Hutchison Ellwanger</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kentucky Petroleum: Its History and Present Status</td>
<td>47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Willard R. Jillson, Kentucky State Geologist</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>General W. H. Lytle and his Famous Poem</td>
<td>53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“I am Dying, Egypt, Dying”</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>J. Stoddard Johnson</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>From January 1914. Republished by Request</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rear Admiral Hugh Rodman</td>
<td>57</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mrs. John S. Cannon</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Soldiers’ Retreat</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A Historical House and its Famous People</td>
<td>67</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kitty Anderson</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Read before the Filson Club, April 7, 1919</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Department of Clippings and Paragraphs</td>
<td>81</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

VOLUME 18

Number Fifty-Two, January 1920

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Governor Edwin P. Morrow</td>
<td>7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mrs. Jennie Chinn Morton</td>
<td>13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Famous Steamboats and their Captains on Western and Southern Waters</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Second of the Series</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Title</td>
<td>Page</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>----------------------------------------------------------------------</td>
<td>------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ella Hutchison Ellwanger</td>
<td>21</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Re-Born Oil Fields of Kentucky</td>
<td>35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Willard R. Jillson, State Geologist of Kentucky</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>History of the Trappists in Kentucky</td>
<td>47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Right Rev. Edmund M. Obrecht, O. R. C.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Woodford County, Kentucky</td>
<td>53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>W. E. Railey</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brief Sketch of Services of Lieutenant P. N. O’Bannon,</td>
<td>73</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A Kentucky Soldier in the War with Tripoli</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kentucky—Mother of United States Senators and Representatives</td>
<td>79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. C. Quisenberry</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Department of Paragraphs and Clippings</td>
<td>101</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Number Fifty-Three, May 1920

“Above and Beyond the Call of Duty”
Fred P. Caldwell, State Historian for Kentucky Council of Defense, Louisville, Kentucky ........................................... 9

The First Kentucky Cavalry, U. S. A.
A. C. Quisenberry ...................................................................... 15

“Spring Hill,” Oldham County, Kentucky
The Home of Major William Berry Taylor
A Great-Granddaughter, Alice Elizabeth Trabue .......................... 23

Famous Steamboats and their Captains on Western and Southern Waters (concluded)
Ella Hutchison Ellwanger .......................................................... 33

“Old Town Park,” Harrodsburg, Kentucky
Mary A. Stephenson .................................................................... 49

Woodford County (Second Installment)
W. E. Railey .................................................................................. 61

Department of Paragraphs and Clippings .................................. 105
Number Fifty-Four, September 1920

New Home of Historical Society ............................................................... 5
U. S. Marines from Kentucky Who Lost their Lives in the World War ................................................................. 7
Kentucky Union Troops in the Civil War
A. C. Quisenberry ................................................................................. 13
Lieutenant Stephen B. Marcum .......................................................... 19
Lieutenant Presley Neville O'Bannon ................................................. 21
Our Lady Laureate
A Tribute to the Memory of Mrs. Jennie C. Morton ......................... 25
Woodford County (Third Installment)
William E. Railey ............................................................................ 27
Paragraphs and Clippings ................................................................. 89

VOLUME 19

Number Fifty-Five, January 1921

The Kentucky State Historical Society ............................................... 5
The Turner Family
Jozie Mae Turner Matthews (Mrs. Walter Matthews) ....................... 13
Lieutenant Governor Thruston Ballard ............................................. 21
William Marcus Linney
Mrs. D. M. Hutton ........................................................................... 25
A Relic of Indian Days
The Old Innes Fort on Elkhorn Creek
Geo. A. Lewis ................................................................................ 29
Honor the Memory of War Nurse .................................................... 33
Mrs. Desha Breckinridge ................................................................. 35
Woodford County (Fourth Installment)
William E. Railey .............................................................................. 39

Miscellaneous
Minutes of the Kentucky State Historical Society, 1920 .................... 117

Kentucky’s Part in the World War
Louisville Post, November 11, 1920 ................................................... 121

Number Fifty-Six, May 1921

“The Old Kentucky Home”
An Historical Sketch of the Old Bardstown Country Homestead of John Rowan
Willard Rouse Jillson, Director and State Geologist of
The Kentucky Geological Survey....................................................... 3

The Religious Development of Early Frankfort ............................... 9

Old News
Alice Reade Rouse, Covington, Kentucky ........................................ 31

Major Edgar Erskine Hume .............................................................. 48

The Siege of Fort Meigs..................................................................... 54

Woodford County (Fifth Installment)
Wm. E. Railey................................................................................... 63

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 126

Gifts and Loans................................................................................ 132

Number Fifty-Seven, September 1921

Woodford County
concluded—Wm. E. Railey................................................................. 3

Marriage Records of Woodford County, Kentucky, 1789-1799
compiled by Mrs. Ernest Dunlap, Pisgah, Kentucky....................... 61

Fayette County Tax List for Year of 1788 ................................. 67

Col. M. C. Taylor’s Diary in Lopez Cardenas Expedition, 1850 ....... 79
A History of the Kentucky Geological Survey (1838-1921)
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D., Director and State Geologist ............ 90

Frontier Defence ............................................................................. 113

Kentucky Hemp Fields ..................................................................... 115

Captain John Andrew Steele ............................................................ 116

Miscellaneous .................................................................................. 119

VOLUME 20

Number Fifty-Eight, January 1922

Jouett’s Portrait of Lafayette .............................................................. 5

Early Marriage Records of Mercer County compiled by Mrs. T. Henry Coleman, Jane McAfee Chapter, N. S., D. A. R., Harrodsburg, Kentucky ........................................ 9

A History of the Coal Industry in Kentucky
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D., Director and State Geologist,
the Kentucky Geological Survey ................................................... 21

The Press of Harrodsburg ................................................................. 46

A Glimpse of Paris in 1809
Mrs. W. H. Whitley ......................................................................... 49

William Thompson Price
Buried at Frankfort. Tributes from many distinguished men of the nation quoted in oration by Edmund Watson Taylor.
Read at the grave by Dr. Roger T. Nooe ........................................ 58

Clark County, Kentucky, in the Census of 1810 copied and edited by A. C. Quisenberry ....................................... 68

Number Fifty-Nine, May 1922

Henry Watterson ............................................................................ 103

The Discovery of Kentucky
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D., Director and State Geologist,
The Kentucky Geological Survey .............................................................. 117

Correspondence between Governor Isaac Shelby and General
William Henry Harrison, during the War of 1812 ............................... 130

“Heads of Families” in Fayette County, Census of 1810 transcribed and edited by A. C. Quisenberry ...................................... 145

History of the County Court of Lincoln County, Virginia
(now Kentucky)
Lucien Beckner .................................................................................. 170

Oil and Gas in the Big Sandy Valley
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D., State Geologist, the Kentucky
Geological Survey ............................................................................... 191

A Unique Railroad
Martha Stephenson, Harrodsburg, Kentucky ...................................... 194

First Explorations of Daniel Boone in Kentucky
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. ................................................................. 204

Reminiscences from the Life of Col. Cave Johnson .............................. 207

Some New Facts about Abraham Lincoln’s Parents
(The National Republican, October 15, 1921)
Thomas B. McGregor, Assistant Attorney General of Kentucky ....... 213

Some West Kentucky Sketches ............................................................. 219

Number Sixty, September 1922

A Regional History Prior to 1850
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D., Director and State Geologist,
The Kentucky Geological survey .......................................................... 227

Nelson County Marriage Records
compiled by W. J. Dalmazzo, Deputy County Clerk of Nelson County ..................................................................................... 260

Captain James Harrod’s Company
Lucien Beckner .................................................................................. 280

The Quarles Family and their Woodford County Connections
Wm. E. Railey................................................................................... 283

Captain Lewis Rose
Carrie W. Van Arsdell, Harrodsburg, Kentucky  (Great-great-granddaughter of Captain Rose) ................................................................. 287

James Guthrie—Kentuckian, 1792-1869
Robert S. Cotterill
read before the Filson Club, January 2, 1922 ..................................... 290

Madison County Tax List, 1788
List found in basement of “Administration Building,” Old Capitol, May, 1922 arranged for publication by Mrs. Jouett T. Cannon, Associate Editor ............................................................................... 297

“Low Dutch” Colony.......................................................................... 301

Boone Day........................................................................................ 304

VOLUME 21

Number Sixty-One, January 1923

Editor’s Preface ................................................................................ 3

Certificate Book of the Virginia Land Commission, 1779-80.............. 8

Number Sixty-Two, May 1923

Certificate Book of the Virginia Land Commission, 1779-80—
continued............................................................................................ 83

A Gentlewoman of Kentucky (Martinette Viley Witherspoon, 1851-1923) ......................................................................................... 169

Number Sixty-Three, September 1923

Certificate Book of the Virginia Land Commission, 1779-80—
continued............................................................................................. 175

Number Sixty-Three—Supplement, September 1923
Certificate Book of the Virginia Land Commission 1779-80—concluded ................................................................. 283

Locations and Water Courses .............................................................. 314

Elihu Barker Map of Kentucky
Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson, Director and State Geologist, Kentucky Geological Survey.............................................. 322

VOLUME 22

Number Sixty-Four, January 1924

Governor W. J. Fields ....................................................................... 1

Index to Military Certificates, 1787, Etc.
Jouett Taylor Cannon................................................................. 2

Explorers and Early Settlers South of Muldraugh Hill
Otis M. Mather, Hodgenville, Kentucky ............................................. 21

Marriage Records of Bourbon County, 1786-1800 copied from the County Clerk’s Office by Mrs. Charlton Alexander, Paris, Kentucky arranged for publication by Miss Nina M. Visscher ........................... 40

Madison Cawein
John Wilson Townsend................................................................. 80

Captain James Wright
George William Beattie and Helen Pruitt Beattie ............................... 86

The Great Seal of the Commonwealth .................................................. 93

Otto A. Rothert ................................................................................. 97

Mrs. Eleanor Duncan Wood .............................................................. 99

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 101
Report of Secretary-Treasurer, October 3, 1922................................ 103
Library ............................................................................................. 109
Report of Secretary-Treasurer, October 3, 1923 ............................... 110
Number Sixty-Five, May 1924

Department of State Archives ............................................................... 125

Barren County Marriage Records, 1799-1817 copied from Barren County Clerk’s Office by Mrs. Eugene Ray, and alphabetically arranged by Miss Nina Visscher .......................... 139

Old Fort Hill Cemetery
Kentucky’s Oldest Pioneer Burying Ground, at Harrodsburg, Mercer County
Henry Cleveland Wood................................................................. 188

“The Medley”—Kentucky’s First Magazine
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D., State Geologist of Kentucky ............... 192

Something About the Kercheval Family
Guerdon Groves Parry and Lee Kercheval Carr ................................. 195

Bourbon County 1793
“A List of Plats and Certificates Returned to, and Recorded in the Surveyor’s Office of Bourbon County 1793” copied by Julia Spencer Ardery, Paris, Kentucky ............................. 203

The Morancy Family of Woodford County and their French Antecedents
Wm. E. Railey.................................................................................. 205

Major Thomas ap Thomas Jones, of Bathurst, A Revolutionary Soldier
Lewis H. Jones, Louisville, Kentucky ............................................. 208

Miscellaneous.................................................................................. 214

Number Sixty-Six, September 1924

State Archives
Tax Lists of Jefferson County—1789.................................................. 219

Cooper’s Run Baptist Church, Bourbon County, Kentucky
compiled by Mrs. W. H. Whitley, Paris, Kentucky ............................ 252

Early Marriage Records, Union County, Kentucky copied by Mrs. Eugene Ray and arranged for publication by Miss Nina Visscher........................................................................... 261
Early Political Papers of Governor James Turner Morehead
Willard Rouse Jillson, State Geologist of Kentucky ......................... 272

The Edringtons, Taylors, Hancocks, and Craigs of Woodford County and Descendants
Wm. E. Railey ................................................................................... 301

Estill’s Defeat or The Battle of Little Mountain, March 22, 1782 read before the Filson Club by Miss Bessie Taul Conkright ............... 311

Annual Meeting of the Mississippi Valley Historical Association ....... 323

Report of Secretary-Treasurer, Annual Boone Day Meeting Louisville, May 3, 1924 in connection with the annual meeting of the Mississippi Valley Historical Association ........................................... 325

The Harrodsburg Sesqui-Centennial Celebration
“A Pageant of Kentucky’s Historic Past” ............................................ 329

VOLUME 23

Number Sixty-Seven, January 1925

Department of State Archives
Logan County Tax Lists—1795 .......................................................... 3

Kentucky Officers in the Regular Army, 1789-1900 compiled by A. C. Quisenberry ........................................................... 18

Early Political Papers of Governor James Turner Morehead with an Introduction by Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson, State Geologist of Kentucky
continued from September 1923 ..................................................... 36

Report of Secretary-Treasurer—Annual Business Meeting
October 3, 1924 .................................................................................. 62
Report of the Librarian
October Meeting, 1924 ..................................................................... 73

Marriage Bonds of Shelby County—1792-1800 copied from original records by Mrs. E. B. Smith, Shelbyville, Kentucky
arranged for publication by Miss Nina M. Visscher ......................... 74
Inscriptions on Tombstones in Old Third Street Cemetery, Lexington, Kentucky (Partial list) copied by Miss Alice Trabue, Chairman, Historical Research Committee, Colonial Dames Society in Kentucky ......................... 100

Miscellaneous ................................................................................... 109

Number Sixty-Eight, May 1925

Department of State Archives
Madison County Tax Lists, 1792 ...................................................... 115

A Partial List of those at Fort Boonesborough compiled by Mrs. James Caperton (Katherine Phelps), Richmond, Kentucky, January 15, 1925.......................................... 142

The Downfall of the Whig Party in Kentucky
E. Merton Coulter, Head of History Department,
University of Georgia ..................................................................... 162

The Texas Movement in Kentucky (1820-1836)
Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson, State Geologist of Kentucky............... 175

Index to Shelby County Marriages, 1800-1830
compiled from lists copied by Mrs. E. B. Smith, Mrs. J. R.
Cunningham, and Mrs. Graham Lawrence of Shelbyville,
Kentucky ......................................................................................... 185

Miscellaneous ................................................................................... 204

Number Sixty-Nine, September 1925

Department of State Archives—Lincoln County Tax Lists, 1789 ..... 209

Gleanings from the State Archives .................................................. 230

Woodford County Notes
Bell-Thomson-Monroe-Berryman
Wm. E. Railey ................................................................................... 239

Boone Day Celebration ..................................................................... 245

Boone Memorial ............................................................................... 265
Index to Shelby County Marriages, 1800-1830
compiled from lists copied by Mrs. E. B. Smith, Mrs. J. R. Cunningham, and Mrs. Graham Lawrence of Shelbyville, Kentucky
continued from May 1925................................................................. 275

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 302

VOLUME 24

Number Seventy, January 1926

Department of State Archives—Shelby County Tax Lists, 1795
continued from September 1925....................................................... 5

Index to Shelby County Marriages, 1800-1830
compiled from lists copied by Mrs. E. B. Smith, Mrs. J. R. Cunningham, and Mrs. Graham Lawrence of Shelbyville, Kentucky
continued from September 1925....................................................... 26

Bryant’s Station, and its Founder, William Bryant
Thomas Julian Bryant...................................................................... 47

The Cincinnati and Green River Railway Company
Edgar Bruce Wesley ......................................................................... 59

Woodford County Notes
William E. Railey.............................................................................. 64

Annual Business Meeting of Historical Society, October 3, 1925, including Report of Secretary-Treasurer, Report of Librarian, Financial Statement, Minutes of Meeting, Minutes of Executive Committee Meeting, Gifts to Society, Etc. ...................... 72

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 88

Number Seventy-One, May 1926

Department of State Archives—Franklin County Tax Lists, 1795 ...... 95

Department of State Archives—Gleanings from State Archives
continued from September 1925....................................................... 112
Index to Shelby County Marriages, 1800-1830
compiled from lists copied by Mrs. E. B. Smith, Mrs. J. R. Cunningham, and Mrs. Graham Lawrence of Shelbyville, Kentucky concluded .................................................. 129

Carter Henry Harrison, Kentuckian
John Wilson Townsend ............................................................... 150

The Louisville and Nashville Turnpike
S. G. Boyd
read before the Filson Club, November 2, 1925....................... 163

“The Farmer’s Chronicle” published and edited by William L. Neale, Richmond, Kentucky, Saturday, June 6, 1840.
Celebration of the 65th Anniversary of the First Permanent Settlement of Kentucky .................................................. 175

Thomas Burris, Ancestor of Kentucky Pioneers
Bess L. Hawthorne ................................................................. 182

Rev. Andrew Tribble, Pioneer
Bess L. Hawthorne ................................................................. 187

Sketch of Mann Butler
Samuel M. Wilson ............................................................... 191

Notes and Paragraphs .............................................................. 195

Number Seventy-Two, September 1926

Department of State Archives—Christian County Tax Lists—1800 ... 203
Christian County Tax Lists—1799 ........................................... 214

Gleanings from State Archives
continued from May 1926......................................................... 222

Christian County—Index to Marriages 1797 to 1825
A-G ..................................................................................... 234

Letters of General James Wilkinson .......................................... 259

Thomas Lincoln in Cumberland County
Lucien Beckner ................................................................. 268
Why the Mother Town?
Miss Martha Stephenson, Harrodsburg, Kentucky
Read at the unveiling of “The Mother Town” marker at Harrodsburg, June 16, 1926 ............................................................ 271

Gifts and Loans................................................................................ 275

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 279

VOLUME 25

Number Seventy-Three, January 1927

The Life and Times of Robert B. McAfee and his Family and Connections
written by himself
commenced April 23, 1845 ............................................................... 5

Department of State Archives—Mercer County Tax Lists—1795...... 38

Virginia Justices of the Peace and Military Officers in the District of Kentucky Prior to 1792............................................... 55

Christian County—Index to Marriages—1797 to 1825—H to P compiled by Nina M. Visscher, Librarian, Kentucky State Historical Society from Original Material: Bonds, Licenses, Certificates, and Returns in Bond boxes in the Office of the Clerk of Christian County
continued from September 1926..................................................... 63

The Kentucky Geological Survey
Professor L. C. Robinson
Department of Geology, University of Kentucky,
Lexington, Kentucky......................................................................... 86

Proceedings of the Historical Society............................................... 94

Report of Secretary, October 3, 1926 .............................................. 96
Report of the Librarian ................................................................. 99

Miscellaneous
Book Reviews
Lucien Beckner ................................................................................ 102
Number Seventy-Four, May 1927

The Life and Times of Robert B. McAfee and his Family Connections
written by himself
continued from January 1927 .......................................................... 111

Department of State Archives—Tax List of Washington County—
1792 ................................................................................................ 144

Department of State Archives—Letters and Petitions from “Red Banks” 1792 ............................................................................ 155

Christian County—Index to Marriages—1795 to 1825—Q to Y ........ 158

Christian County Wills—Will Books A and B ................................. 174

Governor Powell’s Recommendation to the Legislature Relative to the Establishment of the First Kentucky Geological Survey
Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson, Director and State Geologist,
Kentucky Geological Survey.............................................................. 187

Welsh Surnames
Lewis H. Jones, Louisville, Kentucky .............................................. 190

Diary of William Joseph Clark through the courtesy of Mr. Edward Clark of Lexington, Kentucky.... 193

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 207

Number Seventy-Five, September 1927

The Life and Times of Robert B. McAfee and his Family Connections written by himself (concluded) .......................................................... 215

Department of State Archives, Floyd County................................. 238

Early Floyd County Marriage Records (1803-1860)
Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson, State Geologist, Kentucky Geological Survey, Part I ................................................................................... 242

The Confederate Medal of Honour and the Kentuckians Who Won It
Major Edgar Erskine Hume, United States Army,
Honorary Vice President of the Kentucky State Historical Society..... 270
The Strother Family
compiled by John Chaplin Strother, of Louisville; Henry Strother, of Ft. Worth, Texas, and Mrs. Susan T. Green, and presented by Miss Katherine P. Strother of Louisville, Kentucky ............................... 293

Lincoln County Militia, 1780-1783 ................................................................. 310

Revolutionary Soldiers of Caldwell County, Kentucky
Copies of Depositions of Revolutionary Soldiers who were applicants for pensions under the Act of Congress, March 18, 1818, in Caldwell County, Kentucky, recorded in Order Book B, Caldwell County Clerk’s Office contributed by Mrs. H. R. Carpenter of the Missouri Historical Society, St. Louis, Missouri  ............................................................................. 313

Memorials Unveiled .................................................................................. 317

Miscellaneous
Genealogical Queries ............................................................................... 331

VOLUME 26

Number Seventy-Six, January 1928

Governor F. D. Sampson ........................................................................... 3

The McAfee Papers .................................................................................. 4

Department of State Archives, Campbell County copied from Original Parchment Enrolled Bill in State Archives ..... 24

Campbell County Tax Lists 1795 ............................................................. 27

Early Days in Campbell County, Kentucky, 1790-1850 Helen Bradley Lindsey, Clifton, Newport, Kentucky ............. 35

Early Floyd County Marriage Records (1803-1860) Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson, State Geologist Kentucky Geological Survey Part II (concluded) .................................................. 43

North Carolina and Kentucky—A Study in Origins Professor Archibald Henderson, D. C. L., LL. D., of the University of North Carolina ................................................................. 64

Annual Meeting—Reports ....................................................................... 71
Secretary’s Report ................................................................................ 71
Report of the Librarian ......................................................................... 81
Minutes of Annual Business Meeting .................................................. 86
Miscellaneous ..................................................................................... 90

Number Seventy-Seven, May 1928

The McAfee Papers—Book and Journal of Robt. B. McAfee’s Mounted Company, in Col. Richard M. Johnson’s Regiment continued from January Register ................................................................. 107

Nelson County Tax Lists—1792 ............................................................ 137

Kentucky Bible Records ...................................................................... 155

Early Settlers in Campbell County, Kentucky
Lindsey—McPike—Noble
Helen Bradley Lindsey, Newport, Kentucky ....................................... 190

Miscellaneous .................................................................................... 204

Number Seventy-Eight, September 1928

Gideon Shryock—Pioneer Greek Revivalist of the Middlewest
Rexford Newcomb, M. A., M. Arch., A. I. A. Professor of History of Architecture, University of Illinois ................................................... 221

The McAfee Papers
Book and Journal of Robert B. McAfee’s Mounted Company in Col. Richard M. Johnson’s Regiment—(concluded) ......................... 237

State Archives—Montgomery County .................................................. 249

Montgomery County Death Records taken from the files by Hattie M. Scott, Frankfort, Kentucky ............ 266

Montgomery County, Kentucky—Marriages copied by Hattie M. Scott, Frankfort, Kentucky 1852-1859, inclusive (1854 missing). .................................................... 270

The Blue Licks Monument .................................................................. 289

Kentucky Tombstone Inscriptions
contribution by the COLONIAL DAMES SOCIETY in Kentucky through Miss Alice E. Trabue, Chairman of Historical Research........ 301

Thomas Noble Lindsey and Descendants
Helen B. Lindsey, Fort Thomas, Kentucky ........................................ 311

Colonel Asa Payne
J. Stoddard Johnston
copied from Georgetown Times of September 20, 1898 contributed by Mrs. W. H. Coffman, Georgetown, Kentucky .............. 319

Miscellaneous .................................................................................. 324

VOLUME 27
Number Seventy-Nine, January 1929

Memoirs of Micah Taul ................................................................. 343

Department of State Archives, Wayne County, Kentucky .............. 381

Wayne County Tax Lists—1801 ....................................................... 382

Wayne County, Vital Statistics
Notes copied by Hattie M. Scott, Frankfort, Kentucky ................. 387

Kentucky Tombstone Inscriptions
contributed by the COLONIAL DAMES SOCIETY in Kentucky through Miss Alice E. Trabue, Chairman of Historical Research..... 393

Abraham Lincoln, Senior, and his Land on Green River
Mrs. Jouett Taylor Cannon, Secy. Kentucky State Historical Society ............................................................................................. 408

Samuel D. McCullough’s Reminiscences of Lexington copied from and compared with the original manuscript in the Lexington Library by Dr. W. R. Jillson, State Geologist ............... 411

Records from the Family Bible of Enoch Kellie McGee of Spencer County, Kentucky compiled by Major Edgar Erskine Hume, U. S. Army ....................... 433

Skelton
Judge Lewis H. Jones, Louisville, Kentucky..................................... 437
Sketches of Owens and Tate Families
R. M. Mayfield, M. D., Seattle, Washington .................................................. 440

Revolutionary Soldiers
Nina M. Visscher, Librarian, Kentucky State Historical Society ........ 443

Annual Meeting of Kentucky State Historical Society,
October 3, 1928 .................................................................................................. 450
Secretary’s Report .......................................................................................... 450
Report of the Librarian .................................................................................. 457
Minutes of the Annual Business Meeting ...................................................... 461

Miscellaneous .................................................................................................. 464

Number Eighty, May 1929

Hart County, Kentucky .................................................................................. 473

Hart County Tax List—1819 ........................................................................... 475

Hart County Death Statistics copied and indexed by Hattie M. Scott .......................................................... 485

Memoirs of Micah Taul
continued from January Register .................................................................. 494

Kentucky Tombstone Inscriptions
contributed by the COLONIAL DAMES SOCIETY IN KENTUCKY, through Miss Alice E. Trabue, Chairman of Historical Research
continued from January Register ................................................................. 518

Revolutionary Soldiers
compiled from files of old newspapers in Library of the Kentucky State Historical Society
Nina M. Visscher, Librarian
continued from January Register ................................................................. 530

The Ante-Bellum Hemp Trade of Kentucky with the Cotton Belt
T. D. Clark ....................................................................................................... 538

Lincoln Stumps Kentucky
Louis A. Warren, Director, Lincoln Historical Research Foundation,
Fort Wayne, Indiana ....................................................................................... 545

General John Edwards King of Kentucky
A Sketch by His Great Granddaughter, GOODE KING FELDHAUSER, of St. Paul, Minnesota ............................................... 548

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 552

Number Eighty-One, September 1929

The Founding of Harrodsburg
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc. D. ............................................................ 559

Old Fort Harrod
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc. D., State Geologist of Kentucky .......... 563

Live Stock Trade Between Kentucky and the South, 1840-1860
T. D. Clark, Louisville, Mississippi................................................. 569

Department of State Archives, Henderson County...................... 582

Kentucky State Papers
Excerpts from Executive Journal, No. 1—Governor Isaac Shelby...... 587

Revolutionary Soldiers
compiled from files of old newspapers in Library of the Kentucky State Historical Society
Nina M. Visscher, Librarian
continued from May Register .......................................................... 595

Memoirs of Micah Taul
concluded ......................................................................................... 602

Kentucky Tombstone Inscriptions
contributed by The Colonial Dames Society in Kentucky,
through Miss Alice E. Trabue, Chairman of Historical Research
continued from May Register .......................................................... 628

Register of Silas Baptist Church, Bourbon County, Kentucky copied by Edna Talbott Whitley ....................................................... 642

Bible Records
copied by Mrs. L. N. Taylor, Lexington, Kentucky ......................... 648

Log of Lafayette’s Journey Through Kentucky
Ida Earle Fowler, July 12, 1929 ......................................................... 651

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 654
VOLUME 28

Number Eighty-Two, January 1930

Excerpts from Executive Journal of Governor Isaac Shelby continued from September 1929 ................................................................. 1

Mercer County Will Book 1 copied by Jane McAfee Chapter D. A. R.—Mrs. Nell Freeman, Regent ........................................................................................................ 25

Mercer County Tax List—1789 ................................................................ 45

Kentucky Tombstone Inscriptions contributed by the COLONIAL DAMES SOCIETY IN KENTUCKY, through Miss Alice E. Trabue, State Chairman of Historical Research continued from September 1929 ........................................ 47

Revolutionary Soldiers compiled from files of old newspapers in Library of the Kentucky State Historical Society Nina M. Visscher, Librarian ........................................................................ 61

Allen Henry T. Allen, Major General, U. S. Army ........................................ 71

Thomas Lincoln’s Accounts with Elizabethtown Merchants O. M. Mather, Hodgenville, Kentucky ........................................................................ 89

History in Circuit Court Records abstracted by Charles R. Staples ................................................................. 96

Harrod’s Old Fort 1791 Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc. D., State Geologist of Kentucky ............... 104

Annual Meeting of Kentucky Historical Society, October 3, 1929 Secretary’s Report ................................................................. 115
Report of the Librarian ........................................................................ 121

Book Reviews ..................................................................................... 128

Miscellaneous ................................................................................... 132
Number Eighty-Three, April 1930

Excerpts from Executive Journal of Governor Isaac Shelby
continued from January 1930 .......................................................... 139

Limestone, A Gateway of Pioneer Kentucky
Eleanor Duncan Wood, Maysville, Kentucky ................................. 151

Tandy
compiled by Henry T. Allen, Major General, U. S. Army ............... 155

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County, Kentucky
abstracted by Charles R. Staples
continued from January 1930 .......................................................... 175

Revolutionary Soldiers
compiled from the files of old newspapers in library of the Kentucky State Historical Society
Nina M. Visscher, Librarian
continued from January 1930 .......................................................... 193

Miscellaneous ................................................................................... 201

Number Eighty-Four, July 1930

Excerpts from Executive Journal of Governor Isaac Shelby copied from Original Manuscript Journal
continued from April 1930 .............................................................. 203

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County, Kentucky
abstracted by Charles R. Staples
continued from April 1930 .............................................................. 214

Reproduction of “Boone-Bryan History” and “Boone Records” ....... 244

Henderson Memorial Celebration ...................................................... 261

Revolutionary Soldiers ...................................................................... 278

John Filson’s Book and Map: Kentucke, 1784
Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson, State Geologist ................................. 281

Miscellaneous ................................................................................... 284
Number Eighty-Five, October 1930

State Archives—Excerpts from Executive Journal—Governor James Garrard—1796 ................................................................. 291

History Kentucky Constitutions and Constitutional Conventions Geo. L. Willis, Sr................................................................. 305

History in Circuit Court Records Fayette County, Kentucky abstracted by Charles R. Staples continued from July 1930 ................................................................. 330

Boone Records J. D. Bryan (Deceased), and James Boone of Pennsylvania reprint from January 1916 ................................................................. 348

Revolutionary Soldiers copied from files of old newspapers, etc., in Library of Kentucky Historical Society by Nina M. Visscher, Librarian; also Material furnished by Mrs. W. T. Fowler, of Lexington, Kentucky continued from July 1930 ................................................................. 367

Canadian Annexation Sentiment in Kentucky Prior to the War of 1812 Ellery L. Hall ................................................................. 372

Hopewell Presbyterian Church Bourbon County, Kentucky contributed by Mrs. W. H. Whitley, Paris, Kentucky ................................................................. 381

Miscellaneous ............................................................................. 386

VOLUME 29

Number Eighty-Six, January 1931

The History of the Rise and Progress of the First Settlement on Salt River and Establishment of the New Providence Church Robert B. McAfee ................................................................. 1

State Archives—Excerpts from Executive Journal of Governor James Garrard
continued from October 1930 ........................................................... 18

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County, Kentucky
abstracted by Charles R. Staples
continued from October 1930 ........................................................... 34

History Kentucky Constitution and Constitutional Conventions
Geo. L. Willis, Sr.
1930 (concluded) .............................................................................. 52

Adair County, Kentucky
Death Records, 1852-61 ................................................................... 82

Stephenson Family Records contributed by L. O. Stephenson, Mayfield, Kentucky ....................... 90

An Interesting Pioneer—William Brown Graveyard contributed by Dr. William Allen Pusey............................................. 95

Annual Meeting of Kentucky State Historical Society
October 3, 1930 ............................................................................... 97
Secretary’s Report ............................................................................ 97
Report of the Librarian ..................................................................... 108

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 110

Number Eighty-Seven, April 1931

The History of the Rise and Progress of the First Settlement on Salt River and the Establishment of the New Providence Church
Robert B. McAfee
continued from January 1931 .......................................................... 117

The Harned Family of Kentucky contributed by Arthur L. Keith University of South Dakota, Vermillion, South Dakota............... 133

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County, Kentucky
abstracted by Charles R. Staples
continued from January 1931 .......................................................... 159

Old Cane Springs—A Border-Land Tale of the Civil War
Green Clay ....................................................................................... 184
Excerpts from Executive Journal Governor James Garrard
continued from January 1931 .......................................................... 197

Kentucky Historical Society
Samuel M. Wilson ............................................................................ 201

Supplement to the Librarian’s Report ............................................... 205

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 215

Number Eighty-Eight, July 1931

The History of the Rise and Progress of the First Settlement on Salt River and the Establishment of the New Providence Church
Robert B. McAfee
continued from April 1931.............................................................. 231

Old Cane Springs—A Border-Land Tale of the Civil War
Green Clay
continued from April 1931.............................................................. 246

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County, Kentucky
abstracted by Charles R. Staples
continued from April 1931.............................................................. 278

Celebration at Harrodsburg, Kentucky—June 14th, 15th, and 16th, 1841
From “The Farmer’s Chronicle” published and edited by Captain William Lewis Neale
Richmond, Kentucky, June 26th, 1841 ............................................ 298

The Harned Family of Kentucky
contributed by Arthur L. Keith, University of South Dakota, Vermillion, South Dakota.
continued from April 1931.............................................................. 303

Stephenson—Lee—Logan—Gilmore Family Records papers contributed by Mr. L. O. Stephenson, Mayfield, Kentucky ..... 315

Number Eighty-Nine, October 1931

State Archives
Excerpts from the Executive Journal of Governor James Garrard
continued from April 1931 ........................................................... 331

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County
abstracted by Charles R. Staples
continued from July 1931 ........................................................... 350

“Kentucky Hospitality” as Extended by Colonel Richard M.
Johnson and his Fellow Citizens
Leland Winfield Meyer, Head of the Department of History,
Georgetown College ............................................................... 372

George Washington’s Western Kentucky Lands
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc. D., State Geologist ......................... 379

Leestown—Its Founders and Its History
Address delivered by Judge Samuel M. Wilson of Lexington, Kentucky, July 16, 1931, at unveiling of tablet erected by the Susannah Hart Shelby Chapter, N. S. D. A. R., of Frankfort,
Kentucky ............................................................................. 385

Thomas Lincoln’s Wedding Outfit
O. M. Mather, Hodgenville, Kentucky ................................. 397

Introduction of Imported Cattle in Kentucky
North Kentucky Cattle Importing Company .......................... 400

Miscellaneous ...................................................................... 416

VOLUME 30

Number Ninety, January 1932

Governor Ruby Laffoon ......................................................... 1

State Archives
Excerpts from Executive Journal of Governor James Garrard
continued from October 1931 .................................................. 3

Colonel Robert Johnson, A Pioneer Leader in Education and Religion
Leland Winfield Meyer, Ph.D.
Professor of History and Political Science, Georgetown College .... 21

Imported Cattle in Kentucky—Diary of Charles T. Garrard
History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County
abstracted by Charles R. Staples
continued from October 1931 ........................................................... 61

The Collins and Prewitts
Pioneer Patriots Jointly Sketched
Emma Beard Nunnelly, Historian, Big Spring Chapter,
N. S. D. A. R., Georgetown, Kentucky ............................................... 93

Vital Statistics Found in Guthrie’s Grammar owned by Miss Sunshine Sweeney, Lexington, Kentucky ............... 100

Kentucky Items Culled from Early Missionary Records
Mrs. Wm. T. Fowler .......................................................................... 103

Miscellaneous
Kentucky State Historical Society
Report of Secretary-Treasurer, October 3, 1931 ................................. 107
Report of the Librarian, October 1930-1931 .................................. 111

Number Ninety-One, April 1932

The Early History of Madison County
William Chenault
edited by J. T. Dorris ........................................................................ 120

State Archives
General Expenditures of Government—1792-1793
“Ledger A” ....................................................................................... 162

The Logan Family of Lincoln County, Kentucky
Hattie M. Scott, Frankfort, Kentucky ............................................... 173

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County
abstracted by Charles R. Staples
continued from January 1931 .......................................................... 179

Kentucky Tombstone Inscriptions
Cemetery of Cox’s Creek Baptist Church, Nelson County
Organized in April 1785, by Rev. William Taylor copied and contributed by Mrs. Ben Johnson, Bardstown, Kentucky, of Captain John Fitch Chapter, N. S. D. A. R................... 187

Miscellaneous................................................................. 196

Number Ninety-Two, July 1932

Abraham Lincoln
The Story of a New Portrait
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D, of the Executive Committee.............. 205

The Early Portraits of Lincoln
Louis A. Warren ............................................................... 211

State Archives—General Expenditures, 1792-1798
continued from April 1932.................................................. 221

A Check-List of Kentucky Almanacs, 1789-1830
Douglas C. McMurtrie ......................................................... 237

Kentucky Marriage Records
Muhlenberg County, 1799-1836 copied and presented by Mrs. Roy E. Barnhill, Regent, Fort Hartford Chapter, N. S. D. A. R., Hartford, Kentucky, and Member of the State Committee on Genealogical Research alphabetically arranged by Miss Nina M. Visscher, Librarian, of the Kentucky State Historical Society, and Member of the Frankfort Chapter, N. S. D. A. R................................................. 260

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County
abstracted by Charles R. Staples
continued from April 1932.................................................. 281

Miscellaneous........................................................................ 293

Number Ninety-Three, October 1932

State Archives—General Expenditures of Government—1792-1798
“Ledger A”
compiled by Mrs. Jouett Taylor Cannon, Associate Editor
continued from July 1932 .................................................... 297

Geological Research in Kentucky—Addenda
Elmer G. Sulzer of the University of Kentucky
Lexington, Kentucky.................................................................................................................. 322

Pioneer Times in Garrard County
Address Delivered at Unveiling of Tablet to Memory of William Early Buford at Lancaster, June 5, 1932
Facts About Early Organization of County
Samuel M. Wilson
from The Central Record, Lancaster, Kentucky, Thursday,
June 16, 1932.......................................................................................................................... 335

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County
abstracted by Charles R. Staples
continued from July 1932 ....................................................................................................... 344

Muhlenberg County Marriage Records, 1799-1836 copied by Mrs. Roy E. Barnhill, Ft. Hartford Chapter, N. S. D. A. R.
continued from July 1932 ...................................................................................................... 373

Kentucky Tombstone Inscriptions
from the Grave-Yard of Pennsylvania Run Presbyterian Church Jefferson County, Kentucky copied and contributed by Miss Alice E. Trabue, while Chairman of Historic Activities Committee of the Colonial Dames in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, 1924-1930 ................................................. 393

Miscellaneous....................................................................................................................... 398

VOLUME 31

Number Ninety-Four, January 1933

Letter of Col. Nathaniel Hart on the Claims of Boonesboro as the First Place of Settlement in Kentucky edited by J. T. Dorris, Eastern Kentucky State Teachers College....... 1

The Lexington and Ohio Railroad—A Pioneer Venture
T. D. Clark, Department of History, University of Kentucky ............... 9

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County
abstracted by Charles R. Staples
continued from October 1932 ............................................................................................. 29

State Archives—General Expenditures of Government—1792-1798
A 1792 Offer for the Location of the Capital of Kentucky at Boonesboro contributed by J. T. Dorris, Eastern Kentucky State Teachers College ................................................................. 174

Miscellaneous......................................................................................................................................................... 176

Number Ninety-Six, July 1933

The Architecture of Old Kentucky
Rexford Newcomb, M. A., M. Arch., A. I. A.
Professor of History of Architecture and Dean of the College of Fine and Applied Arts, University of Illinois........... 185

State Archives—General Expenditures—1792-1798 copied from original record by Jouett Taylor Cannon
continued from April 1933 ................................................................................................................................. 201

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County, Kentucky
abstracted by Charles R. Staples, Lexington, Kentucky
continued from April 1933 ................................................................................................................................. 216

Early Kentucky Medical Imprints with a Bibliography to 1830
Douglas C. McMurtrie, Chicago ......................................................................................................................... 256

A Document on Michael Stoner
C. Stewart Boertman, University of Michigan................................................................. 271

A Rare Kentucky Map
Willard Rouse Jillson ........................................................................................................................................... 274

Miscellaneous......................................................................................................................................................... 277

Number Ninety-Seven, October 1933

Pioneer Kentucky in its Ethnological Aspect
Samuel M. Wilson
read before D. A. R. Fourth District Conference, at Georgetown, Kentucky, June 22, 1933 ........................................... 283

Young E. Allison—A Biographical Appreciation
Willard Rouse Jillson ........................................................................................................................................... 296
History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County, Kentucky
abstracted by Charles R. Staples, Lexington, Kentucky
continued from July 1933 ................................................................. 303

State Archives—General Expenditures—1792-1798 copied from original records by Jouett Taylor Cannon
continued from July 1933 ................................................................. 328

Kentucky Bible Records—Mercer County copied from original records by Lockette Smith, August 1933 .......... 341

Shopping One Hundred and Thirty Years Ago
Miss Margaret Harrod of Kentucky and what she bought
Ila Earle Fowler ................................................................. 350

Miscellaneous ................................................................................ 354

The Glory of the Hills
Willard Rouse Jillson ................................................................. 359

VOLUME 32

Number Ninety-Eight, January 1934

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County
abstracted by Charles R. Staples, Lexington, Kentucky
continued from October 1933 ........................................................ 1

John Constant—A Kentucky Pioneer
Paper read before the annual meeting of Capt.
John Constant’s descendants, Washington Park, Springfield, Illinois
September 11, 1932
Mrs. Mabel Riddle Carlock, Urbana, Illinois ............................... 23

The Cascade Caves of Carter County, Kentucky
Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson ................................................................. 33

Early Methodism in Kentucky
J. W. Weldon, D. D. ................................................................. 38

State Archives—General Expenditures—1792-1798 copied from the original record by Jouett Taylor Cannon
continued from October 1933 ........................................................... 50

Minutes of the Annual Meeting of the Kentucky State Historical Society held in the Rooms of the Society at three p. m., October 3, 1933 ............................................................................... 69

Minutes of the Meeting of the Executive Committee of the Kentucky State Historical Society held at two p. m., October 3, 1933 .................... 71

Minutes of the Meeting of the Executive Committee of the Kentucky State Historical Society held in the Rooms of the Society at four p. m., October 3, 1933 .......................................................... 72

Report of Secretary-Treasurer—October 3, 1933 ....................... 75
Librarian’s Report 1933 ................................................................. 77

Miscellaneous ............................................................................. 87

Number Ninety-Nine, April 1934

Central University, Richmond, Kentucky
Jonathan Truman Dorris, Eastern Kentucky State Teachers College ................................................................. 91

State Archives—General Expenditures 1792-1798 copied from the original by Jouett Taylor Cannon
continued from January 1934 .................................................. 125

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County
abstracted by Charles R. Staples, Lexington, Kentucky
continued from January 1934 ................................................... 139

Shawnee Warriors at the Blue Licks
Samuel M. Wilson
Address delivered August 19, 1933, at the Commemoration of the One-Hundred-and-Fifty-First Anniversary of the Battle of the Blue Licks ................................................................. 160

Kincheleoe’s, or “The Burnt Station” data furnished by Mrs. Ben Johnson of Bardstown, Kentucky ....... 169

Kentucky Tombstone Inscriptions—Pisgah
Church-Yard—Woodford County, Kentucky copied and presented by Miss Alice E. Trabue, while Chairman of Historic Activities Committee, of the Colonial Dames Society in Kentucky, 1924-1930 .............................. 178

Miscellaneous
“Boone Day” Meeting ........................................................................................................... 184

Number One Hundred, July 1934

The Fame of Daniel Boone
Louise Phelps Kellogg, Ph.D., Litt.D.
Research Associate, State Historical Society of Wisconsin ............................. 187

The Attempt to Establish a State Society of the Cincinnati in Kentucky
Major Edgar Erskine Hume, U. S. Army, President of the Society of the Cincinnati in the State of Virginia and Assistant Secretary General ........................................................................................................... 199

Kentucky’s Active Militia—1786 compiled by Mrs. Jouett Taylor Cannon ................................................................. 225

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County, Kentucky
abstracted by Charles R. Staples, Lexington, Kentucky
continued from April 1934 .................................................................................. 244

State and National Collections of Fosteriana
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. .................................................................................. 270

Miscellaneous ................................................................................................................ 274

Number One Hundred One, October 1934

The Tradewater River Country in Western Kentucky
Ila Earle Fowler
Address delivered before the Filson Club, March 5, 1934 .................... 277

John Cabell Breckinridge
Thesis
A thesis submitted in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Master of Arts at the University of Kentucky
Lucille Stillwell Williams, Lexington, Kentucky, 1934 ......................... 301

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County, Kentucky
abstracted by Charles R. Staples, Lexington, Kentucky
continued from July 1934 ................................................................. 320

Lincoln County in Kentucky—Its Connection with the Lincoln Family
R. Gerald McMurtry, Librarian, Lincoln National Life Foundation ..... 351

The Edwards Family
Geo. Harrison Sanford King, 1301 Prince Edward Street,
Fredericksburg, Virginia ................................................................ 357

Miscellaneous................................................................................. 365

VOLUME 33

Number One Hundred Two, January 1935

The Pioneer Grants
Alice Read Rouse (Mrs. Shelley Rouse)........................................... 1

John Cabell Breckinridge
Lucille Stilwell Williams
continued from October 1934 ....................................................... 13

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County Kentucky
abstracted by Charles R. Staples, Lexington, Kentucky
continued from October 1934 ....................................................... 39

Dedication of George Rogers Clark Memorial ................................. 52

Boone Bicentennial ....................................................................... 64

Early Western Exploration
Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson ................................................................. 70

Wright-Hamilton Families
Copy of old record in the possession of Mr. Wm. Clark, Paris, Kentucky, 1926.
copied and presented by Mrs. W. B. Ardery ................................. 78

Miscellaneous................................................................................. 82
Number One Hundred Three, April 1935

The Journal of my Soldier Life
James Bennett McCready, Major C. S. A. contributed by his Grandchildren Robert N. McCready of Chicago, Illinois, and Mrs. Gatewood Gay of Lexington, Kentucky    97

Lafayette in Kentucky
Major Edgar Erskine Hume, U. S. Army...................................................... 118

Early Kentucky History in Manuscript—A Brief Account of the Draper and Shane Collections
Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson................................................................. 137

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County, Kentucky
abstracted by Charles R. Staples, Lexington, Kentucky
continued from January 1935............................................................... 151

Revolutionary Soldiers and their Land Grants in the Tradewater
River Country of Western Kentucky
Mrs. Ila Earle Fowler ............................................................... 160

Report of Secretary-Treasurer, October 1933-1934......................... 165
Librarian’s Report, 1934.................................................................. 171

Miscellaneous................................................................. 175

Number One Hundred Four, July 1935

The Big Bones of Northern Kentucky
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. .............................................................. 181

The Journal of my Soldier Life
James Bennett McCready, Major C. S. A.
continued from April 1935................................................................. 191

History in Circuit Court Records
Fayette County, Kentucky
abstracted by Charles R. Staples, Lexington, Kentucky
concluded ..................................................................................... 212

Lafayette in Kentucky
Major Edgar Erskine Hume, U. S. Army
continued from April 1935............................................................. 234
The Advertiser—An Early Kentucky Newspaper
Mabel R. Carlock .............................................................................. 252

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 266

Number One Hundred Five, October 1935

Lafayette in Kentucky
Major Edgar Erskine Hume, U. S. Army
continued from July 1935 ............................................................... 277

New Discoveries Amongst Old Records
C. R. Staples, Lexington, Kentucky ................................................. 307

The Good(K)Night (Gutknecht) Family in America
S. H. Goodnight ................................................................................ 326

Transylvania Seminary's First Site and Some Circumstances of Its Beginnings
Annie Stuart Anderson ................................................................ 356

The Transylvania Memorial
Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson, Frankfort, Kentucky ............................... 368

Book Review ..................................................................................... 371

VOLUME 34

Number One Hundred Six, January 1936

Governor Albert Benjamin Chandler .............................................. 1

The Great Crossings Church Records, 1795-1801 edited by Leland Winfield Meyer, Ph.D.
Professor of History, Georgetown College ..................................... 3

The Van Meterens of Holland and America
Amelia Clay Lewis Van Meter Rogers ............................................. 22

Lafayette in Kentucky
Major Edgar Erskine Hume, U. S. Army
continued from October 1935 ....................................................... 42
The Three Transylvania Towns: Boonesborough, Nashville, and Henderson For the Seventh Annual Meeting of the Transylvanians October 12, 1935, at Boonesborough, Kentucky
Susan Starling Towles

Reports of Officers of the Society, from October 3, 1934, to October 3, 1935
Report of the Secretary-Treasurer
Report of the Librarian

Will of William Fleming, Sheriff of Hanover County, Virginia, 1727-1728 contributed by Robert Franklin Cole and Marguerite Strider Parrish

Miscellaneous

Number One Hundred Seven, April 1936

The Letters of James Taylor to the Presidents of the United States copied from originals in the Library of Congress and edited by James A. Padgett, Ph.D.

A Kentucky Contribution to Religion on the Frontier Thomas F. O'Connor, Saint Louis University

Lafayette in Kentucky
Major Edgar Erskine Hume, U. S. Army concluded

Dr. Samuel Littler Metcalf
Charles R. Staples

Caldwell County, Kentucky, Records abstracted from Deed Book A
Ila Earle Fowler

The Great Crossings Church Records, 1795-1801 edited by Leland Winfield Meyer, Ph.D., Professor of History, Georgetown College continued from January 1936

The Bryan Family Papers
Charles R. Staples
Mary Washington’s Home
Elizabeth Patterson Thomas ........................................................................201

Supplement to “The Good(K)Night (Gutknecht) Family in America” ... 205

Miscellaneous...............................................................................................209

Number One Hundred Eight, July 1936

Joel Watkins’s Diary of 1789 edited by Virginia Smith Herold ..................................................................215

The Letters of James Taylor to the Presidents of the United States copied from originals in the Library of Congress and
 edited by James A. Padgett, Ph.D.
 concluded from April 1936 ........................................................................251

Families of McPheeters, Moore, Walker, McDowell, and McDaniel presented to the Kentucky State Historical Society
 Julia Spencer Ardery, Former State Historian, N. S. D. A. R copied from an old manuscript in the possession of Mr. Frank Walker of Paris, Kentucky .........................................................279

Miscellaneous...............................................................................................300

Number One Hundred Nine, October 1936

Baptist Watch-Care in Early Kentucky
Walter B. Posey ..........................................................................................311

The Letters of James Taylor to the Presidents of the United States copied from originals in the Library of Congress and
 edited by James A. Padgett, Ph.D.
 concluded ..................................................................................................318

Families of McPheeters, Moore, Walker, McDowell, and McDaniel
 presented to the Kentucky State Historical Society
 Julia Spencer Ardery, Former State Historian, N. S. D. A. R. copied from an old manuscript in the possession of Mr. Frank Waller of Paris, Kentucky
 concluded ..................................................................................................347

Some English Halleys and Hawleys who Emigrated to America
Eugene F. McPike .......................................................................................... 356

Some Lines of the Graves Family in the Blue Grass Region of Kentucky and Their Connections
Mrs. Sara Graves Clark, Captain John McKinley
Chapter D. A. R., Lexington, Kentucky .......................................................... 361

The Journal of Needham Parry—1794 .......................................................... 379

Liberty Hall ...................................................................................................... 392

A Sketch of Thomas Parvin—First Printer in Kentucky
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D ........................................................................... 395

Early Frankfort and Franklin County, Kentucky
A Review of Willard Rouse Jillson’s Latest Book
John Wilson Townsend .................................................................................. 400

VOLUME 35

Number One Hundred Ten, January 1937

The Letters of Honorable John Brown to the Presidents of the United States copied from the originals in the Library of Congress and edited by James A. Padgett, Ph.D. ................................................................. 1

Tuckahoe and the Tuckahoe Randolphs
Jefferson Randolph Anderson of Savannah, Georgia ................................. 29

Marriage Records of Lawrence County, Kentucky—1822-1859 compiled by John Jay Johnson ...................................................................................... 60

Rare Old Manuscripts Owned in Kentucky .................................................. 73

Katherine Pettit—Pioneer Mountain Worker
Lucy Furman, Author of The Quare Women,
The Glass Window, Lonesome Road, Etc. ..................................................... 75

Secretary’s Report—October 3, 1936 ............................................................ 81

Librarian’s Report—1936 .............................................................................. 85

Frankfort’s Sesqui-Centennial Celebration, 1786-1936
Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson ................................................................................ 91
Number One Hundred Eleven, April 1937

The Letters of Doctor Samuel Brown to President Jefferson and James Brown
edited by James A. Padgett, Ph.D. .............................................................. 99

The Pattons
A Pioneer Family in Kentucky and their Descendants
Sara G. Clark, Captain John McKinley Chapter, D. A. R. ...................... 131

Marriage Records of Lawrence County, Kentucky—1822-1859
compiled by John Jay Johnson
continued from January 1937 ................................................................. 179

Kentucky Acts and Legislative Journals, 1792-1800
A Preliminary Locating Index
Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson........................................................................ 196

The First English Poem on Kentucky
Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson........................................................................ 198

Book Reviews .......................................................................................... 202

Number One Hundred Twelve, July 1937

Letters of Caleb Wallace to James Madison
edited by James A. Padgett, Ph.D ............................................................ 205

Marriage Records of Pike County, Kentucky—1822-1865 compiled by John Jay Johnson ................................................................. 220

Senator Henry S. Lane
Theodore G. Gronert, Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Indiana .......... 260

Dormant Rights to Membership in the Society of the Cincinnati in the State of Virginia
Lieutenant-Colonel Edgar Erskine Hume, U. S. Army, President ...... 265

Dixie Selden
Mrs. H. V. McChesney, Frankfort, Kentucky read at the Annual Meeting of Kentucky State Historical Society, at Old Capitol, June 7, 1937 ............................................................ 273

Kentucky Geography: An Historical Sketch—1909-1937
Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson................................................................. 277

Hopewell Presbyterian Church
Samuel M. Wilson
read at the celebration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the church ........................................................... 286

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 294

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 296

Number One Hundred Thirteen, October 1937

The Life and Letters of James Johnson of Kentucky
edited by James A. Padgett, Ph.D. .................................................... 301

Bibliography of Lincoln County
Chronologically and Historically Arranged and Annotated
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. ............................................................. 339

Marriages and Obituaries from Kentucky Reporter, Lexington, 1827 copied by Nina M. Visscher............................................................... 360

The Legislative Contest of 1809
Geo. K. Holbert................................................................................. 364

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 377

VOLUME 36

Number One Hundred Fourteen, January 1938

The Meaning of the Past for the Future
Cassius M. Clay
read at the Sesqui-Centennial Celebration of Madison County, at Richmond, Kentucky, October 17, 1937 ............ 1

The Siege of Bryan’s Station
Richard H. Collins, LL.D.
edited by Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D............................................ 15
The Chiles and Allied Families
Sarah G. Clark, John McKinley Chapter D. A. R. ........................................ 26

The Beauchamp-Sharp Tragedy in American Literature
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. ................................................................. 54

John Brown and his Influence on Kentucky Politics, 1784-1805
Elizabeth Warren
summary or digest of Ph.D. thesis, written at Northwestern University under the direction of Professor I. J. Cox............................... 61

Daniel Sibert’s Reminiscences of the War of 1812—Letters to his Brother, Jeremiah Sibert ................................................................. 66

Secretary’s Report—October 4, 1937 .................................................. 72

Librarian’s Report—October 1936 to October 1937 ............................. 80

Report of the Curator—October 1, 1936 to September 30, 1937 ......... 85

The First Constitution of Kentucky ..................................................... 89

Miscellaneous .................................................................................. 91

Number One Hundred Fifteen, April 1938

The Letters of Hubbard Taylor to President James Madison
edited by James A. Padgett, Ph.D. ....................................................... 95

The Chiles and Allied Families
Sara G. Clark
continued from January 1938 .......................................................... 128

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries—1787-1860
compiled by G. Glenn Clift............................................................... 158

Early Kentucky Church Records
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D ............................................................... 183

Miscellaneous .................................................................................. 186

Book Reviews .................................................................................. 187
Number One Hundred Sixteen, July 1938

Whitley Papers, Volume 9—Draper Manuscripts—Kentucky Papers
edited by Bayless Hardin ................................................................. 189

The Letters of Hubbard Taylor to President James Madison
edited by James A. Padgett
continued from April 1938 .......................................................... 210

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift
Part One: Marriages
continued from April 1938 .......................................................... 240

Trial List of Titles of Kentucky Newspapers and Periodicals
Before 1860
Kenneth W. Rawings, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina ..... 263

Miscellaneous ............................................................................. 288

Number One Hundred Seventeen, October 1938

“Macedonia”
“The Church of Our Ancestors”
Sara Graves Clark, Captain John McKinley Chapter of the D. A. R. .. 291

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift
continued from July 1938 ............................................................ 306

The Letters of Colonel Richard Taylor and of Commodore Richard Taylor to James Madison, Together with a Sketch of Their Lives
James A. Padgett, Ph.D. ................................................................. 330

Ancestry of the Children of Andrew McClure of Montgomery County, Kentucky
compiled by Donnell Mac Clure Owings,
Mattoon, Illinois, June 1937 ............................................................ 345

Governor Shelby’s Militia Report to the General Assembly of Kentucky—1792
edited by Bayless Hardin ............................................................ 353

Leitch Station in Campbell County, Kentucky
Helen Bradley Lindsey ................................................................. 359
The Famous Falls of the Ohio Trip
Causes for Its Necessity, and Reasons Why Daniel Boone Chose Michael Stoner to Be His Sole Companion
Bess L. Hawthorne, A Descendant of Michael Stoner .........................365

Miscellaneous..........................................................................................376

Book Reviews ..........................................................................................379

VOLUME 37

Number One Hundred Eighteen, January 1939

Some Letters of Isaac Shelby edited by James A. Padgett....................................................................1

Daugherty
A Complete Index to and Abstract of the Name and Variations of the Spelling in the Virginia Land Office at Richmond compiled by C. B. Heinemann.................................................................10

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift
continued from October 1938.................................................................18

A True Story of the Old South
Notes from a Confederate Diary
C. H. Brannon, Division of Entomology,
State Department of Agriculture, Raleigh, North Carolina ..................40

James Harrod's Estate
Kentucky Prosperity in 1793
Ila Earle Fowler ....................................................................................54

Clay and California Statehood
Robert J. Parker ....................................................................................57

James L. Isenberg ....................................................................................59

Annual Report of the Secretary-Treasurer
October 3, 1938 ....................................................................................65

Report of the Librarian ............................................................................70
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Report of the Curator</td>
<td>74</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Will of Judge John Graham, of Floyd County, Kentucky</td>
<td>78</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Miscellaneous</td>
<td>81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Number One Hundred Nineteen, April 1939</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Land Title to Liberty Hall</td>
<td>87</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mercer County, Kentucky</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>abstracts of Will Books 3 and 4</td>
<td>94</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>contributed by Jane McAfee Chapter, D. A. R., Harrodsburg, Kentucky</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A Sketch of the Life and Times of Rebecca Witten Graham, of Floyd</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>County, Kentucky, 1775-1843</td>
<td>117</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift</td>
<td>127</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>continued from January 1939</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Letters of James Chamberlayne Picket</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>edited by James A. Padgett</td>
<td>151</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Miscellaneous</td>
<td>171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Number One Hundred Twenty, July 1939</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kentucky History in Old Deposition</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Washington County, Kentucky</td>
<td>177</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Orval W. Baylor</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Early Marriage Records of Madison County, Kentucky</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>compiled by Judge W. Rodes Shackelford</td>
<td>184</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Richmond, Kentucky</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mercer County, Kentucky</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>abstracts of Wills, Books 5 and 6</td>
<td>214</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>contributed by Miss Marie Menaugh, Historian, Jane McAfee Chapter, D.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. R., Harrodsburg, Kentucky</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift
continued from April 1939 ................................................................ 238

Bourbon Circuit Court Records
Suits in Abstract
Julia Spencer Ardery (Mrs. W. B.) ..................................................... 256

Captain John Fowler of Kentucky and Virginia Chronology
Mrs. W. T. Fowler ............................................................................. 263

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 266

Number One Hundred Twenty-One, October 1939

A Bibliography of Paul Sawyier, American Artist, 1865-1917
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. ............................................................. 271

Historic Meeting at Pisgah Church, Woodford County, Kentucky
Katherine Stout Bradley ................................................................... 283

The Escape of Confederate Secretary of War
John Cabell Breckinridge as Revealed by his Diary
A. J. Hanna, Professor of History, Rollins College ......................... 323

Early Marriage Records of Madison County, Kentucky
compiled by Judge W. Rodes Shackelford, Richmond, Kentucky
continued from July 1939 ................................................................ 334

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift ............................................... 360

Bourbon Circuit Court Records
Suits in Abstracts
Julia Spencer Ardery (Mrs. W. B.) ..................................................... 378

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 383

VOLUME 38

Number One Hundred Twenty-Two, January 1940
Governor Keen Johnson
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. ............................................................. 1

Correspondence Between Governor Joseph Desha and Amos Kendall—1831-1835
edited by James A. Padgett................................................................ 5

Early Marriage Records of Madison County, Kentucky compiled by Judge W. Rodes Shackelford, Richmond, Kentucky continued from October 1939 ........................................................... 25

Joel Tanner Hart: Kentucky’s Poet-Sculptor
Gayle R. Carver, Member, the Kentucky State Historical Society and the Filson Club................................................................. 49

Some Notes on British Intrigue in Kentucky, 1788-1791
Schuyler Dean Hoslett, Park College, Parkville, Missouri ............... 54

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift continued from October 1939 ........................................................... 57

Bourbon Circuit Court Records In Abstract
Julia Spencer Ardery (Mrs. Wm. B.).................................................. 75

Miscellaneous................................................................................... 84

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 86

Liberty Hall, Incorporated................................................................. 91

Number One Hundred Twenty-Three, April 1940

In Memory of Stephen Collins Foster, 1826-1864
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. ............................................................. 93

Bourbon Circuit Court Records In Abstract
Julia Spencer Ardery (Mrs. Wm. B.).................................................. 103

History in Old Depositions—Washington County
Orval W. Baylor ................................................................................ 108

Justice Thomas Todd
Address of Edward C. O’Rear, Chief Justice of Kentucky, 1907-8, Now President Franklin County Bar Association ....................... 112
Kentucky State Historical Society
Report of Secretary—October 3, 1939 ......................................................... 120

Librarian’s Report—October 1939................................................................. 124

Curator’s Report......................................................................................... 128

Early Marriage Records of Madison County, Kentucky
compiled by Judge W. Rodes Shackelford, Richmond, Kentucky
continued from January 1940 ..................................................................... 131

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift
continued from January 1940 ..................................................................... 157

Liberty Hall Garden
Mrs. S. I. M. Major ....................................................................................... 176

Miscellaneous.............................................................................................. 179

Number One Hundred Twenty-Four, July 1940

A Glimpse of Frankfort, Kentucky, about 1865
Willard Rouse Jillson.................................................................................... 183

The Letters of Colonel Richard M. Johnson of Kentucky
edited by James A. Padgett, Ph.D. ............................................................. 186

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift
continued from April 1940 ......................................................................... 202

Early Marriage Records of Madison County, Kentucky
Letters K, L, and M
compiled by Judge W. Rodes Shackelford, Richmond, Kentucky
continued from April 1940 ......................................................................... 221

Kentucky Privateers in California
Benjamin Franklin Gilbert ......................................................................... 256

MacPike Family
Eugene F. MacPike ...................................................................................... 267

Bourbon Circuit Court Records
In Abstract
Julia Spencer Ardery (Mrs. W. B.) ................................................................. 270

Miscellaneous............................................................................................... 273

Number One Hundred Twenty-Five, October 1940

Frankfort, Capital of Kentucky, About 1860
Willard Rouse Jillson.................................................................................. 277

The Blair Family in the Civil War
Grace N. Taylor ......................................................................................... 280

Jacksonian Democrats Turned Free Soilers .............................................. 281

Devotion to the Union in the Republican Party ...................................... 290

Early Marriage Records of Madison County, Kentucky
compiled by Judge W. Rodes Shackelford, Richmond, Kentucky
continued from July 1940 ......................................................................... 295

The McGee Family
John J. McGee ......................................................................................... 314

The Letters of Colonel Richard M. Johnson of Kentucky
edited by James A. Padgett, Ph.D
continued from July 1940 ......................................................................... 323

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift
continued from July 1940 ......................................................................... 340

Virginia County Court Records
Martha Woodroof Hiden........................................................................... 360

Miscellaneous............................................................................................... 364

VOLUME 39

Number One Hundred Twenty-Six, January 1941

The Kentucky Colonization Society
J. Winston Coleman, Jr. ............................................................................ 1
Early Marriage Records of Madison County, Kentucky
compiled by Judge W. Rodes Shackelford, Richmond, Kentucky
continued from October 1940 ........................................................... 10

The Letters of Colonel Richard M. Johnson of Kentucky
edited by James A. Padgett, Ph.D.
continued from October 1940 ........................................................... 22

The Blair Family in the Civil War
Grace N. Taylor
continued from October 1940 ........................................................... 47

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries, Volume Two
Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift
continued from October 1940 ........................................................... 58

Annual Report of Secretary-Treasurer, October 3, 1940 ............... 81
Librarian’s Report ............................................................................. 87
Annual Report of the Curator ........................................................... 89

Miscellaneous
Book Reviews ................................................................................... 93
Queries ............................................................................................ 93

Number One Hundred Twenty-Seven, April 1941

Aetna Furnace, Hart County, Kentucky (1816-185[?])
O. M. Mather, Hodgenville, Kentucky ........................................... 95

Diary of Colonel Richard Ware Wyatt on Horseback Trip to the Western Country in 1830
edited by George H. S. King, Fredericksburg, Virginia ............... 106

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries, Volume Two
Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift
continued from January 1941 .......................................................... 116

The Blair Family in the Civil War
Grace N. Taylor
concluded ........................................................................................ 138

Early Marriage Records of Madison County, Kentucky
compiled by Judge W. Rodes Shackelford, Richmond, Kentucky
continued from January 1941 .......................................................... 157

The Letters of Colonel Richard M. Johnson of Kentucky
edited by James A. Padgett, Ph.D.
continued from January 1941 .......................................................... 172

Doctor Samuel Brown
A Biographical Sketch
Elizabeth Spencer Norton ................................................................. 189

Miscellaneous
Book Reviews ................................................................................... 193
Queries ............................................................................................ 198

Number One Hundred Twenty-Eight, July 1941

The Political Ideas of George Nicholas
Huntley Dupre, Ph.D., Professor of History, University of Kentucky ..201

Diary of the Wilderness Road in the Year 1816
James Walker................................................................................... 224

Col. Theodore O’Hara
Author of “The Bivouac of the Dead”—Soldier, Orator, Poet, and Journalist
His Honored Grave in Old Kentucky’s Capital City
Major Sidney Herbert ....................................................................... 230

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
Volume Two
Obituaries ........................................................................................ 237

The Letters of Colonel Richard M. Johnson of Kentucky
edited by James A. Padgett, Ph.D.
continued from April 1941.............................................................. 260

Early Marriage Records of Madison County, Kentucky
compiled by Judge W. Rodes Shackelford, Richmond, Kentucky
concluded ........................................................................................ 278

Miscellaneous
Query.............................................................................................. 311
Book Review..................................................................................... 311
Culbertson-Cessna.......................................................................... 313
Number One Hundred Twenty-Nine, October 1941

Lincoln County Wills and Inventories.......................................................... 315

The Letters of Colonel Richard M. Johnson of Kentucky
edited by James A. Padgett, Ph.D.
continued from July 1941 ................................................................. 358

Ancestral Shades
Charles R. Staples.............................................................................. 368

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries......................................................... 373

Frankfort, Kentucky, Newspapers
Bayless Hardin .................................................................................. 392

Education in the Early Days of Kentucky
May Stone .......................................................................................... 400

Miscellaneous
Kentucky School Journals, Past and Present ........................................ 407
Tombstone Inscriptions ....................................................................... 408
Book Reviews ...................................................................................... 409
Queries ................................................................................................ 411
Caldwell-Brewer-Roberts ................................................................. 411

VOLUME 40

Number One Hundred Thirty, January 1942

A Glimpse of Frankfort, Kentucky
An Historical Bibliography of the Capitol of the Commonwealth:
1751-1941
with Annotations
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. ................................................................. 1

Kentucky’s Sesquicentennial
Kentucky Historical Society Starts Movement for Its Celebration..... 43

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
Volume Two
Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift
continued from October 1941 .............................................................. 47
The Letters of Colonel Richard M. Johnson of Kentucky
edited by James A. Padgett, Ph.D.
continued from October 1941 ........................................................... 69

Annual Report of Secretary-Treasurer, October 3, 1941 ................. 92

Librarian’s Report, October 1941 ...................................................... 98

Curator’s Report ............................................................................... 101

Miscellaneous
Book Reviews ................................................................................... 104

Number One Hundred Thirty-One, April 1942

A Memoir of Lexington and Its Vicinity with some notice of many Prominent Citizens and Its Institutions of Education and Religion
William A. Leavy ............................................................................... 107

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
Volume Two
Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift
continued from January 1942 .......................................................... 132

A Glimpse of Frankfort, Kentucky
An Historical Bibliography of the Capitol of the Commonwealth:
1751-1941
with Annotations
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. ............................................................. 155

Miscellaneous
Kentucky Sesquicentennial .............................................................. 218
Book Reviews ................................................................................... 222

Number One Hundred Thirty-Two, July 1942

Kentucky Through Fifteen Decades of Statehood
Colonel Edgar Erskine Hume, M. C., U. S. Army ............................... 227

A Memoir of Lexington and Its Vicinity
With Some Notice of Many Prominent Citizens and Its Institutions of Education and Religion
William A. Leavy
continued from April 1942 ................................................................. 253

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
Volume Two
Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift
continued from April 1942 ................................................................. 268

Albert Sidney Johnston in Texas
Letters to Relatives in Kentucky, 1847-1860 dited by Arthur Marvin Shaw .......................................................... 290

Bryan, A Pioneer Family
Edward Bryan .................................................................................. 318

A Slight Memorial to the Memory of James M. Roche
John Wilson Townsend ..................................................................... 321

Kentucky Sesquicentennial Celebrations .......................................... 328

Miscellaneous
Kentucky Sesquicentennial .............................................................. 331
Book Reviews ................................................................................... 334
Queries ............................................................................................ 335

Number One Hundred Thirty-Three, October 1942

Letters of George W. Johnson
Provisional Governor of Kentucky Under the Confederacy .............. 337

A Memoir of Lexington and Its Vicinity
With Some Notice of Many Prominent Citizens and Its Institutions of Education and Religion
William A. Leavy
edited by Miss Nina M. Visscher, Librarian
Kentucky State Historical Society
continued from July 1942 .................................................................. 353

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
Volume Two
Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift
continued from July 1942 .................................................................. 376
Early Days of Kentucky’s Government .................................................. 402

Sesquicentennial Celebrations Draw to a Close...................................... 407

An Address Delivered by Governor Keen Johnson at the Louisville Celebration of Kentucky’s Sesquicentennial Year, September 18, 1942 ................................................................ 410

Kentucky at War in Her Sesquicentennial Year
An Address Delivered by Judge Samuel M. Wilson, Chairman of the Kentucky Sesquicentennial Commission, at the Louisville Sesquicentennial Celebration, September 18, 1942 ..... 415

Miscellaneous
Vital Statistics.................................................................................. 419
Book Review..................................................................................... 421
Queries ............................................................................................ 423

VOLUME 41

Number One Hundred Thirty-Four, January 1943

Three Letters of George Nicholas to John Brown edited by Huntley Dupre................................................................. 1

Thomas Benton Ford and Laura Catherine Ford
Biographical and Literary Notes and Criticisms
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D .............................................................. 11

Memoir of Lexington and Its Vicinity with some notice of many Prominent Citizens and Its Institutions of Education and Religion
William Leavy ................................................................................... 44

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
Volume Two
Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift
continued from October 1942........................................................... 63

Address of Senator Alben W. Barkley, at the Sesquicentennial Dinner, Louisville, Kentucky, September 18, 1942................................. 80

Annual Report of the Secretary-Treasurer
October 3, 1942 ................................................................................ 90
Librarian’s Report................................................................. 95
Curator’s Report................................................................. 97

A Review of Kentucky’s Sesquicentennial Celebrations........... 101

Miscellaneous
Query.................................................................................. 106

Number One Hundred Thirty-Five, April 1943

Memoir of Lexington and Its Vicinity with some notice of many Prominent Citizens and its Institutions of Education and Religion
William Leavy
edited by Miss Nina Visscher, Librarian, Kentucky Historical Society
continued from January 1943 ................................................. 107

Barney, Forgotten Hero
Geo. K. Holbert........................................................................ 138

Kentucky Marriages and Obituaries
Volume Two
Obituaries
compiled and edited by G. Glenn Clift
continued from January 1943 ................................................. 147

Original Land Patents in Georgetown Area, Scott County, Kentucky, prepared by James Wade Emison, Jr., Vincennes
Savings Building, Vincennes, Indiana, and W. T. Smith,
812 Security Trust Building, Lexington, Kentucky .................. 172

Miscellaneous................................................................. 176

Book Review........................................................................ 178

Number One Hundred Thirty-Six, July 1943

A Sketch and Bibliography of the Kentucky Historical Society, 1836-1943
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. .................................................. 179

The Old Cemetery at Smithland, Kentucky
Mrs. Berna Presnell McChesney, Frankfort, Kentucky ............ 231

Memoir of Lexington and Its Vicinity with some notice of many Prominent Citizens and Its Institutions of Education and Religion
William Leavy
edited by Miss Nina Visscher, Librarian, Kentucky Historical Society
continued from April 1943 ................................................................. 250

Miscellaneous
Book Reviews .................................................................................. 261
Query ................................................................................................. 267

Number One Hundred Thirty-Seven, October 1943

Letters of General Samuel Hopkins of Henderson, Kentucky .......... 269

Boone Station Site
C. Frank Dunn ................................................................................ 304

Memoir of Lexington and Its Vicinity with some notice of many Prominent Citizens and Its Institutions of Education and Religion
William Leavy
edited by Miss Nina Visscher, Librarian, Kentucky Historical Society
continued from July 1943 .................................................................. 310

Address to the Society of Colonial Wars in the Commonwealth of Kentucky Louisville, June 21, 1943
Major General Alvan C. Gillem, Jr., Commanding General,
Armored Force, Ft. Knox ................................................................. 347

Miscellaneous
Book Review .................................................................................. 349
Queries ............................................................................................ 350

Volume 42

Number One Hundred Thirty-Eight, January 1944

Governor Simeon S. Willis
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D ............................................................ 3

Heirs in Court of Appeals Deeds ..................................................... 6

A Sketch of Josiah Hart (Father of Joel T. Hart) and Poems by Joel T. Hart and an Excerpt from a Newspaper Article Concerning his Work on his Statue  Woman Triumphant
S. D. Mitchell ................................................................................... 19

Memoir of Lexington and Its Vicinity with some notice of many Prominent Citizens and Its Institutions of Education and Religion William Leavy edited by Miss Nina Visscher, Librarian, Kentucky Historical Society continued from October 1943 ........................................................... 26

Hardin County, Kentucky, Marriages, 1792-1825 copied from the original records in the office of the County Court Clerk, by Miss Hattie M. Scott and Miss Nina Visscher ..................... 54

Report of the Secretary-Treasurer
October 4, 1943 ............................................................................... 73
Librarian’s Report............................................................................. 77

Curator’s Report............................................................................... 84

Miscellaneous
Book Reviews ................................................................................... 87
Query............................................................................................... 90

Number One Hundred Thirty-Nine, April 1944

John Finley, Pioneer of Fleming County
R. S. Cotterill.................................................................................... 91

A Supplementary List of Kentucky Imprints, 1794-1820, additional to those recorded in American Imprints Inventory Check Lists Numbers 5 and 6
Douglas C. McMurtrie and Albert H. Allen ........................................ 99

A Bibliography of Early Western Travel in Kentucky (with annotations) 1674-1824
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D .............................................................. 120

Emisons in America
James W. Emison, Jr. ...................................................................... 139

Hardin County, Kentucky, Marriages, 1792-1825 copied from the original records in the office of the County Court Clerk by Miss Hattie M. Scott and Miss Nina Visscher continued from January 1944 .......................................................... 144
Heirs in Court of Appeals Deeds notes made by Miss Hattie M. Scott, Frankfort, Kentucky, from original deeds recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals in the new capitol, show the names of the following heirs of grantors and grantees mentioned
continued from January 1944 .......................................................... 158

Miscellaneous
Book Reviews ................................................................................... 174
Queries ............................................................................................ 177
Notes................................................................................................ 179

Number One Hundred Forty, July 1944

Butler County, Kentucky.................................................................. 183
Butler County, Kentucky—Order Book B............................................. 187
Lincoln County, Kentucky, Names Prior to 1792 gleaned from County Court Order Books
Lucien Beckner ................................................................................ 215

Captain James Patton of Augusta County, Virginia, and Louisville, Kentucky, Ancestors and Descendants compiled by William S. Muir, of South Orange, New Jersey, in response to a request for information on Capt. Patton research by Miss Ophelia Muir, of Woodstock, Vermont, and Nelson Van Buskirk, of Louisville, Kentucky, great-great-great grandchildren of Capt. Patton copied and prepared for publication by Bayless Hardin of the Kentucky State Historical Society ..................................................... 227

Heirs in Court of Appeals Deeds
continued from April 1944............................................................... 256

The Lexington Light Infantry Company War of 1812 ....................... 263

Notes on Bryan’s Station
Edward Bryan ................................................................................ 267
Queries ............................................................................................ 272
Number One Hundred Forty-One, October 1944

Historical Society Quarters Repaired and Decorated
Bayless Hardin ................................................................. 273

A Bibliography of the Lower Blue Licks (with annotations)
1744-1944
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. .................................................. 279

Butler County, Kentucky
compiled by Mrs. W. P. Drake, Vice Regent of the Kentucky D. A. R.
continued from July 1944 ..................................................... 312

Heirs in Court of Appeals Deeds
notes made by Miss Hattie M. Scott
continued from July 1944 ..................................................... 348

State Archives
Kentucky Vital Statistics, 1852-1859
Adair County Death Records ................................................. 354

The John Busey Family of Anderson County, Kentucky contributed by Mrs. James O. Franklin, Lawrenceburg, Kentucky .... 370

Miscellaneous ..................................................................... 374

VOLUME 43

Number One Hundred Forty-Two, January 1945

Allen County Kentucky Vital Statistics—Deaths—1852-1862 .......... 1

A Bibliography of the Lower Blue Licks (with annotations) 1744-1944
continued from October 1944
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. .................................................... 24

The Family and Fortune of General James Ray, Pioneer of Fort Harrod
Kathryn Harrod Mason .......................................................... 59

Report of Secretary-Treasurer, October 3, 1944 ....................... 69
Report of the Curator of the Kentucky State Historical Society
from October 1, 1843, to September 30, 1944 .......................... 73
Number One Hundred Forty-three, April 1945

Early Kentucky History in Madison County
Circuit Court Records
prepared by J. T. Dorris ................................................................. 83

The First Landowners of Frankfort, Kentucky, 1774-1790
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. ............................................................. 107

Estill Family
compiled by Alma Lackey Wilson, 1944 ............................................ 121

State Archives
Kentucky Vital Statistics—1852-1862
Anderson County
Deaths of Persons over Fifteen......................................................... 152

State Archives
Kentucky Vital Statistics—1851-1859, 1893
Ballard County
Deaths of Persons over Fifteen......................................................... 165

Miscellaneous
Otto M. Rothert ................................................................................ 171
Queries ............................................................................................ 172

Number One Hundred Forty-Four, July 1945

The Capitols of Kentucky
Bayless E. Hardin............................................................................. 173

Captain William Gentry and Mercer County’s Fighting Men of World War Two..................................................... 201

State Archives
Kentucky Vital Statistics—1852-1862
Barren County
Deaths of Persons over Fifteen
continued from April 1945............................................................. 203
Early Kentucky History in Madison County
Circuit Court Records
prepared by J. T. Dorris
continued from April 1945.................................................................239

John Rowan’s Mission to the Two Sicilies (1848-1850)
Howard R. Marraro
Associate Professor of Italian, Columbia University.........................263

Miscellaneous
Book Reviews ...................................................................................272
Queries ............................................................................................275

Number One Hundred Forty-Five, October 1945

State Archives
Kentucky Vital Statistics—1852-1859
Bath County, Kentucky
Deaths of Persons over Fifteen copied from original records in the Archives department of the Kentucky Historical Society..............................................................277

State Archives
Kentucky Vital Statistics—1852-1859
Boone County
Deaths of Persons over Fifteen copied from original records in the Archives department of the Kentucky Historical Society..............................................................288

Does our President Descend from Pocahontas?
Emma Jett Darnell...........................................................................310

“Grant’s Station” and Bryan Station-Blue Licks Road
C. Frank Dunn..................................................................................313

Notes on the Discovery of a Faulted Area in Northern-Central
Kentucky
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. ..............................................................317

Early Kentucky History in Madison County Circuit Court Records, and Colonel William Harris Caperton’s Account of Estill’s Defeat
prepared by J. T. Dorris
continued from July 1945 ...............................................................321
A List of Native Kentuckians who Settled in Ralls County, Missouri
Nell Downing Norton (Mrs. Voris Rariden Norton) ......................... 342

Captain Joseph Allen
County Clerk and Circuit Clerk of Breckinridge County for 58 years. Captain in two campaigns in the War of 1812.
Twice refused to become a Colonel
Mary Allen Goodson ................................................................. 345

Some Old Kentucky Wills
Margaret Carlock Harris (Mrs. Robert A.) .................................. 351

The Kentucky Genesis of the Daughters of the American Revolution Manifested in the Life of Mrs. Ellen Hardin Walworth
Rev. Robert Stuart Sanders ..................................................... 358

Miscellaneous
Book Reviews ........................................................................... 365
Query ..................................................................................... 365

VOLUME 44

Number One Hundred Forty-Six, January 1946

The Kentucky Boundary
Bayless E. Hardin ................................................................. 1

State Archives
Kentucky Vital Statistics
Bourbon County, 1852-1859
Deaths of Persons over Fifteen ............................................... 33

Report of Secretary-Treasurer, October 3, 1945 ......................... 50
Library Report .......................................................................... 54

Report of the Curator of the Kentucky State Historical Society
from October 1, 1944, to September 30, 1945 .......................... 60

What is Kentucky?
M. H. Thatcher ...................................................................... 63

The Corn Family of Mercer County, Kentucky
James Franklin Corn ................................................................ 70
Miscellaneous
Queries ................................................................. 78
Book Reviews .......................................................... 79

Number One Hundred Forty-Seven, April 1946

Sesquicentennial of the Wilderness Road
Russell Dyche .......................................................... 81

Land Surveys of Daniel Boone
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. ......................................... 86

Sketch of the Life of Michael Shuck written by himself in 1875 foreword by Orval W. Baylor ...................................... 101

State Archives Kentucky Vital Statistics
Boyd County
Deaths of Persons over Fifteen .................................. 119

Gen. Green Clay in Fayette County Records
C. Frank Dunn ............................................................. 146

Book Reviews ............................................................. 148

Queries ................................................................. 150
Cash—Family Reunion ............................................. 151
Notice ................................................................. 151

Number One Hundred Forty-Eight, July 1946

A Bibliography of Lexington, Kentucky
Designed to Portray the Changing Historical Scene from 1774-1946 (with annotations)
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D. ........................................ 151

Abstracts from Kentucky Newspapers
Mason County, Kentucky
compiled by Miss Hattie M. Scott, Frankfort, Kentucky ....... 187

State Archives Kentucky Vital Statistics
Breckinridge County—1852-1859
Deaths of Persons over Fifteen .......................................................... 194

Bullitt County—1852-1859
Deaths of Persons over Fifteen .......................................................... 208

Private Burial Grounds and Church Cemeteries in Campbell County, Kentucky
copied by Mary Johnson (Mrs. Robert E.) Druck and Miss Helen B. Lindsey ................................................................. 228

John S. Hanna, and His Family Connections reprint of a pamphlet, entitled In Memoriam, by Rev. William Irvine, pastor of the Mulberry Presbyterian Church, Shelby County, Kentucky, written after the death of John S. Hanna, January 6, 1878 ................................................................. 241

Miscellaneous
Daniel Boone’s “400-Acre Settlement”
C. Frank Dunn ........................................................................... 246

Queries ....................................................................................... 247

Number One Hundred Forty-Nine, October 1946

Education and Religion in two Revolutions
Raymond F. McLain ................................................................. 251

A Bibliography of Lexington, Kentucky
Designed to Portray the Changing Historical Scene from 1774-1946 (with annotations)
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D.
continued from July 1946 .......................................................... 259

State Archives—Kentucky Vital Statistics
Butler County—1852-1859
Deaths of Persons over Fifteen .......................................................... 291

Abstracts from Kentucky Newspapers
Franklin County, Kentucky
compiled by Miss Hattie M. Scott, Frankfort, Kentucky
continued from July 1946 .............................................................. 307

Private Burial Grounds and Church Cemeteries in Campbell County, Kentucky
copied by Mary Johnson (Mrs. Robert E.) Druck and Miss Helen B. Lindsey
continued from July 1946 ............................................................... 327

Miscellaneous
Editorial .......................................................... 331
Book Reviews ....................................................... 332
Queries ........................................................... 334
Valued Member of Historical Society Passes ......................... 334

VOLUME 45

Number One Hundred Fifty, January 1947

Sidelights on Kentucky’s Constitutions
H. V. McChesney, Sr., Editor, The Register ................................. 3

Samuel Mackay Wilson—1871-1946
An Appreciation
G. Glenn Clift ............................................................... 27

A Bibliography of Lexington, Kentucky
Designed to Portray the Changing Historical Scene from 1774-1946 (with annotations)
Willard Rouse Jillson, Sc.D.
continued from October 1946 ......................................................... 39

Major-General Raymond Stallings McLain
A Sketch of his Career
Bailey Fulton Davis, Sr., Springfield, Kentucky ............................ 73

Report of the Secretary-Treasurer, October 3, 1946 ............... 88

Report of the Curator of the Museum of the Kentucky Historical Society
From October 1, 1945 to September 30, 1946 .......................... 93

Library Report ................................................................. 96

Clarence Ridgeley Greathouse, A Kentuckian in California and Korea
Benjamin Franklin Gilbert ..................................................... 100

Miscellaneous
Resignation of G. Glenn Clift .................................................... 101
Queries .................................................................................................................. 102

One Hundred Fifty-One, April 1947

Rogers Clark Ballard Thruston (1858-1946)
Good Kentuckian
Hambleton Tapp .................................................................................................. 107

Kennedy Family
Alma Lackey Wilson ............................................................................................ 129

Two Early Kentucky Schoolmasters
Boaz Fox (1806-1874) and his son John W. Fox (1830-1912)
Elizabeth Fox Moore .............................................................................................. 159

Turner Family
compiled by Samuel Stephen Sargent, Charleston, Illinois ............................. 166

State Archives—Kentucky Vital Statistics
Kentucky Vital Statistics—1852-1859
Caldwell County—Deaths of Persons over Fifteen ............................................. 171

Abstracts from Kentucky Newspapers
compiled by Miss Hattie M. Scott, Frankfort, Kentucky
continued from October 1946 ............................................................................ 188

Private Burial Grounds and Church Cemeteries in Campbell County, Kentucky
copied by Mary Johnson (Mrs. Robert E.) Druck and Miss Helen B. Lindsey
continued from October 1946 .............................................................................. 199

Resolution ............................................................................................................... 209

Miscellaneous
Queries .................................................................................................................. 210

Number One Hundred Fifty-Two, July 1947

The Democratic Faith in the Nineteenth Century
F. Garvin Davenport
read before the Kentucky Historical Society, at its “Boone Day” Celebration, June 7, 1947 ............................................................ 215 Recollections of Civil War Times in Kentucky
Mary Breckinridge Maltby with an Introduction by Mrs. William H. Coffman, Georgetown, Kentucky

State Archives—Kentucky Vital Statistics
Calloway County—1852-1859
Deaths of Persons over Fifteen

Campbell County—1852-1859
Deaths of Persons over Fifteen

Private Burial Grounds and Church Cemeteries in Campbell County, Kentucky copied by Mary Johnson Druck (Mrs. Robert E.) and Miss Helen B. Lindsey
continued from April 1947

Members of Kentucky Historical Society

Number One Hundred Fifty-Three, October 1947

Harry Vernon McChesney, LL.D., 1868-1947
A Life Sketch
Willard Rouse Jillson

The Work of Harry V. McChesney, Sr., in the Army Y.M.C.A. at Camp Zachary Taylor in World War I
Mrs. H. V. McChesney, Sr.

Mr. McChesney and the Historical Society
Jouett Taylor Cannon

Henry Clay, Kentucky, and Liberia
J. Winston Coleman, Jr.

Transylvania Seminary “Near Lexington”

John Filson and Transylvania Seminary
C. Frank Dunn

Kentucky’s Last Peace Effort
William B. Hesseltine and Hazel C. Wolf

Private Burial Grounds and Church Cemeteries in Campbell County, Kentucky copied by Mary Johnson Druck (Mrs. Robert E.) and Miss Helen B. Lindsey
continued from July 1947 .................................................................340

State Archives—Kentucky Vital Statistics
Carroll County—1852-1859
Deaths of Persons over Fifteen .........................................................352
Carter County—1852-1859
Deaths of Persons over Fifteen .........................................................358

Miscellaneous
Book Reviews ...................................................................................369
Queries ............................................................................................371

VOLUME 46

Number One Hundred Fifty-Four, January 1948

Governor Earle C. Clements, A Biographical Sketch
Dr. W. R. Jillson ..............................................................................375

Kentucky Before Boone, The Siouan People
Lucien Beckner ................................................................................384

Confederate Letters .........................................................................397

Kentucky Confederates Buried at Camp Douglas ............................404

State Archives, Casey County Deaths .............................................410

Reports:
Secretary-Treasurer ......................................................................420
Annual Business Meeting ...............................................................426
Constitution of Kentucky Historical Society ................................427
Librarian .........................................................................................430
Curator ...........................................................................................437

Book Reviews .................................................................................440

Reviews of Periodicals ....................................................................444

Indiana Celebrates Anniversary of Indian Battle ............................449

Queries ...........................................................................................451
Tecumseh and the Bayles Family Tradition
G. H. Bayles ..................................................................................... 647

State Archives—Cumberland County Deaths ............................... 656

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 664

Review of Periodicals ........................................................................ 673

Queries ............................................................................................ 687

VOLUME 47

Number One Hundred Fifty-Eight, January 1949

Comments on America and Kentucky, 1793-1802
Harry Toulmin .................................................................................. 3

Ancestors and Descendants of The Rev. John Taylor (1752-1835)
Dorothy Brown Thompson ................................................................. 22

The Samuel M. Wilson Library
Jacqueline Bull ................................................................................ 52

Members of the Kentucky Historical Society ..................................... 55

Report of The Secretary ..................................................................... 63

Kentucky Historical Society, Financial Statement .......................... 67

Report of Museum Curator ............................................................... 70

State Archives—Daviess County Deaths ........................................... 73

News and Notes ................................................................................ 85

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 86

Queries ............................................................................................ 91

Number One Hundred Fifty-Nine, April 1949

Train de la Reconnaissance Francaise ............................................. 95
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Article</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Comments on America and Kentucky, 1793-1802</td>
<td>97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Harry Toulmin</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Robert P. Letcher’s Appointment as Minister to Mexico</td>
<td>116</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>W. D. Gilliam, Jr.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Beyond the Strife, The Correspondence of George C. Stedman and</td>
<td>125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>William Torrey Harris</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kurt F. Leidecker</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>State Archives—Vital Statistics—Edmonson County Deaths</td>
<td>144</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>News and Notes</td>
<td>149</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Book Reviews</td>
<td>153</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Queries</td>
<td>163</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Number One Hundred Sixty, July 1949</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mrs. Jouett Taylor Cannon</td>
<td>169</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Wood Family of Woodlawn, Kentucky</td>
<td>171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Evelyn Crady Adams</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Beyond the Strife, The Correspondence of George C. Stedman and</td>
<td>186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>William Torrey Harris</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kurt F. Leidecker</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mercer County Wills</td>
<td>202</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>State Archives—Vital Statistics—Clark County Deaths</td>
<td>229</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>News and Notes</td>
<td>240</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>French Cemetery</td>
<td>243</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Singleton-Hiter Lineage</td>
<td>244</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mrs. Price Doyle</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Battle of Blue Licks</td>
<td>247</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fayette County, Kentucky, Records</td>
<td>250</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1813 Letter ........................................................................................................... 253
Book Reviews ....................................................................................................... 255
Queries .................................................................................................................. 259

Number One Hundred Sixty-One, October 1949

Early Kentucky Maps
Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson .......................................................................................... 265

Owensboro, Kentucky .................................................................................................. 294

Mrs. Susan Jacob Clay’s Letters .................................................................................. 298

Christians of Virginia and Kentucky ........................................................................... 304

Watlington .................................................................................................................... 309

William Whittington’s Book
Mrs. M. C. Darnell ...................................................................................................... 314

State Archives—Vital Statistics—Estill County Deaths .............................................. 325

Book Reviews .............................................................................................................. 333

News and Notes .......................................................................................................... 339

In the Museum ............................................................................................................. 341

Queries ......................................................................................................................... 342

VOLUME 48

Number One Hundred Sixty-Two, January 1950

Minutes of Board of Trustees of Kentucky Seminary ................................................. 3

Land and Labor in Kentucky, 1865 ............................................................................. 25

Early Kentucky Maps, Conclusion ............................................................................ 32

Land Family .................................................................................................................. 53
Reports
Reports of the Secretary-Treasurer .......................................................... 59
Financial Report .................................................................................... 60
Report of the Librarian .......................................................................... 63

State Archives—Vital Statistics, Fayette County Deaths .................... 65

News and Notes
Grant Cochran Knight Collection of Letters ....................................... 79
Christopher Gist Historical Society .................................................... 79
1850 Census of Kentucky ................................................................... 79
Bryan Station Church Book Extract .................................................. 82
Fayette County Court ......................................................................... 84
Capitals of the United States ............................................................... 84
Toulmin Letter ..................................................................................... 85
Gen. John Hunt Morgan Funeral ....................................................... 86
Swift’s Camp ....................................................................................... 87
Political Broadside ............................................................................. 87
Periodicals .......................................................................................... 89
Battle of Blue Licks ............................................................................ 90

Book Reviews ..................................................................................... 94

In the Museum
Section of water pipe .......................................................................... 99

Queries .................................................................................................. 100

Number One Hundred Sixty-Three, April 1950

Causation of the War of 1812 ............................................................... 107

A Checklist of Indexes to American Historical Society Publications ... 121

Bibliography of Graduate Theses ....................................................... 128

State Archives—Vital Statistics, Fleming County Deaths ................... 173

News and Notes
French Cemetery .................................................................................. 188
Veterans of War of 1812 from Garrard County, Kentucky ............... 189
Soldiers of the Revolution in Garrard County, Kentucky ............... 190

Book Reviews .................................................................................... 195
Number One Hundred Sixty-Four, July 1950

Johnny Reb’s Impressions of Kentucky in 1862 .............................................. 205
Letters from Mrs. James Brown to Mrs. Henry Clay .................................. 216
Bibliography of Graduate Theses ................................................................. 221
State Archives—Vital Statistics, Floyd County Deaths ............................... 267

News and Notes
Richmond Battlefield Memorial ................................................................. 275
Marriage Record of Daniel Morgan Boone ................................................. 276

Book Reviews ............................................................................................. 278

In the Museum
Historic State Route Marker ...................................................................... 285

Queries ......................................................................................................... 286

Number One Hundred Sixty-Five, October 1950

James M. Bradford, Secretary .................................................................... 291
Leonard Bliss, Jr., 1811-1842 ..................................................................... 315
Bibliography of Graduate Theses Index ....................................................... 331
The First Child Born in Kentucky ................................................................. 358
State Archives—Vital Statistics, Franklin County Deaths ........................ 361

News and Notes .......................................................................................... 380

In the Museum
Harpsichord ............................................................................................... 381

Queries ......................................................................................................... 382

VOLUME 49
Number One Hundred Sixty-Six, January 1951

The Governors of Kentucky............................................................... 5
The Little Fight................................................................................. 28
Importation of Cattle Into Kentucky.................................................. 35
The Lexington Press on the Compromise .......................................... 48
Kentucky 150 Years Ago................................................................. 55
State Archives—Fulton County Deaths............................................. 60
Report of Secretary........................................................................... 67

News and Notes
The Prison Towers ............................................................................ 71
Historical Exhibit ............................................................................. 71
Salaries of 1826 ............................................................................... 72
Queries ............................................................................................ 73

Number One Hundred Sixty-Seven, April 1951

Governor Lawrence W. Wetherby ...................................................... 81
The Shanks Family Massacre ........................................................... 83
The Governors of Kentucky............................................................... 93
Western Kentucky State College Collection ....................................... 113
Kentucky Is Born ............................................................................. 133
The Gossett Family........................................................................... 139
State Archives—Gallatin County Deaths........................................... 153

News and Notes
Votes by Counties—Presidential Election 1860 ................................. 158
Book Reviews ................................................................................... 161
Number One Hundred Sixty-Eight, July 1951

Benjamin Bosworth Smith................................................................. 175
John Fleming................................................................................... 193
The Governors of Kentucky .............................................................. 202
Kansas and Slavery in Two Lexington Newspapers ......................... 225
Imprisonment of British Officers in the Frankfort Penitentiary, War of 1812 ................................................................. 231
The Colonial Northwest ................................................................. 234
State Archives—Garrard County Deaths ........................................... 245
News and Notes
Battle of Blue Licks ....................................................................... 256
Letter of 1837 ................................................................................... 256
Carpenter of Spotsylvania County .................................................... 258
Book Reviews ................................................................................... 260
In the Museum
Battle Flag, 6th Regiment, Kentucky Volunteers, C.S.A. .................... 262
Queries ............................................................................................ 263

Number One Hundred Sixty-Nine, October 1951

Some Early Church Experiences ..................................................... 269
Creeks, Branches, Forks, etc., in Kentucky ........................................ 280
Cassius M. Clay and Southern Abolitionism ..................................... 331
Some Early Cabinet Makers .............................................................. 337
The Governors of Kentucky............................................................... 349
Long—Strother—Haynes............................................................... 374
State Archives—Grant County Deaths .............................................. 389

News and Notes
The Walum Olum............................................................................. 395
Payroll, Lincoln County Militia, 1782 ................................................ 396

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 398

In the Museum
McKee—Clay Flag............................................................................. 402

Queries ............................................................................................ 403

VOLUME 50

Number One Hundred Seventy, January 1952

A Journal Remarks or Observations in a Voyage down the Kentucky, Ohio, and Mississippi Rivers ............................................ 5

The War Between the States in the Kentucky Novel ....................... 26

Several Corrections to the List of Defenders of Bryan’s Station........ 35

Confederate Exiles in Canada
James B. Clay Letters....................................................................... 41

State Archives—Graves County Deaths........................................... 57

News and Notes
Award of Merit.................................................................................. 80
Battle of Cynthiana, letter ............................................................... 80

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 84

In the Museum
War of 1812 Flag or Guidon.............................................................. 88

Queries ............................................................................................ 89
Number One Hundred Seventy-One, April 1952

Major General Edgar Erskine Hume .......................................................... 95
Gideon Shryock, His Life and Work ......................................................... 111
Some Early Cabinet Makers................................................................... 130
Marriages and Deaths published in the Commentator, 1826-28 ........... 134
Mercer County, Kentucky, Will Book 8 ............................................... 152
State Archives—Grayson County Deaths ............................................. 165
Report of the Secretary-Treasurer ......................................................... 184

News and Notes
Blue Licks Soldiers............................................................................. 187
Genealogical Research ....................................................................... 187
Correction—Long, Strother, Haynes .................................................... 187
University of Kentucky Library .......................................................... 188

Book Reviews ..................................................................................... 189

In the Museum
The Robert E. Lee Flag....................................................................... 193

Queries................................................................................................. 194

Number One Hundred Seventy-Two, July 1952

Daniel Boone and the Frankfort Cemetery ......................................... 201
The Salt Industry of Clay County, Kentucky ...................................... 237
The Schuylkill Bank Fraud................................................................. 249
The World Looks at Kentucky ............................................................ 256
State Archives—Green County Deaths ............................................. 261

News and Notes
Berkeley County, West Virginia, Records .......................................... 276
Revolutionary service of ancestor of John Fox, Jr. ............................ 284
Capt. Wm. Pope DuVal monument .................................................. 284
In the Museum
Lining of George Washington’s overcoat ............................................ 285
Queries ............................................................................................ 286

Number One Hundred Seventy-Three, October 1952
Regimental Pilgrimage ........................................................................ 293
Last Letters of Henry Clay ............................................................... 307
Kentucky Veterans of the War of 1812 .............................................. 319
Thomas Jefferson Middleton ............................................................. 340
State Archives—Greenup County Deaths .......................................... 347
The Ephraim McDowell House ......................................................... 357
News and Notes
Zacheus Carpenter Diary and Letter .................................................. 358
Culpepper County, Virginia, Wills ..................................................... 369
Book Reviews ................................................................................... 376
In the Museum
Clementi Piano ................................................................................. 377
Queries ............................................................................................ 378

VOLUME 51
Number One Hundred Seventy-Four, January 1953
Kentucky Colonization in Texas .......................................................... 5
Notes on Kentucky Veterans in the War of 1812 ............................... 34
Letters of Jane Short Wilkins ............................................................. 56
State Archives—Hancock County Deaths .......................................... 70
Report of the Secretary-Treasurer ..................................................... 78
VOLUME 52

Number One Hundred Seventy-Eight, January 1954

John Breathitt Journal ................................................................. 5
Henry Clay’s Policy—Land Sales ................................................... 25
Kentucky Colonization in Texas ................................................... 33
Young Family .............................................................................. 44
State Archives—Hart County Deaths .......................................... 50

News and Notes
James Ledgerwood .................................................................... 68
Correction .................................................................................. 68
Virginia Records ......................................................................... 68

Book Reviews ............................................................................. 88

In the Museum
Kentucky Rifles .......................................................................... 91

Queries ...................................................................................... 92

Contributors .............................................................................. 94

Number One Hundred Seventy-Nine, April 1954

Joshua Fry Speed ....................................................................... 99

More Shane Manuscripts ......................................................... 111

D. Howard Smith Letter ............................................................ 114

Addison M. Ballard Diary ........................................................... 125

Kentucky Colonization in Texas ............................................... 134

State Archives—Hart County Deaths ....................................... 161

Henderson County Deaths ....................................................... 167
Number One Hundred Eighty-Three, April 1955

Reminiscences of James Bledsoe Tandy ........................................ 101
An Emissary from Cousin Henry
Cassius M. Clay and Henry Clay in the Election of 1844 .......... 115
The Doughertys of Kentucky ....................................................... 124
The Grass Roots of Kenton County ............................................. 138
State Archives, Hopkins County Deaths .................................. 150

News and Notes
Poem, “The Banks of Kentucke” ................................................ 185
Stoneholt ................................................................................... 186
Stonewall Jackson and the Old Stonewall Brigade ................... 186
Matthew Hale Carpenter, Webster of the West ........ .................. 187
Trails West and Men Who Made Them ..................................... 187

The Museum
Simon Kenton’s Ride ................................................................. 189

Queries ....................................................................................... 190
Contributors .............................................................................. 191

Number One Hundred Eighty-Four, July 1955

John Taylor and the Day of Controversy ................................. 197
The Rogers Family and Old Cane Ridge .................................. 234
Felix Holt, Kentucky Historical Novelist ................................. 247
A Letter Concerning Economic Conditions in Kentucky 1802 ...... 257
A Short Bibliography of the History of The Episcopal Church in Kentucky ................................................................. 263
Book Reviews .......................................................................................... 269

In the Museum
Old Brittany Woman Knitting ........................................................................ 274

Queries ........................................................................................................... 275

Contributors ............................................................................................... 278

Number One Hundred Eighty-Five, October 1955

A Tribute to Mr. Clay ..................................................................................... 283
Kentucky Invades Ohio—1782 ......................................................................... 288
History of the Big Bones .................................................................................. 298
The Rogers Family of Old Cane Ridge ............................................................ 301
State Archives, Jackson County Deaths .......................................................... 321
Jefferson County Deaths .................................................................................. 325

News and Notes
Additional Notes on John Taylor Family ........................................................ 348
Greenup County Licenses ............................................................................... 355

Book Reviews .................................................................................................. 371

Queries ............................................................................................................. 375

VOLUME 54

Number One Hundred Eighty-Six, January 1956

Old Bridgeport and Its Environs ....................................................................... 5

Number One Hundred Eighty-Seven, April 1956

Walnut Hill Church .......................................................................................... 113

A Forgotten Work
Bibliography of Graduate Theses, Author Index.........................373

Book Reviews ............................................................................389

Obituary: Milton H. Smith ..........................................................396

Notes and Queries .....................................................................398

Contributors .............................................................................399

VOLUME 55

Number One, January 1957

The Barlow Planetarium
Dwight L Mikkelson.....................................................................1

Stock Raising in the Antebellum Bluegrass
Richard L. Troutman ..................................................................15

Mexican War Journal of Leander M. Cox, Part I
Charles F. Hinds .........................................................................29

Genealogy
Vital Statistics of Jefferson County...........................................53
Queries .....................................................................................79

Book Reviews ............................................................................81

Secretary-Treasurer’s Report
Annual Business Meeting ............................................................88

Editorial Views and Notes ...........................................................94

Contributors ............................................................................96

Number Two, April 1957

The Established Churches and Slavery in Kentucky
Will Frank Steely .........................................................................97

Captain Thomas Henry Hines and his February, 1863, Raid
Edward M. Coffman ..................................................................105
Number Four, October 1957

Louisville and the Confederate Invasion of 1862
Charles K. Messmer ................................................................. 299

A Transcendentalist in Old Kentucky
Derek Colville ............................................................................. 325

Folklore in the Works of Janice Holt Giles
Hensley C. Woodbridge .............................................................. 330

An Ornithologist Visits Kentucky
Gordon Wilson ............................................................................. 338

The Outstanding Junior Historians of Kentucky, 1956-57 ..........345
Grave-Hunting Award Winner: John R. Sower
Outstanding Boy and Girl Historian
The Nightriders Invade Hopkinsville
William M. Boden ........................................................................ 345
Camp Beauregard
Dianne Byars ............................................................................. 347

Genealogy
Vital Statistics, Kenton County, Part II ........................................ 348
Queries ......................................................................................... 374

Book Reviews ................................................................................ 375

The Editor’s Desk
The Kentucky Folklore Society
D. K. Wilgus ................................................................................. 394
News and Notes ........................................................................... 399

Contributors ................................................................................ 402

VOLUME 56

Number One, January 1958

War in the Black Patch
Albin L. Reynolds ......................................................................... 1

The Battle of Ivy Mountain
Henry P. Scalf .............................................................................. 11
Construction of the Louisville and Paducah Marine Hospitals
Richard G. Wood ................................................................. 27

1858 Kentucky General Assembly 1958
G. Glenn Clift ..................................................................... 33

Mexican War Journal of Leander M. Cox, Part III
Charles F. Hinds ................................................................. 47

Writings on Kentucky History, 1956
Jacqueline Bull ..................................................................... 71

Genealogy
Vital Statistics, Larue County ............................................. 93

Queries .................................................................................. 105

Book Reviews ........................................................................ 106

The Editor’s Desk
Annual Report of the Secretary-Treasurer, 1956-57 .............. 115

News and Notes .................................................................... 118

Contributors ......................................................................... 122

Number Two, April 1958

Kentucky Politics in the 1850’s
Wallace B. Turner ............................................................... 123

APA-ISM in Kentucky and Elsewhere
John E. Wiltz ......................................................................... 143

The Kentucky Novel, 1956-1957
Hensley C. Woodbridge ........................................................ 156

War of 1812 Diary of William B. Northcutt, Part I
G. Glenn Clift ......................................................................... 165

Genealogy
Vital Statistics, Knox County ............................................. 181

Queries .................................................................................. 189
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Book Reviews</td>
<td>190</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Editor’s Desk</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Records and Archives Bill Passed</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Charles F. Hinds</td>
<td>199</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Obituary: William Marshall Bullitt</td>
<td>208</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>News and Notes</td>
<td>210</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Contributors</td>
<td>215</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Number Three, July 1958</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mr. Breckinridge Accepts</td>
<td>217</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dorothy Garrett Melzer</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>An Ornithologist Visits Kentucky, Part II</td>
<td>233</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gordon Wilson</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Manuscript Accessions in Kentucky, 1957</td>
<td>241</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>G. Glenn Clift</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>War of 1812 Diary of William B. Northcutt, Part II</td>
<td>253</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>G. Glenn Clift</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Genealogy</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vital Statistics, Laurel County</td>
<td>270</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Queries</td>
<td>278</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Book Reviews</td>
<td>280</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Editor’s Desk</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Kentucky Library Association</td>
<td>293</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ludie J. Kinkead</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>News and Notes</td>
<td>303</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Contributors</td>
<td>307</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Number Four, October 1958</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Number Three, July 1959

John Breckinridge and the Kentucky Constitution of 1799
Lowell H. Harrison .............................................................. 209

Daniel Boone, Uncommon Common Man
Judge Edward C. O’Rear ...................................................... 234

A European Commentary on Kentucky and Kentuckians, c. 1825
Albert J. Schmidt ............................................................... 243

State Archives, Lincoln County Deaths ................................ 257

Queries .................................................................................. 271

Book Reviews ......................................................................... 273

News and Notes ..................................................................... 285

Contributors ......................................................................... 294

Number Four, October 1959

Sue Mundy: An Account of the Terrible Kentucky Guerrilla of Civil War Times
Young E. Allison ............................................................... 295

Manuscript Accessions in Kentucky in 1958
G. Glenn Clift ....................................................................... 317
Francis P. Blair and the Globe: Nerve Center of Jacksonian Democracy
Elbert B. Smith ................................................................................ 340

State Archives, Livingston County Deaths................................. 354

Queries ............................................................................................ 383

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 387

News and Notes
Index to Hughes’s Kentucky Reports,
Lucien Beckner ................................................................................ 399

Contributors .................................................................................... 416

VOLUME 58

Number One, January 1960

Governor Bert T. Combs ................................................................. 3

Mr. Justice Trimble of the United States Supreme Court
John S. Goff ..................................................................................... 6

The Kentucky General Assemblies of 1860 and 1960
G. Glenn Clift ................................................................................ 29

State Archives, Logan County Deaths ............................................ 49

Queries ............................................................................................ 75

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 77

News and Notes
Activities of Local Historical Societies ......................................... 90

Contributors .................................................................................... 96

Number Two, April 1960

Social Libraries in Ante-Bellum Kentucky
Haynes McMullen ............................................................................. 97
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Page</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Author(s)</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>129</td>
<td>The Sublettes of Kentucky and the Far West, 1830-1857</td>
<td>Doyce B. Nunis, Jr.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>145</td>
<td>Book Reviews</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>153</td>
<td>News and Notes</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>163</td>
<td>Queries</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>165</td>
<td>Contributors</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>166</td>
<td>Membership List</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Number Three, July 1960

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Page</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Author(s)</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>187</td>
<td>Kentuckians in the Virginia Convention of 1788</td>
<td>Charles Gano Talbert</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>194</td>
<td>Samuel E. Hagar: Kentucky Missionary to Japan</td>
<td>Sam H. Frank</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>224</td>
<td>Writings on Kentucky History, 1958</td>
<td>Jacqueline Bull</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>247</td>
<td>State Archives, Lyon County Deaths</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>263</td>
<td>Queries</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>265</td>
<td>Book Reviews</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>277</td>
<td>News and Notes</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>287</td>
<td>Contributors</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Number Four, October 1960

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Page</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Author(s)</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>291</td>
<td>Kentucky Slavery in the Last Ante Bellum Decade</td>
<td>Wallace B. Turner</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>308</td>
<td>Phillips’ Fort (1780), Nolin Station</td>
<td>Evelyn Crady Adams</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Broadsides and Newspapers in the John M. McCalla Papers, West Virginia University Library
F. Gerald Ham ................................................................. 322

Genealogy
The Ancestry of Edward West
Mabel Van Dyke Baer .......................................................... 354

Queries .................................................................................... 364

Book Reviews ............................................................................. 367

News and Notes ........................................................................ 383

Contributors ............................................................................. 388

VOLUME 59

Number One, January 1961

Civil War Reminiscences of John Aker Lafferty edited by W. T. Lafferty ........................................................... 1

Special Libraries in Ante-Bellum Kentucky
Haynes McMullen ..................................................................... 29

Broadsides and Newspapers in the John M. McCalla Papers, West Virginia University Library
F. Gerald Ham ........................................................................... 47

Genealogy
Bible Records ........................................................................... 79

Queries ..................................................................................... 88

Book Reviews ............................................................................ 91

News and Notes ....................................................................... 102

Contributors ............................................................................ 107

Number Two, April 1961

148
Number Two, April 1962

“In Everything Give Thanks”: A Journal of the Life and Times of James Hervey Dorman

College Libraries in Ante-Bellum Kentucky
Haynes McMullen

The Contribution of Kentucky to Lincoln’s Fourth of July Session of Congress, 1861
David L. Oliver

Reaction in the Religious Press to the Campaign for Delegates to the Kentucky Constitutional Convention in 1849
Wesley Norton

Number Three, July 1962

Autobiography of Judge Nicholas Sandifer

General Breckinridge Leads the Confederate Advance into Middle Tennessee
Edwin C. Bearss

Civil War Letters of William T. and Joseph L. McClure

Book Reviews

News and Notes
Number Four, October 1962

The Battle of Perryville: Diary of Captain Robert B. Taylor edited by Hambleton Tapp ................................................................. 255

The Strange Case of Isaac B. Desha
Jeanette H. McCarthey ................................................................. 293

Alfred Beckley’s Recollections of Kentucky, 1809-1814 edited by Cecil D. Eby, Jr. ................................................................. 304

Kentuckians in Arkansas Territorial Politics
Lonnie J. White ............................................................................... 314

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 321

News and Notes ................................................................................ 329

State Archives: McCracken County Deaths .................................... 336

Contributors .................................................................................... 356

VOLUME 61

Number One, January 1963

The Growth of Greyhound Bus Service in the Southeast
Herman A. Ellis ................................................................................ 1

Suffrage in Early Kentucky
George F. Taylor ............................................................................... 22

Writings on Kentucky History, 1960
Jacqueline Bull ............................................................................... 38

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 67

News and Notes

Genealogy
A Study of Some Stewart and Allied Families, Part I
William C. Stewart................................................................. 78

Queries .................................................................................... 104

Contributors ............................................................................ 106

Number Two, April 1963

Military and Naval Activity Between Cairo and Columbus
Robert D. Whitesell................................................................. 107

The Know-Nothing Riots in Louisville
Charles E. Deusner .................................................................. 122

Camp Beauregard, Graves County, Kentucky
Phillip M. Shelton ................................................................... 148

Book Reviews ........................................................................... 158

Genealogy
A Study of Some Stewart and Allied Families, Part II
William C. Stewart................................................................. 169

Contributors ............................................................................ 191

Number Three, July 1963

My Recollections of Frankfort
Mrs. Mary Willis Woodson ..................................................... 193

The Frankfort Resolutions and the Panic of 1819
Murray N. Rothbard ............................................................... 214

Civil War Journal of James E. Paton transcribed by Mrs. Wade Hampton Whitley ....................... 220

Horse and Saddle Doctor
George F. Taylor ..................................................................... 232

Book Reviews ........................................................................... 238

State Archives, McLean County Deaths............................... 246
Number Four, October 1963

Night Riders in the Black Patch, Part I
Marie Taylor ................................................................. 279

The Springs at Harrodsburg
Mai Flournoy Van Deren Van Arsdall ............................. 300

Kentucky Young Historians Association .......................... 329

State Archives, Madison County Deaths .......................... 346

Book Reviews .................................................................. 371

Contributors .................................................................... 377

VOLUME 62

Number One, January 1964

Governor Edward T. Breathitt, Jr. ........................................ 1

Local Aid to Railroads in Central Kentucky, 1850-1891, Part I
Carl B. Boyd, Jr. ............................................................... 4

Night Riders in the Black Patch, Part II
Marie Taylor .................................................................... 24

Book Reviews ................................................................... 41

News and Notes .............................................................. 51

State Archives, Clay County Deaths ................................. 58

Queries ............................................................................ 81

Contributors .................................................................... 85
Number Two, April 1964

The Louisville Journal: Its Origins and Early Years
Betty Carolyn Congleton ................................................................. 87

An Old Land Grant on Kinniconick
William M. Talley ............................................................................. 104

Local Aid to Railroads in Central Kentucky, 1850-1891, Part II
Carl B. Boyd, Jr. .............................................................................. 112

State Archives—Magoffin, Marion County Deaths ......................... 134

News and Notes—Local Societies .................................................... 162

Book Reviews .................................................................................. 166

Contributors ................................................................................... 173

Number Three, July 1964

Sue Mundy of Kentucky, Part I
L. L. Valentine ................................................................................ 175

Details of Frontier Life
Mann Butler .................................................................................... 206

State Archives—Marshall County Deaths ........................................ 230

Queries ............................................................................................ 253

Book Reviews .................................................................................. 256

Contributors ................................................................................... 264

Number Four, October 1964

John Bradford and His Contributions to the Culture and the Life of Early Lexington and Kentucky
Richard Miller Hadsell ..................................................................... 265

Sue Mundy of Kentucky, Part II
L. L. Valentine ................................................................................ 278
Civil War Letters of George W. Clark edited by Gerald O. Haffner .............................................................. 307

State Archives—Marshall County Deaths
continued from July 1964 ................................................................. 318

Queries ............................................................................................ 340

News and Notes ................................................................................ 342

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 350

Contributors .................................................................................... 357

VOLUME 63

Number One, January 1965

Fred M. Vinson: 1890-1938, The Years of Relative Obscurity
James Bolner ................................................................................... 3

The Cabin Creek War Road
William M. Talley .......................................................................... 17

A British View of Kentucky Agriculture in the 1870s
Lowell H. Harrison .......................................................................... 24

Captain Hines’s Adventures in the Northwest Conspiracy
Edward M. Coffman ........................................................................... 30

General Nelson Saves the Day at Shiloh
Edwin C. Bearss ............................................................................... 39

Vital Statistics—Mason County Deaths ............................................. 70

Queries ............................................................................................ 87

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 89

Number Two, April 1965

Humphrey Marshall, Commissioner to China, 1853-1854
Laurence A. Schneider ........................................................................ 97
1862-1865, Part III
Hunter B. Whitesell ........................................................... 323

Jesse Stuart: A Bibliography for May 1960—May 1965
Hensley C. Woodbridge ...................................................... 349

Vital Statistics—Mason County Deaths, Part IV .................. 371

News and Notes ................................................................. 388

Book Reviews ..................................................................... 393

Contributors ...................................................................... 398

VOLUME 64

Number One, January 1966

Come Take This Tour With Me
Jesse Stuart ................................................................. 1

Kentucky and Washington’s Mississippi Policy of Patience and Persuasion
Thomas J. Farnham .......................................................... 14

Mr. Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson and Racial Discrimination
James Bolner ................................................................. 29

George D. Prentice: A Reappraisal Reappraised
William C. Mallalieu ....................................................... 44

Writings on Kentucky History, 1961
compiled by Jacqueline Bull ............................................. 51

News and Notes ............................................................... 74

Book Reviews ................................................................. 77

Contributors ..................................................................... 84

Number Two, April 1966

Salt Lick Creek and Its Salt Works
William M. Talley ............................................................ 85
The Capture of President Jefferson Davis
An Eyewitness ................................................................. 270

Cassius Marcellus Clay: A Popular Portrait
Calvin Jarrett ................................................................. 277

In Mammoth Cave
Carlos A. Aldao .............................................................. 293

State Public Welfare Developments in Kentucky
Constantine William Curris .............................................. 299

News and Notes ............................................................. 337

Book Reviews ............................................................... 340

Contributors ................................................................. 346

VOLUME 65

Number One, January 1967

The Battle of Hartsville and Morgan’s Second Kentucky
Raid, Part I
Edwin C. Bearss .......................................................... 1

The American Folk Song Festival
Jean Thomas ................................................................. 20

George Michael Bedinger, 1756-1843
Charles G. Talbert and Clifford C. Gregg ......................... 28

Reluctance and Resistance: Wilson Wyatt and Veterans’
Housing in the Truman Administration
Barton J. Bernstein ......................................................... 47

Reflections of One Who Died of the “Milk Sick”
Walter W. Stevens ........................................................ 67

Book Reviews ............................................................... 69

Contributors ................................................................. 76

Number Two, April 1967
Discontent in Frontier Kentucky
Patricia Watlington ................................................................. 77

George D. Prentice: Nineteenth-Century Southern Editor
Betty Carolyn Congleton .......................................................... 94

The Battle of Hartsville and Morgan’s Second Kentucky
Raid, Part II
Edwin C. Bearss ........................................................................ 120

The Kentucky Girl in Two Literacy Classics
Raymond Carter Sutherland ..................................................... 134

Cassius Clay and the Crisis of the Union, 1860-1861
Patrick Sowle ............................................................................. 144

News and Notes ........................................................................... 150

Book Reviews ............................................................................. 156

Contributors ............................................................................... 162

Number Three, July 1967

Journal of Travels East in 1831: The Same Being the Journal of Major Thomas Hart Shelby of Fayette County, Kentucky edited by William Campbell Scott ............................................. 163

John Fitch, A Pioneer in the Development of the Steamboat
C. W. Hackensmith .................................................................... 187

A Man and His Book
David T. Maul ........................................................................... 212

Bishop Thomas U. Dudley and the Uplift of the Negro
Charles W. Wynes .................................................................... 230

The Battle of Hartsville and Morgan’s Second Kentucky
Raid, Part III
Edwin C. Bearss ........................................................................ 239

Book Reviews ............................................................................. 253

Contributors ............................................................................... 260
Number Four, October 1967

Education On The Early Kentucky Frontier:
1967 Boone Day Address
Irvin E. Lunger ................................................................. 261

The History and Restoration of “Locust Grove,” Near Louisville, Kentucky, Built c. 1790
Samuel W. Thomas ............................................................. 271

Joe Creason, A Newspaper’s Goodwill Ambassador
Jesse Stuart ........................................................................ 278

The People and the Lincoln-Douglas Campaign of 1858
Charles J. Stewart .................................................................. 284

Kentucky Banks in the Crisis Decade: 1834-1844
William C. Mallalieu and Sabri M. Akural ......................... 294

The Battle of Hartsville and Morgan’s Second Kentucky
Raid, Part IV
Edwin C. Bearss ..................................................................... 304

Joseph Nash McDowell, M.D.
James Walter Wilson ............................................................. 324

News and Notes .................................................................. 341

Book Reviews ...................................................................... 345

Contributors ....................................................................... 352

VOLUME 66

Number One, January 1968

Governor Louie B. Nunn ....................................................... 1

Catfish, Cornmeal and the Broad Canopy of Heaven edited by Blaine A. Guthrie, Jr., and Mitchell R. Guthrie .......... 3

Berea College and the Day Law
Richard Allen Heckman and Betty Jean Hall ....................... 35
Charting a Course Between Inflation and Depression: Secretary of the Treasury Fred Vinson and the Truman Administration’s Tax Bill
Barton J. Bernstein ........................................................................................................... 53

Camille De Polignac: A Prince Among the Confederates
Roy O. Hatton .................................................................................................................. 65

The Race of Red Tape and Taps
Gus E. Paris ..................................................................................................................... 75

Book Reviews .................................................................................................................. 90

Number Two, April 1968

Kentucky’s Anti-Evolution Controversy
R. Halliburton, Jr. ........................................................................................................... 97

Paducah: Origins to Second Class
John E. L. Robertson ...................................................................................................... 108

Personal Recollections of the Battle of Chancellorsville
Mrs. Sue M. Chancellor .................................................................................................. 137

An Overland Journey in 1849
Hugh P. Williamson ..................................................................................................... 147

The Chief Competitor of Drake’s City Theatre
John J. Weisert ............................................................................................................... 150

An Ode to Kentucky, by An Emigrant preface by Carl B. Cone ................................................................................................. 168

Writings on Kentucky History, 1962
Jacqueline Bull .............................................................................................................. 172

News and Notes ............................................................................................................. 187

Book Reviews ................................................................................................................. 202

Number Three, July 1968

Going to the Fourth
Jesse Stuart ................................................................. 211

J. E. Spilman
Earl R. Hoover ............................................................. 222

Henry Clay’s Biographers and the “Corrupt Bargain” Charge
William G. Morgan ......................................................... 242

The Secession Movement in Kentucky
Wallace B. Turner .......................................................... 259

Central University of Richmond, Kentucky
Fred A. Engle, Jr. ............................................................. 279

Documents ........................................................................... 305

Book Reviews ........................................................................ 308

Number Four, October 1968

Colonel John Floyd: Reluctant Adventurer
Anna M Cartlidge .............................................................. 317

The Physical Setting of the Bluegrass Planter
Richard L. Troutman ........................................................ 367

Mr. Chief Justice Vinson and the Communist Controversy:
A Reassessment
James Bolner ................................................................. 378

Cumberland College in 1829
Thomas P. Street, edited by Michael D. Green .................. 392

News and Notes ................................................................. 400

Book Reviews ........................................................................ 403

VOLUME 67

Number One, January 1969

Bellum and Post-Bellum Papers of a Gentleman of Randolph and Horse Cave: Their History and Philology
Raymond Carter Sutherland ............................................... 1
World War I Experiences of Stephen Loch Edwards contributed by Richard A. Edwards .................................................. 211

The Pro-Secessionist Governor of Kentucky: Beriah Magoffin’s Credibility Gap
Michael T. Dues ............................................................................... 221

The Polk Clan: Kentucky’s Contribution to the Early Development of Modern Architecture
James Hancock ................................................................................ 232

John James Audubon and His Relationship with the Crogan Family of Louisville, Kentucky
Samuel W. Thomas and Eugene H. Conner........................................... 237

Fact and Myth Concerning George Rogers Clark’s Grant of Land at Paducah, Kentucky
Paul V. Lutz ..................................................................................... 248

A Cattalo Experiment in Kentucky
Lowell H. Harrison ............................................................................ 254

Campaign of 1813 on the Ohio River: Sortie at Fort Meigs, May 1813
Thomas Christian ............................................................................. 260

News and Notes ................................................................................ 269

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 274

Number Four, October 1969

Boone Day Address, June 7, 1969
Governor Louie B. Nunn ................................................................... 283

The Early Railroads in Green County
Sam W. Moore II ............................................................................. 286

Robert Penn Warren and the “Black Patch War”
Robert W. Witt .................................................................................. 301

Lincoln’s Family and his Teachers
C. W. Hackensmith ........................................................................... 317

Stewart’s Kentucky Herald, 1795-1803
Paul C. Pappas ................................................................................. 335
James Gillespie Birney and the New England Friends
Ronald K. Huch ................................................................................ 350
A Benedictine Link with the Shakers
Brother Thomas Whitaker, O.S.B. .................................................... 360
News and Notes ................................................................................ 370
Book Reviews ................................................................................... 373
Index, Volume 67, 1969 ................................................................... 381

VOLUME 68

Number One, January 1970

The Kentucky Journal of Thomas Nelson Page edited by Harriet R. Holman ............................................................. 1

Cassius Marcellus Clay, Antislavery Whig in the Presidential Campaign of 1844
Stanley Carton ................................................................. 17

My Land Has A Voice
Jesse Stuart ............................................................................. 37

Kentucky’s Role in the Expansion of Freemasonry
Charles Snow Guthrie ............................................................. 53

John Bradford, Public Servant
Daniel A. Yanchisin ................................................................ 60

Letters to the Editor .................................................................... 70

News and Notes ........................................................................... 81
Book Reviews ................................................................................ 84

Number Two, April 1970

Early Roads Into Kentucky
Neal Owen Hammon ................................................................ ...... 91
Henry Clay, The Right of Petition, and Slavery in the Nation’s Capital
William L. Van Deburg ................................................................. 132

Kentucky Projectile Points: Clear Creek, Shelby County
E. H. Ingleheart ............................................................................ 147

Documents
A Witness for the Prosecution: The Pickett Incident
Edward H. Moseley ..................................................................... 171

The Early Civil War in Southern Kentucky as Experienced by Confederate Sympathizers edited by Kenneth R. Johnson ..................................................... 176

Book Reviews ............................................................................. 180

Number Three, July 1970

Ogden College: A Brief History
Jesse B. Johnson and Lowell H. Harrison ................................... 189

A Land and Its People
Jesse Stuart .................................................................................. 221

Lincolns in Southern Kentucky
R. N. Smith ................................................................................. 231

Amos Kendall’s Ode to Freedom
Robert P. Hay ............................................................................... 239

Pioneer Catholics in Kentucky
Richard A. Edwards ..................................................................... 252

Letters to the Editor .................................................................... 265

News and Notes .......................................................................... 269

Book Reviews ............................................................................. 272

Number Four, October 1970

A New Era in the Writing of Kentucky History
J. Crawford Crowe ................................................................. 285

Sectionalism, Slavery, and Education: New Albany, Indiana, versus Danville, Kentucky
Victor B. Howard ............................................................... 292

Prelude to Donelson: Grant’s January, 1862, March into Kentucky
C. Peter Ripley ................................................................. 311

A History of Mammoth Cave, Emphasizing Tourist Development and Medical Experimentation Under Dr. John Croghan

Joseph Nash McDowell, M.D., Parts II and III
James Walter Wilson ........................................................... 341

Book Reviews ................................................................. 370

VOLUME 69

Number One, January 1971

G. Glenn Clift, 1909-1970: Biography, Tribute
Bibliography ............................................................................... i-viii

Owensboro’s Original Proprietor
Hugh O. Potter ........................................................................ 1

The Civil War Letters of Herbert Saunders
Ronald K. Huch ........................................................................ 17

Two Kentucky Historians: A Personal Appreciation
Lowell H. Harrison ..................................................................... 30

Benjamin Bosworth Smith: Kentucky Pioneer, Clergyman, and Educator
W. Robert Insko ......................................................................... 37

News and Notes .......................................................................... 87

Historical Studies in Kentucky
H. L. Meredith ........................................................................... 87

Society Officers, 1970-1971 ..................................................... 90
Number Two, April 1971

General Stephen Gano Burbridge’s Command in Kentucky
Louis De Falaise ................................................................. 101

Covington and the Covington Company
Margaret Strebel Hartman .................................................. 128

Parnell Visits “The Ireland of America”
John R. O’Connor .............................................................. 140

The Louisville Riots of August 1855
Wallace S. Hutcheon, Jr ..................................................... 150

Book Reviews ....................................................................... 173

Number Three, July 1971

W. A. Wentworth, 1888-1971: Tribute, Biography .................. i-ii

Family Background and Education of Mary Todd
C. W. Hackensmith ............................................................. 187

Historic Lawsuits of the Eighteenth Century—Locating “The Stamping Ground”
Neal Hammon ................................................................. 197

The Great Revival of 1800
Mariam S. Houchens ......................................................... 216

Kentucky Poem
Hazel S. Phillips ................................................................. 235

Livingston County, Kentucky—Stepping Stone to Illinois
Robert Trail ................................................................. 239

Book Reviews ................................................................. 278

Number Four, October 1971

New Thoughts on an Old Theme
Thomas B. Jones .............................................................................. 293

The Building of “Liberty Hall”
Wallace B. Turner ............................................................................. 319

Munfordville in the Civil War
James Barnett .................................................................................. 339

Robert J. Breckinridge: Kentucky Unionist
Will D. Gilliam, Jr. ............................................................................. 362

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 386

VOLUME 70

Number One, January 1972

Wendell Hampton Ford, Forty-ninth Governor of Kentucky .............. v

Slavery, the Solvent of Kentucky Politics
Frank F. Mathias ............................................................................... 1

Richard H. Collins and His History of Kentucky
Stuart S. Sprague ............................................................................. 17

Southern Reaction to the XYZ Affair: An Incident in the Emergence of American Nationalism
John W. Kuehl ................................................................................ 21

One Effort in Life Was Not Enough
Jesse Stuart ...................................................................................... 50

. . . And Oblige Your Friend
Howard D. Doll ................................................................................ 57

In Memorial to W. A. Wentworth ..................................................... 61

Book Reviews .................................................................................. 63

News and Notes ............................................................................... 75

Number Two, April 1972

James Proctor Knott and the Duluth Speech
Number Three, July 1972

A Confederate View of Southern Kentucky, 1861
Lowell H. Harrison................................................................. 163

Henry Clay: A Current Assessment
James R. Winkler................................................................. 179

The Early Manufacturing and Selling of the Shakers at South Union, Kentucky
John M. Keith, Jr. .................................................................. 187

Morgan’s Second Kentucky Raid, December 1862
Edwin C. Bearss..................................................................... 200

The Cumberland Trace through Taylor County, Kentucky
Florence Merkley................................................................. 219

The Kentucky Heritage
Holman Hamilton................................................................. 225

Book Reviews ....................................................................... 231

Notes and Comments .......................................................... 246

Number Four, October 1972

The Paducah Affair: Bloodless Action that Altered the Civil War in the Mississippi Valley
E. B. Long ........................................................................................................... 253

The Fincastle Surveyors in the Bluegrass, 1774
Neal O. Hammon .................................................................................................. 277

A War Divides Green River Country
Helen B. Crocker .................................................................................................. 295

Jefferson, Kentucky, and the Closing of the Port of New Orleans, 1802-1803
Stuart Seely Sprague ............................................................................................ 312

Ohiopiomingo: The “Mythical” Kentucky Settlement
That Was Not a Myth
Robert D. Arbuckle .............................................................................................. 318

Book Reviews ......................................................................................................... 325

G. Glenn Clift Award ............................................................................................. 351

Notes, Announcements, Comments ...................................................................... 352

VOLUME 71

Number One, January 1973

Kentuckians at the Alamo, 1836 compiled by Hambleton Tapp ........................................................................... 1

The Kentucky Press and the Negro Testimony Controversy, 1866-1872
Victor B. Howard .................................................................................................. 29

The Winter the Mississippi Ran Backwards: Early Kentuckians
Report the New Madrid, Missouri, Earthquake of 1811-12
Wayne Viitanen ..................................................................................................... 51

The Louisville Canal: Key to Aaron Burr’s Western Trip of 1805
Stuart Seely Sprague ............................................................................................ 69

Notes on the Life of Colonel Ben Milam
Editor ...................................................................................................................... 87

Book Reviews ......................................................................................................... 106
Notes, Announcements, Comments .................................................. 124

Number Two, April 1973

Fort Jefferson
John E. L. Robertson................................................................. 127

Fred Vinson: Horses and the Air Corps
John Henry Hatcher................................................................. 139

The Relief and Court Struggle: Half-Way House to Populism
Frank F. Mathias........................................................................ 154

General John Hunt Morgan’s Second Kentucky Raid
(December, 1862), Part Two
Edwin C. Bearss ....................................................................... 177

Thomas Lincoln
Mrs. Thomas D. Winstead .......................................................... 189

Book Reviews .............................................................................. 194

Notes and Comments .................................................................. 222

Number Three, July 1973

The Early Struggle for Education of the Blacks in the Commonwealth of Kentucky
C. L. Timberlake ....................................................................... 225

Victims of Circumstances: Negroes in a Southern Town, 1865-1880
Herbert A. Thomas, Jr. ................................................................ 253

An Excursion to Mammoth Cave in Kentucky
Hermann Zagel; translated by Richard A. Weiss......................... 272

Selected Civil War Letters from collection of William F. Hawn......................................... 296

Book Reviews .......................................................................... 307

Notes, Announcements, Comments ........................................... 330
Number Four, October 1973

Boone Day Speech: The Role of Courts in the Development of Law
Chief Justice John S. Palmore .......................................................... 335

Where Were the Kentucky Unionists and Secessionists?
James E. Copeland ........................................................................... 344

Kentucky and the Navigation of the Mississippi: The Climactic
Years, 1793-1795
Stuart Seely Sprague ........................................................................ 364

A Baptist Minister Visits Kentucky: The Journal of Andrew Broaddus I
edited by John L. Blair ..................................................................... 393

General John Hunt Morgan’s Second Kentucky Raid
(December, 1862), Part Three
Edwin C. Bearss ............................................................................... 426

Presley O’Bannon: Archetypical Marine Lieutenant
Brigadier General Edwin H. Simmons, USMC (Retired) ..................... 439

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 445

Notes and Comments ....................................................................... 464

Volume 72

Number One, January 1974

From Intolerance to Moderation: The Evolution of Abraham Lincoln’s Racial Views
Paul David Nelson ............................................................................ 1

James Weir, First Citizen of Owensboro
R. Stephen Taylor ............................................................................. 10

General John Hunt Morgan’s Second Kentucky Raid
(December 1862), Part Four
Edwin C. Bearss ............................................................................... 20

The Canal at the Falls of the Ohio and the Three-Cornered Rivalry
Stuart Seely Sprague ........................................................................ 38
Book Reviews ................................................................................... 55
Notes, Announcements, Comments .................................................. 85

Number Two, April 1974
Governor Magoffin and the Secession Crisis
Lowell H. Harrison............................................................................ 91
Negro Politics and the Suffrage Question in Kentucky, 1866-1872
Victor B. Howard.............................................................................. 111
The Twain-Cable Lectures in Kentucky, 1884-1885
Bill Weaver....................................................................................... 134
The Question of Greek Independence in Kentucky, 1821-1828
Paul Papas ....................................................................................... 143
Book Reviews ................................................................................... 171
Notes, Announcements, Comments .................................................. 201

Number Three, July 1974
Robert Jefferson Breckinridge, 1800-1871 (Part I)
Will D. Gilliam.................................................................................. 207
Captain Harrod’s Company, 1774: A Reappraisal
Neal O. Hammon.............................................................................. 224
Fred Vinson: Boyhood and Education in the Big Sandy Valley
John Henry Hatcher.......................................................................... 243
Civil War Letters
submitted by Mrs. W. H. Whitley, Clarence E. Mitcham, Harry Forrest Lupold.......................................................................... 262
Book Reviews ................................................................................... 276
Notes, Announcements, Comments .................................................. 301
Number Four, October 1974

The Turbulent Years of Kentucky Politics, 1820-1850
Frank F. Mathias ................................................................. 309

Robert Jefferson Breckinridge, 1800-1871 (Part II)
Will D. Gilliam, Jr. .................................................................. 319

Town Making in the Era of Good Feelings: Kentucky, 1814-1820
Stuart S. Sprague ................................................................. 337

Madeline McDowell Breckinridge: Her Role in the Kentucky Woman Suffrage Movement, 1908-1920
Melba Dean Porter ............................................................... 342

The Recruitment of Negro Soldiers in Kentucky, 1863-1865
John David Smith ................................................................. 364

Boone Day Speech, June 7, 1974: Boonesborough – Outpost of the American Westward Movement
Thomas D. Clark ................................................................. 391

A Letter from James McBride .................................................. 398

Book Reviews ......................................................................... 403

Notes and Comments ............................................................ 427

VOLUME 73

Number One, January 1975

James Prentiss and the Failure of the Kentucky Insurance Company, 1813-1818
Dale Royalty ........................................................................... 1

Northern Conquerors and Southern Deliverers: The Civil War Comes to the Jackson Purchase
Berry F. Craig ........................................................................ 17

Mark E. Neely, Jr. .................................................................... 31

An Unusual Map of the Early West
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Elizabeth Fraas</th>
<th>61</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Book Reviews</td>
<td>70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes and Comments</td>
<td>95</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>In Memoriam (Joe Creason)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The “Squire” (Dr. J. Winston Coleman, Jr.)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fort Boonesborough Dedicated</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Number Two, April 1975

- John Taylor of Caroline: Republicanism in the Kentucky Constitution of 1792
  Tom K. Barton ................................................................. 105
- Kentucky and the Cincinnati-Charlestown Railroad, 1835-1839
  Stuart S. Sprague ............................................................. 122
- Early Educational Channels of Bourbon County
  H. E. Everman ................................................................. 136
- Theories of Labor Union Development and the United Mine Workers, 1932-33
  James P. Johnson ............................................................ 150
- Stand by the Colors: The Civil War Letters of Leander Stem edited by John T. Hubbell ................................................................. 171
- Book Reviews ..................................................................... 195

Number Three, July 1975

- The Kentucky Presbyterians in 1849: Slavery and the Kentucky Constitution
  Victor B. Howard ............................................................. 217
- Henry Clay and Continental Expansion, 1820-1844
  Thomas B. Jones ............................................................. 241
- Cassius Marcellus Clay in St. Petersburg
  John Kuhn Bleimaier .......................................................... 263
- The British and Kentucky, 1786
  A Letter Edited by Ged Martin ............................................ 288
Number Four, October 1975

Biographical Sketch of Julian M. Carroll, Governor of Kentucky ............................................................... 335

Re-dedication of the Old Capitol
Julian Morton Carroll ............................................................................................................................ 337

Isaac Shelby and Gubernatorial Campaign of 1812
H. Dean Peters ........................................................................................................................................ 340

The “Turn Another Screw” Affair: Oil and Railroads in the 1880s
C. Joseph Pusateri ............................................................................................................................... 346

Some Historic Kentucky Orators
Randall Capps ......................................................................................................................................... 356

Kentucky Society Sons of the American Revolution
Commemorating the 150th Anniversary of Lafayette’s Visit to Kentucky in 1825
Rene Bucco-Riboulat ............................................................................................................................ 390

VOLUME 74

Number One, January 1976

The Ironclads at Fort Donelson: The Ironclads
Sail for the Cumberland (Part I)
Edwin C. Bearss ............................................................................................................................... 1

Cora Wilson Stewart and the Crusade Against
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Illiteracy in Kentucky</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Willie E. Nelms, Jr.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sisters of the Visitation: 100 Years in Scott County, Mt. Admirabilis, and Cardome</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ann B. Bevins</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Did An Oratorical Spark Ignite the Kentucky Explosion?</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sister Ann Margaret Jarrell</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Election of 1828: A View from Louisville</td>
<td>51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anthony M. Brescia</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Book Reviews</td>
<td>58</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Number Two, April 1976

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The Ironclads at Fort Donelson, Part II</td>
<td>73</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Edwin C. Bearss</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>From Cramps to Consumption: Women’s Health in Owensboro, Kentucky, during the Civil War</td>
<td>85</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mrs. Aloma Williams Dew</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A New School Presbyterian Seminary in Woodford County</td>
<td>99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Harold M. Parker, Jr.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Fundamentalist—Moderate Schism Over Evolution in the 1920s</td>
<td>112</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>William E. Ellis</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Book Reviews</td>
<td>124</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Kentucky Marker Dedication on the Field at Gettysburg, November 19, 1975</td>
<td>146</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Paul Crowdus</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bicentennial Program at the Old State House, January 26, 1976</td>
<td>153</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Governor Carroll’s Speech to the General Assembly</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>General William R. Buster’s Remarks to the Legislature</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Resolutions to the Memory of Dr. Willard Rouse Jillson</td>
<td>160</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Number Three, July 1976

The Ironclads at Fort Donelson, Part III
Edwin C. Bearss ................................................................. 167

James Madison Pendleton: A Southern Crusader Against Slavery
Victor B. Howard .............................................................. 192

Central Themes in Shaker Thought
Richard G. Ferguson, Jr. ...................................................... 216

Book Reviews ........................................................................ 230

Number Four, October 1976

James Monroe’s Defense of Kentucky’s Interest in the Confederation Congress: An Example of Early North/South
Party Alignment
Charles Ellis Dickson .......................................................... 261

John Thomas Croxton: Scholar, Lawyer, Soldier, Military Governor, Newspaperman, Diplomat, and Mason
Rex Miller ........................................................................... 281

Luke Pryor Blackburn’s Campaign for Governor
Nancy D. Baird ................................................................. 300

The Significance of Boone Day (Boone Day Speech, June 7, 1976)
Hambleton Tapp ................................................................ 314

Book Reviews ........................................................................ 320

VOLUME 75

Number One, January 1977

Kentucky’s Third Constitution: A Restriction of Majority Rule
Frank F. Mathias ................................................................. 1

Kentucky’s Rebel Press: The Jackson Purchase Newspapers in 1861
Berry F. Craig ................................................................. 20

Prohibition and Politics in Kentucky: The Gubernatorial Campaign
Number Two, April 1977

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Skirmish at Sacramento: Battle of Future Generals</td>
<td>79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>John K. Ward</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Did Southern Colonizationists Oppose Slavery? Kentucky 1816-1850 as a Test Case</td>
<td>92</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jeffrey Brooke Allen</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Adlai Stevenson’s Campaign Visits to Kentucky in 1892</td>
<td>112</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Leonard Schlup</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A Sketch of the Early Life and Service in the Confederate Army of Dr. John A. Lewis of Georgetown, Kentucky</td>
<td>121</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>edited by Hambleton Tapp</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Book Reviews</td>
<td>141</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Number Three, July 1977

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The Green River Pioneers: Squatters, Soldiers, and Speculators</td>
<td>171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>James A. Ramage</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vice President Richard M. Johnson of Kentucky: Hero of the Thames—Or the Great Amalgamator?</td>
<td>191</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Robert Bolt</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lincoln and Washington: The Printmakers Blessed Their Union</td>
<td>204</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Harold Holzer</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Union and Slavery: Congressman Brutus J. Clay of the Bluegrass</td>
<td>214</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>James Larry Hood</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lemcke Visits Kentucky’s German Colonies in 1885</td>
<td>222</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>John J. Weisert</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spears Creek</td>
<td>233</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joseph F. Spears</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Number Four, October 1977

Jesse Stuart to Dayton Kohler: Selected Letters
edited by Edward L. Tucker .............................................................. 261

Joseph Rogers Underwood: Nineteenth-Century Kentucky Orator
Nancy L. Priest ................................................................................. 286

Press Reaction to the Appointment of Fred M. Vinson as Chief Justice of the United States
Philip A. Grant, Jr. ................................................................. 304

Kentucky’s Tradition of Leadership: Four Exemplars of the Early Days (Boone Day Address, June 7)
Holman Hamilton ............................................................................. 316

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 322

Resolutions ...................................................................................... 349

Index to Volume 75 .......................................................................... 351

VOLUME 76

Number One, January 1978

The Civil War in Kentucky: Some Persistent Questions
Lowell H. Harrison ................................................................................ 1

William Lindsay and the 1896 Party Crisis
Leonard Schlup ................................................................................ 22

Henderson, Kentucky, and the Fight for Equitable Freight Rates, 1906-1918
Lee A. Dew ....................................................................................... 34

A Dissenting Voice: Matthew Lyon on the Conquest of Canada
Donald R. Hickey .............................................................................. 45

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 53
Lexington’s Early Amateur Actors
Joseph M. Hayse ................................................................. 267

From Beckham to McCreary: The Progressive Record of Kentucky Governors
Nicholas C. Burckel .............................................................. 285

William Goebel (Boone Day Address)
Bert T. Combs ................................................................. 307

Book Reviews ................................................................. 314

Index to Volume 76 .............................................................. 338

VOLUME 77

Number One, Winter 1979

“Between the Hawk and the Buzzard”: Owensboro During the Civil War
Aloma Williams Dew .......................................................... 1

Mary Beck and the Female Mind
Edna Talbott Whitley .......................................................... 15

Steamboat ‘Round Kentucky Bend – A Golden Era
Allen Anthony ................................................................. 25

Curbing Leviathan: The Social Philosophy of Louis D. Brandeis
Nelson L. Dawson .......................................................... 30

Book Reviews ................................................................. 46

Number Two, Spring 1979

The Origins of Proslavery Thought in Kentucky, 1792-1799
Jeffrey Brooke Allen .......................................................... 75

Banking and the Commonwealth Ideal in Kentucky, 1806-1822
Dale Royalty ................................................................. 91

Kentucky Bend – The Lock That Had To Be Released
Allen Anthony ................................................................. 108
Fontaine Fox: Kentucky’s Foremost Cartoonist
Kelly Thurman ................................................................. 112

Book Reviews .................................................................... 129

Number Three, Summer 1979

The Civil War Letters of Captain Daniel O’Leary, U.S.A. edited by Jenny O’Leary and Harvey H. Jackson..................... 157

“A Great Deal of Money . . .”: Notes on Kentucky Costs, 1786-1792
Hazel Dicken Garcia .......................................................... 186

Mathew Lyon Comes to Frontier Kentucky
Christopher Waldrep ............................................................ 201

Book Reviews .................................................................... 207

Number Four, Autumn 1979

Saltpeter Mining in Kentucky Caves
Carol A. Hill and Duane DePaepe ........................................ 247

Henry Clay Replies to a Labor Recruiter from Trinidad edited by Mary Elizabeth Thomas ........................................... 263

Henry Cornelius Burnett: Champion of Southern Rights
Berry F. Craig .................................................................... 266

Sports History with a Kentucky Bouquet
Carl B. Cone ....................................................................... 275

Eastern Kentucky and the History of Our Commonwealth
Harry Caudill ..................................................................... 285

Book Reviews .................................................................... 294

Index .................................................................................. 321

VOLUME 78

186
Number One, Winter 1980

John Rowan and the Demise of Jeffersonian Republicanism in Kentucky, 1819-1831
Stephen W. Fackler ................................................................. 1

“Only For Great Attractions”: Louisville’s Amphitheatre Auditorium
John Spalding Gatton ............................................................... 27

The NAACP and Residential Segregation in Louisville, Kentucky, 1914-1917
George C. Wright ...................................................................... 39

“Dear Mr. Hopkins”: A New Dealer Reports from Eastern Kentucky
Thomas H. Coode and John F. Bauman ....................................... 55

Book Reviews ........................................................................... 64

Book Notes
Mary Lou Madigan .................................................................. 94

Number Two, Spring 1980

John Y. Brown, Jr. ...................................................................... 95

Kentucky Politics and the Heritage of the American Revolution: The Early Years, 1783-1788
Stuart Seely Sprague .................................................................. 98

An Interloper in the Oligarchy: Livingston County’s County Seat Controversy of 1806-1809
Christopher Waldrep .............................................................. 115

Henry Clay and His Kentucky Power Base
Frank F. Mathias ..................................................................... 123

Labor-Management Relations in the Progressive Era:
A Profit Sharing Experience in Louisville
William E. Ellis ....................................................................... 140

Book Reviews ........................................................................... 157

Book Notes
Number Three, Summer 1980

Oral Traditions Behind Some Kentucky Mountain Place Names
Harry M. Caudill ................................................................. 197

Dr. Robert Peter and the Legacy of Photography in Kentucky
Gerald J. Munoff ................................................................. 208

The Roots of Bluegrass Insurgency: An Analysis of the Populist Movement in Kentucky
Thomas J. Brown ............................................................... 219

The Emergence of the “Gentle Partisan”: Alben W. Barkley and Kentucky Politics, 1919
Gerald S. Grinde ................................................................. 243

Book Reviews ........................................................................ 259

Book Notes
Mary Lou Madigan and Thomas H. Appleton, Jr. ......................... 296

Number Four, Autumn 1980

Land Acquisition on the Kentucky Frontier
Neal O. Hammon .................................................................. 297

Milton H. Smith Talks about the Goebel Affair edited by Edison H. Thomas .................................................. 322

Alben Barkley’s Clinton Days
James K. Libbey .................................................................... 343

Book Reviews ........................................................................ 362

Book Notes
Thomas H. Appleton, Jr., Mary Lou Madigan, and Lawrence S. Thompson ......................................................... 385

Index ..................................................................................... 389
VOLUME 79

Number One, Winter 1981

A Word from the Editors ................................................................. 1

George W. Johnson and Richard Hawes: The Governors of Confederate Kentucky
Lowell H. Harrison ........................................................................ 3

Brent Spence and the Bretton Woods Legislation
Richard Hedlund ........................................................................... 40

An Englishman’s Perception of Antebellum Kentucky:
The Journal of Thomas Smith, Jr., of Lincolnshire
Thomas H. Appleton, Jr. ................................................................. 57

In Memoriam ................................................................................. 63

Book Reviews ................................................................................ 65

Book Notes .................................................................................... 96

Number Two, Spring 1981

Jane Apostol ................................................................................ 99

General Samuel Bell Maxey Prepares for the Invasion of Kentucky, Fall 1862
Louise Horton ........................................................................... 122

A. O. Stanley and Progressive Reform, 1902-1919
Nicholas C. Burckel ....................................................................... 136

How to Stay Elected: A Story of Local Political Success
J. B. Shannon ............................................................................... 162

Resolutions adopted on October 17, 1980, at a meeting of the Executive Committee ........................................ 175

Book Reviews ........................................................................... 178
Number Three, Summer 1981

Horse Owners in Kentucky in 1800
Lee Soltow ........................................................................................ 203

A Note on Regional Allegiances During the Civil War:
Kenton County, Kentucky, As A Test Case
Paul Allen Tenkotte .......................................................................... 211

Kentucky Baptist Aid to Reconstruction Georgia
Derrell C. Roberts ............................................................................. 219

The Campaign Speaking of A. B. Chandler
Stephen D. Boyd .............................................................................. 227

“The Traveling Church”: An Account of the Baptist Exodus
From Virginia to Kentucky in 1781
George W. Ranck .............................................................................. 240

Number Four, Autumn 1981

The Conditions for Science in the Academic Department of Transylvania University, 1799-1857
Eric H. Christianson ......................................................................... 305

Who Were Kentucky’s Whig Voters? A Note on Voting in Eddyville Precinct in August 1850
Christopher R. Waldrep .................................................................... 326

WHAS Radio and the Development of Broadcasting in Kentucky, 1922-1932
Terry L. Birdwhistell ......................................................................... 333

Revelry and Religion in Frontier Kentucky
James I. Robertson, Jr. .................................................................... 354

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 369
Number Three, Summer 1982

The Ethnic Descent of Kentucky’s Early Population: A Statistical Investigation of European and American Sources of Emigration, 1790-1820
Thomas L. Purvis ................................................................. 253

Without A Proper Theatre: The Many Careers of Ebenezer Brooks
James William Hagy ............................................................... 267

Lincoln Slave Policy in Kentucky: A Study of Pragmatic Strategy
Victor B. Howard .................................................................. 281

The 1938 Kentucky Senate Election: Alben W. Barkley, “Happy” Chandler, and the New Deal
Walter L. Hixson .................................................................. 309

Book Reviews ........................................................................... 330

Number Four, Autumn 1982

Taking the Stump: Campaigning in Old-Time Kentucky
William C. Davis .................................................................. 367

Immigration and Opportunity Along the Cumberland River in Western Kentucky
Christopher Waldrep ............................................................... 392

Nathaniel Southgate Shaler and the Kentucky Geological Survey
Ivan L. Zabilka ........................................................................ 408

The Oneida Albums: Photography, Oral Tradition, and the Appalachian Experience
Samuel W. Thomas ................................................................. 432

Book Reviews ........................................................................... 444

Book Notes .............................................................................. 479
VOLUME 81

Number One, Winter 1983

Fort Jefferson: George Rogers Clark’s Fort at the Mouth of the Ohio River, 1780-1781
Kathryn M. Fraser ............................................................................ 1

Conservation in Kentucky: The Fight to Save Cumberland Falls, 1926-1931
George W. Robinson ......................................................................... 25

How Old is the University of Louisville?
Dwayne Cox ..................................................................................... 59

Communications .............................................................................. 77

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 78

Book Notes ....................................................................................... 111

Number Two, Spring 1983

The Peopling of Lexington, Kentucky:
Growth and Mobility in a Frontier Town
Lee Shai Weissbach .......................................................................... 115

Homicide in Nineteenth-Century Kentucky
Robert M. Ireland ............................................................................. 134

“Send A Boat”: Images of Louisville’s 1937 Flood Stratton Hammon ............................................................................ 154

Kentuckian in “King Andrew’s” Court: The Letters of John Waller Barry, Washington, D.C., 1831-1835 edited by Cheryl Conover ................................................................ 168

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 199

Book Notes ....................................................................................... 234
Number Three, Summer 1983

Kentuckians in Texas:
Captain Burr H. Duval’s Company at Goliad
John B. Thomas, Jr.................................................................237

Robert Ball Anderson, A Kentucky Slave, 1843-1864
Darold D. Wax.................................................................255

Pomp, Pandemonium, and Paramours:
The G.A.R. Convention of 1895
William E. Cummings..................................................274

The Appalachian Image Reexamined:
An Oral History View of Eastern Kentucky
Terry L. Birdwhistell and Susan Emily Allen.......................287

Book Reviews ......................................................................303

Book Notes .........................................................................339

Number Four, Autumn 1983

John Hunt Morgan and the Kentucky Cavalry Volunteers in the Mexican War
James A. Ramage..........................................................343

The Paradox of Ulysses S. Grant
John Y. Simon..................................................................366

Mammoth Cave Through a German’s Eyes:
A Visit by Theodor Kirchhoff in 1870
Translated and edited by Frederic Trautmann..................383

“Human Wolves”: The Night Riders and the Killing of Axiom Cooper
Christopher R. Waldrep................................................407

Communications ..................................................................425

Book Reviews ......................................................................426

Book Notes .........................................................................461

Index..................................................................................465
VOLUME 82

Number One, Winter 1984

Society and Politics in the Jacksonian Era
Edward Pessen ................................................................................. 1

The Politician as Diplomat: Kentucky’s John Sherman Cooper in India, 1955-1956
Douglas A. Franklin ......................................................................... 28

“Where the Railroad Was, The River Is”: Oral History
From L&N Workers
Carl Ryant ........................................................................................ 60

The Papers of Henry Clay: A Review Essay
David Herbert Donald ....................................................................... 72

In Memoriam .................................................................................... 77

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 78

Book Notes ....................................................................................... 109

Number Two, Spring 1984

Poetry and Politics: The Kentucky Gazette in Verse
Lindsey Apple ................................................................................... 115

The Louisville Woolen Mills Strike of 1887:
A Case Study of Working Women, the Knights of Labor, and Union Organization in the New South
Nancy Schrom Dye ........................................................................... 136

Cora Wilson Stewart and the Crusade Against Illiteracy in Kentucky, 1916-1920
Willie E. Nelms ................................................................................. 151

“Awful! Terrible! Grand! Gloomy! and Peculiar!”:
Kentucky Records the Startling History of the Confederacy of Portland
John S. Gillig ................................................................................... 170
VOLUME 83

Number One, Winter 1985

The Capture of Daniel Boone’s Saltmakers: Fresh Perspectives from Primary Sources edited by William Dodd Brown .......................................................... 1

“The Clear Call of Thoroughbred Women”: The Kentucky Federation of Women’s Clubs and the Crusade for Educational Reform, 1903-1909
Nancy K. Forderhase .......................................................... 19

“A Crack in Time”: The Response of Students at the University of Kentucky to the Tragedy at Kent State, May 1970
Mitchell K. Hall .......................................................... 36

Book Reviews .......................................................... 64

Book Notes .......................................................... 89

Number Two, Spring 1985

Kentucky at the Thames, 1813: A Rediscovered Narrative by William Greathouse edited by John C. Fredriksen .......................................................... 93

The Doolittle Raid Journal of Sgt. George E. Larkin, Jr., 1942 edited by Arville L. Funk .......................................................... 108

They Climbed the Highest Mountain: The Success Story in the Eastern Kentucky Exodus
Harry M. Caudill .......................................................... 123

Book Reviews .......................................................... 140

Book Notes .......................................................... 169

Number Three, Summer 1985

Kentucky Education Through Two Centuries of Political and Social Change
Thomas D. Clark .......................................................... 173
“In a dangerous situation”: Letters of Col. John Floyd, 1774-1783 edited by Neal Hammon and James Russell Harris .............................. 202

Suspicion Versus Faith: Negro Criticisms of Berea College in the Nineteenth Century
Jacqueline G. Burnside .................................................................... 237

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 267

Book Notes ....................................................................................... 295

Number Four, Autumn 1985

Reflections of an Appalachian Historian: A Personal Odyssey
Margaret Ripley Wolfe ....................................................................... 299

Major General J. Franklin Bell, U.S.A.: The Education of a Soldier, 1856-1899
Edgar F. Raines, Jr. ......................................................................... 315

A “Trust Lawyer” Tries to Help Kentucky Farmers:
Augustus E. Willson’s 1907 Letter to George B. Cortelyou edited by Christopher R. Waldrep ..................................................... 347

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 356

Book Notes ....................................................................................... 385

A Word from the Editors ................................................................... 388

Index ................................................................................................ 389

VOLUME 84

Number One, Winter 1986

“Mad” Anthony Wayne and the Kentuckians of the 1790s
Paul David Nelson ............................................................................ 1

Boss Ben Johnson, the Highway Commission, and Kentucky Politics, 1927-1937
James C. Klotter and John W. Muir.................................................. 18
Adolph Rupp, the Kentucky Wildcats, and the Basketball Scandal of 1951
Humbert S. Nelli ............................................................................... 51

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 76

Book Notes ....................................................................................... 103

Number Two, Spring 1986

Acquitted Yet Scorned: The Ward Trial and the Traditions of Antebellum Kentucky Criminal Justice
Robert M. Ireland ............................................................................. 107

The New Deal and Rural Kentucky, 1933-1941
George T. Blakey .............................................................................. 146

John Sherman Cooper: A Senator and His Constituents
Bill Cooper ....................................................................................... 192

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 211

Book Notes ....................................................................................... 234

Number Three, Summer 1986

Settlers, Land Jobbers, and Outlyers: A Quantitative Analysis of Land Acquisition on the Kentucky Frontier
Neal O. Hammon .............................................................................. 241

Lexington’s Suppression of the 1920 Will Lockett Lynch Mob
John D. Wright, Jr. ........................................................................... 263

From Fellow Traveler to Anticommunist:
The Odyssey of J. B. Matthews
Nelson L. Dawson ........................................................................... 280

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 307

Book Notes ....................................................................................... 340

Number Four, Autumn 1986
“The Past Is Never Dead, It’s Not Even Past”:
Benjamin P. Runkle and the Freedmen’s Bureau in Kentucky, 1866-1870
Ross A. Webb ................................................................................... 343

“The Harvest Moon Was Shinin’ on the Streets of Shelbyville”:
Southern Honor and the Death of General Henry H. Denhardt, 1937
William E. Ellis................................................................................. 361

As Luck Would Have It: An Overview of Lawrence W. Wetherby as Governor, 1950-1955
John E. Kleber ................................................................................. 397

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 422

Book Notes ....................................................................................... 453

A Word from the Editors ................................................................... 457

Index................................................................................................ 459

VOLUME 85

Number One, Winter 1987

Henry Clay and the Politics of Compromise and Non-Compromise
Robert Seager II................................................................................ 1

John G. Fee, Camp Nelson, and Kentucky Blacks, 1864-1865
Richard Sears................................................................................... 29

The Gottschalk-Colvin Case: A Story in Academic Purpose and Command
Dwayne Cox ..................................................................................... 46

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 69

Book Notes ....................................................................................... 99

Number Two, Spring 1987

Ethnic Origins of Early Kentucky Land Grantees
John B. Sanderlin ............................................................................ 103

The Forgotten Victorians: Louisville’s Domestic Servants, 1880-1920
Elizabeth A. Perkins ................................................................. 111

Happy Chandler
Charles P. Roland........................................................................ 138

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 162

Book Notes........................................................................................ 195

Number Three, Summer 1987

John C. Breckinridge
William C. Davis............................................................................ 197

“Blessed Are They That Mourn”: Expressions of Grief in South Central Kentucky, 1870-1910
Sue Lynn Stone ................................................................................ 213

Eve Returns to the Garden: Women Reformers in Appalachian Kentucky in the Early Twentieth Century
Nancy K. Forderhase ........................................................................ 237

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 262

Book Notes........................................................................................ 282

Number Four, Autumn 1987

Shadows and Reflections: The Farm Security Administration and Documentary Photography in Kentucky
Edward D. C. Campbell, Jr.............................................................. 291

Barton Stone and the Drama of Cane Ridge
Philip Ardery .................................................................................... 308

Diary of Edward O. Guerrant Covering the June 1864 Kentucky Raid of General John Hunt Morgan edited by Edward O. Guerrant....................................................... 322

Executive Mansion and Cultural Symbol: An Essay Review of Recent Books on White House History
Lewis L. Gould ................................................................. 359

Book Reviews ............................................................................. 363

Book Notes .................................................................................. 391

A Word from the Editors ............................................................. 395

Index .......................................................................................... 399

VOLUME 86

Number One, Winter 1988

Governor Wallace G. Wilkinson .................................................... 1

“Their Rules of War”: The Validity of James Smith’s Summary of Indian Woodland War
Leroy V. Eid ..................................................................................... 4

Gordon Wilson’s Normal Education: Western Kentucky State Normal School, 1908-1913
Lowell H. Harrison ....................................................................... 24

E. Merton Coulter, the “Dunning School,” and The Civil War and Readjustment in Kentucky
John David Smith ........................................................................... 52

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 70

Book Notes ....................................................................................... 97

Number Two, Spring 1988

From the Jefferson Seminary to the Louisville Free School: Change and Continuity in Western Education, 1813-1840
David Post ........................................................................................ 103

Immigrants and Community in Harlan County, 1910-1930
Doug Cantrell .................................................................................. 119

Jesse Stuart: A Bibliographical Supplement
J. R. LeMaster ................................................................................ 142
Number Three, Summer 1988

Mary Todd Lincoln: Biography as Social History
Jean H. Baker ................................................................. 203

Glimpses of Union Activity Among Coal Miners in Nineteenth-Century Eastern Kentucky
Henry C. Mayer ............................................................... 216

The Harrodsburg Tankers: Bataan, Prison, and the Bonds of Community
James Russell Harris ....................................................... 230

Number Four, Autumn 1988

A Visit to Boonesborough in 1779: The Recollections of Pioneer
George M. Bedinger
edited by William Dodd Brown ....................................... 315

A Search for Old Tip Himself
Robert G. Gunderson .................................................... 330

Black Flag Over The Bluegrass: Guerrilla Warfare in Kentucky, 1863-1865
James B. Martin ............................................................ 352

Book Reviews ................................................................. 376

Book Notes........................................................................ 404

A Word from the Editors .................................................. 409

Index.............................................................................. 413
VOLUME 87

Number One, Winter 1989

Working Like A Slave: Views of Slavery and the Status of Women in Antebellum Kentucky
Richard Sears ................................................................................... 1

Polio in Kentucky – From Birthday Balls to the Breakthrough
Nancy Bradshaw .............................................................................. 20

The War on Poverty in Appalachia – A Preliminary Report
John M. Glen ................................................................................... 40

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 58

Book Notes ....................................................................................... 92

Number Two, Spring 1989

Bluegrass Powdermen: A Sketch of the Industry
Gary A. O’Dell .................................................................................. 99

From Mules to Motors: The Street Railway System in Lexington, Kentucky, 1882-1938
James Duane Bolin .......................................................................... 118

Marching to Zion: Christianity and Progressivism in Nelson and Washington Counties, Kentucky
J. Larry Hood ................................................................................... 144

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 162

Book Notes ....................................................................................... 193

Number Three, Summer 1989

Indexes to The Register, 1903-1989
compiled by Mary Lou S. Madigan

Introduction to Subject Index ........................................................... 198

Subject Headings ............................................................................. 199
Number Four, Autumn 1989

- Feuding and Modernization in Appalachia: The Hatfields and McCoys
  - Altina L. Waller ................................................................. 385

- Two Centuries of the Lottery in Kentucky
  - James C. Klotter ................................................................. 405

- The Free Blacks of Boyle County, Kentucky, 1850-1860:
  - A Research Note
  - Richard C. Brown ............................................................. 426

- Book Reviews ........................................................................... 439

- Book Notes ................................................................................ 469

- A Word from the Editors ............................................................ 472

- Index .......................................................................................... 473

VOLUME 88

Number One, Winter 1990

- The Judicial Murder of Abner Baker, 1844-1845
  - Robert M. Ireland ................................................................. 1

- “So Much in Love . . .”: The Courtship of a Bluegrass Belle—
  - Rosalie Stewart’s Diary, December 1890 – July 1891
  - edited by Virginia Van der Veer Hamilton ............................ 24

- The Predreadnought Battleship USS Kentucky
  - John S. Gillig ........................................................................... 45

- Book Reviews .............................................................................. 82

- Book Notes .................................................................................. 116
Number Two, Spring 1990

Carter Tarrant (1765-1816): Baptist and Emancipationist
Charles Tarrants ................................................................. 121

Fort Boone and the Civil War Defense of Frankfort
Nicky Hughes ................................................................. 148

Herman L. Donovan and the Emergence of "Big-Time" Athletics at the University of Kentucky
Humbert S. Nelli ............................................................. 163

Christopher R. Waldrep ............................................... 183

Book Reviews ................................................................. 205

Book Notes ................................................................. 238

Number Three, Summer 1990

Gubernational Politics in Kentucky, 1820-1851
Frank F. Mathias and Jasper B. Shannon .......................... 245

The Glory Is Theirs Forever: Remarks Delivered at the Rededication of the Kentucky Monument at Shiloh Battlefield, April 1989
John H. DeBerry ............................................................. 278

“To Lend You My Eyes...”: The World War II Letters of Special Services Officer Harry Jackson
Nancy Disher Baird ........................................................ 287

Student Demonstrations and the Dilemma of the Black College President in 1960: Rufus Atwood and Kentucky State College
Gerald L. Smith .............................................................. 318

Book Reviews ................................................................. 335

Book Notes ................................................................. 369
Number Four, Autumn 1990

They May Say What They Please: Daniel Boone and the Evidence
John Mack Faragher ................................................................. 373

The Trotter Family, Gunpowder, and Early Kentucky Entrepreneurship, 1784-1833
Gary A. O’Dell ........................................................................ 394

Divided We Fall: State College and the Normal School Movement in Kentucky, 1880-1910
Terry L. Birdwhistell ............................................................. 431

Book Reviews ........................................................................... 457

Book Notes ............................................................................... 490

A Word from the Editors ........................................................ 495

Index ...................................................................................... 496

Volume 89

Number One, Winter 1991

Buffaloes in the Corn: James Wade’s Account of Pioneer Kentucky edited by Roseann R. Hogan .................................................. 1

Henry Clay’s Constitutional Unionism
Peter B. Knupfer .................................................................... 32

“She Made a Tradition”: Katherine S. Bowersox and Women at Berea College, 1907-1937
Carolyn Terry Bashaw ......................................................... 61

Book Reviews ........................................................................... 85

Book Notes ............................................................................... 118

Number Two, Spring 1991

The Little Colonel: A Phenomenon in Popular Literary Culture
Sue Lynn McGuire .................................................................. 121
Lexington’s Colored Orphan Industrial Home, 1892-1913
Lauretta F. Byars ............................................................................. 147

Let’s Talk About the Weather: A Historiography of Antebellum Kentucky Agriculture
James E. Wallace ............................................................................. 179

Communication................................................................................ 200

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 203

Book Notes ....................................................................................... 235

Number Three, Summer 1991

Politics and Corruption in Antebellum Kentucky:
The Thomas S. Page Affair, 1852-1860
Glen Taul and Denis Fielding ........................................................... 239

Working in the Black Patch: Tobacco Farming Traditions, 1890-1930
Suzanne M. Hall................................................................................. 266

Nothing But Slaves: The Second Kentucky Volunteer Infantry and the Spanish-American War
Jeff L. Patrick ................................................................................... 287

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 300

Book Notes ....................................................................................... 332

Number Four, Autumn 1991

Governor Brereton C. Jones ............................................................. 335

The End For Me, But A Beginning For Others: My Years of Research on Kentucky Blacks
George C. Wright .............................................................................. 338

On War and History: Charles P. Roland Discusses An American Iliad
edited by James Russell Harris ......................................................... 362
“Hard Times” and Insurgent Politics: Origins of the Black Patch War, 1875-1904
Tracy A. Campbell ................................................................. 377

Book Reviews ............................................................................. 400

Book Notes ................................................................................... 432

A Word From The Editors ............................................................. 437

Index............................................................................................ 441

VOLUME 90

Number One, Bicentennial Issue 1992

Dispelling the Myth: Seventeenth- and Eighteenth-Century Indian Life in Kentucky
A. Gwynn Henderson ................................................................ 1

“Sweet Meditation Through This Pleasant Country”: Foreign Appraisals of the Landscape of Kentucky in the Early Years of the Commonwealth
Raymond F. Betts ................................................................... 26

Myth and Reality in Kentucky History
John E. Kleber ......................................................................... 45

Fallen Leaves and Missing Pages: Women in Kentucky History
Margaret Ripley Wolfe ........................................................... 64

Point of View: A Glimpse of the Kentucky Image in Photographs from the Kentucky Historical Society Collection
Mary E. Winter ....................................................................... 90

Number Two, Spring 1992

A Virginian’s First Views of Kentucky: David Meade to Joseph Prentis, August 14, 1796 edited by Harold B. Gill, Jr., and George M. Curtis III ............ 117

The Kentucky National Guard in Vietnam: The Story of Bardstown’s Battery C at War
Anthony A. McIntire ............................................................... 140
The Impact of Race on Law in Kentucky: A Research Note
Christopher Waldrep .............................................................. 165

Communications ........................................................................ 183

Book Reviews ............................................................................. 185

Book Notes ................................................................................... 220

Number Three, Summer 1992

The Early Heroes of Kentucky
Robert V. Remini ................................................................. 225

The Louisville Baptist Orphan’s Home: The Early Years
Keith Harper ............................................................................. 236

The Human Side: Politics, the Great Depression, and the New Deal in Lexington, Kentucky, 1929-35
James Duane Bolin ................................................................. 256

Book Reviews ............................................................................. 284

Book Notes ................................................................................... 319

Number Four, Autumn 1992

A Time of Enthusiasm: The Response of Kentucky to the Call for Troops in the Mexican War
Damon R. Eubank ..................................................................... 323

Work Begins Today: Quaker Volunteers in Depression-Era Kentucky, 1933
Edmund F. Wehrle ................................................................... 345

All of a Place: The Literary Soil of Todd County
Joy Bale Boone .......................................................................... 368

Communications ........................................................................ 377

Book Reviews ............................................................................. 380

Book Notes ................................................................................... 426
A Word from the Editors................................................................................ 432
Index............................................................................................................. 433

VOLUME 91

Number One, Winter 1993

Some Notes on the History of Cane Ridge Prior to the Great Revival
Ellen Eslinger .............................................................................................. 1

The Local Color of John Uri Lloyd: A Critical Survey of the Stringtown Novels
Michael A. Flannery .................................................................................. 24

The Dutch Mill Village in Glasgow: A Research Note
Keith A. Sculle .......................................................................................... 51

In Memoriam: Hambleton Tapp (1900-1992) ............................................. 63

“Meaningful Change and Unceasing Continuity”: An Essay Review of A History of Blacks in Kentucky
Jason H. Silverman ..................................................................................... 65

Book Reviews ............................................................................................... 76

Book Notes ................................................................................................. 121

Number Two, Spring 1993

Thomas Jefferson, Criminal Code Reform, and the Founding of the Kentucky Penitentiary at Frankfort
Paul Knepper ............................................................................................... 129

The Jackson Academy and the Quest for Presbyterian Ascendancy in Breathitt County
Betty Carolyn Congleton ............................................................................. 150

The Image of Appalachian Kentucky in American Popular Magazines
Tommy R. Thompson ................................................................................... 176
Number Three, Summer 1993

Heron Who Waits at the Speleawee-thepee: The Ohio River and the Shawnee World
R. David Edmunds ................................................................. 249

Choctaw Academy: Richard M. Johnson and the Business of Indian Education
Ella Wells Drake ................................................................. 260

The Significance of the Kentucky Frontier
Stephen Aron ..................................................................... 298

Andrew R. L. Cayton ............................................................. 324

Number Four, Autumn 1993

The Problem of Concealed Weapons in Nineteenth-Century Kentucky
Robert M. Ireland ................................................................. 370

“To Embrace the Value of the Land”: Land Survey Legislation in the Jackson Purchase, 1820
Marcia Brawner Smith .......................................................... 386

Kentucky Blacks: The Transition from Slavery to Freedom
Marion B. Lucas ................................................................. 403

A Word from the Editors .......................................................... 465
VOLUME 92

Number One, Winter 1994

The Shape of Slavery on the Kentucky Frontier, 1775-1800
Ellen Eslinger ......................................................... 1

Alben W. Barkley: the Farmer’s Son
James K. Libbey .................................................... 24

“Stone of the Most Beautiful Kind”: The White Stone Quarry of Bowling Green
Christy Sputlock Smith ............................................. 44

Pondering Mr. Jefferson’s Documentary Legacy: An Essay Review
Constance B. Schulz ................................................. 73

Book Reviews .......................................................... 80

Book Notes .............................................................. 118

Number Two, Spring 1994

The Travels of John Hanks: Recollections of a Kentucky Pioneer
Harry G. Enoch ....................................................... 131

The Naming of Paducah
John P. Dyson .......................................................... 149

Patrick Henry Callahan: A Maverick Catholic and the Prohibition Issue
William E. Ellis ...................................................... 175

Book Reviews .......................................................... 200

Book Notes .............................................................. 236

Number Three, Summer 1994

The Significance of the Frontier Thesis in Kentucky Culture: A Study in Historical Practice and Perception
Suffragist Triumphant: Madeline McDowell Breckinridge and the Nineteenth Amendment
Melba Porter Hay ................................................................. 25

Fannie’s Flirtations: Etiquette, Reality, and the Age of Choice
Sue Lynn McGuire ................................................................. 43

Joan E. Cashin ................................................................. 79

A Tribute to Paul E. Fuller ........................................................ 86

Book Reviews ........................................................................ 88

Book Notes ............................................................................ 123

Number Two, Spring 1995

John Sherman Cooper: The Early Years, 1901-27
Richard C. Smoot ................................................................. 133

Louisville Free Public Library’s Racially Segregated Branches, 1905-35
Cheryl Knott Malone ................................................................. 159

Dissension among the Do-Gooders: Alice Lloyd and Her Critics in Appalachia
P. David Searles ................................................................. 180

Communications .................................................................... 207

Book Reviews ........................................................................ 209

Book Notes ............................................................................ 251

Number Three, Summer 1995

General William Preston: Kentucky’s Last Cavalier Fights for Southern Independence
Peter J. Sehlinger ................................................................. 257

William S. Hays: The Bard of Kentucky
Bill C. Malone ........................................................................................................... 286

Turning the Local Network to a National Channel: Educational Leadership and the College of Education at the University of Kentucky, 1917-1927
Susan H. Gooden ................................................................................................... 307

D-Day + 50 (Years, that is)
William R. Buster .................................................................................................. 333

Book Reviews ......................................................................................................... 340

Book Notes ............................................................................................................. 379

Number Four, Autumn 1995

The Politics of the Elective Judiciary during the Period of Kentucky’s Third Constitution
Robert M. Ireland .................................................................................................... 387

“. . . And Not to Make Athletes of Them”: Banning Women’s Sports at the University of Kentucky, 1902-24
Gregory Kent Stanley ............................................................................................... 422

CCC Camp 510: Black Participation in the Creation of Mammoth Cave National Park
Jeanne Cannella Schmitzer .................................................................................... 446

Book Reviews ......................................................................................................... 465

Book Notes ............................................................................................................. 505

A Word from the Editors ...................................................................................... 513

Index ..................................................................................................................... 514

VOLUME 94

Number One, Winter 1996

Governor Paul E. Patton .......................................................................................... 1

“Fond Illusions” and Environmental Transformation Along the Maysville-Lexington Road
Craig Thompson Friend ................................................................. 4

A Thread of Evidence: Shaker Textiles at South Union, Kentucky
Jonathan Jeffrey and Donna Parker ............................................... 33

“A noble-minded, honest people, full of high patriotism”: Traugott Bromme’s Observations on Kentucky and Kentuckians translated and introduced by Richard Bland ......................... 59

Book Reviews .............................................................................. 67

Book Notes .................................................................................. 105

Number Two, Spring 1996

Love and Honor: The Robert Wickliffe Family of Antebellum
Kentucky
Andrea S. Ramage ......................................................................... 115

“I Consider the Regiment my home”: The Orphan Brigade Life and Letters of Capt. Edward Ford Spears, 1861-65 edited by Samuel R. Flora.......................................................... 134

“A Threshold to the Future”: The Kentucky History Center
Thomas D. Clark ........................................................................... 174

Book Reviews .............................................................................. 176

Book Notes .................................................................................. 214

Number Three, Summer 1996

Eleanor Marsh Frost and the Gender Dimensions of Appalachian Reform Efforts
Deborah L. Blackwell ................................................................... 225

Founding a Dynasty: Robert Worth Bingham Takes Control of
_The Courier-Journal_ and _Louisville Times_, 1918-25
William E. Ellis ........................................................................... 247

The Great _White_ Migration, Alcohol, and the Transplantation of Southern Protestant Churches
Chad Berry ................................................................................. 265
Number Four, Autumn 1996

Henry Clay and the Supreme Court
Sandra Day O’Connor ......................................................... 353

The Evolution of a Family: Gendered “Spheres” and the Spanish-American War
Lindsey Apple ................................................................. 363

Smith Pharmacy of Burkesville, Kentucky: A Case Study in the Development of a Community Pharmacy
Michael A. Flannery ......................................................... 396

VOLUME 95

Number One, Winter 1997

Louisville and the Origins of the L & N Railroad
Aaron D. Purcell ............................................................ 1

Senator J. C. W. Beckham and the Fight for Ratification of the League of Nations
Leonard Schlup ............................................................... 29

Reaching Out to the Mountains: The Pack Horse Library of Eastern Kentucky
Jeanne Cannella Schmitzer .............................................. 57

Review Essay: New Scholarship on John G. Fee and the Early Years of Berea College
John David Smith .......................................................... 79
Number Two, Spring 1997

African Americans on the Kentucky Frontier
Marion B. Lucas ................................................................. 121

Dachau Album: Perspectives from War Crimes Prosecutor
William O. Miller and Court Reporter Leona Mumedy
Miller, 1946-47
edited by James Russell Harris and Caroline R. Miller .............. 135

Number Three, Summer 1997

The Legacy of Daniel Boone: Three Generations of Boones and the History of Indian-White Relations
Stephen Aron ........................................................................ 219

The Kentucky Volunteer Foot Soldier in the Mexican War:
A Social History of Company B, Second Regiment, Kentucky
Infantry Volunteers
James I. Dantic ..................................................................... 237

Missed Opportunity? A Participant’s Reflections on the June 1997 Hanoi Conference on the Vietnamese-American War
George C. Herring .................................................................. 285

Number Four, Autumn 1997

“Chimney Corner Constitutions”: Democratization and Its Limits in Frontier Kentucky
Harry S. Laver ........................................................................ 337

Engineering the Kentucky River: A Disastrous Debut
Charles E. Parrish and Leland R. Johnson ............................. 369
Frankfort’s Streetcars and Interurbans: The Bluegrass Route
Charles Bogart .................................................................................. 395

Book Reviews .......................................................................................... 426

Book Notes ............................................................................................... 459

A Word from the Editors .......................................................................... 463

Index .......................................................................................................... 464

VOLUME 96

Number One, Winter 1998

“When the Man Knows Death”: The Civil War Poems of Nathaniel Southgate Shaler
Michael C. C. Adams .............................................................................. 1

William Morgan Beckner: The Horace Mann of Kentucky
James C. Carper ..................................................................................... 29

Bourbon to Bullets: Louisville’s Distilling Industry During World War II, 1941–45
Aaron D. Purcell .................................................................................. 61

Book Reviews .......................................................................................... 88

Book Notes ............................................................................................... 114

Number Two, Spring 1998

The First False Frontier: Eastern Kentucky and the Movies
Gordon B. McKinney .............................................................................. 119

“May the club work go on Forever”: Home Demonstration and Rural Progressivism in 1920s Ballard County
George B. Ellenberg ................................................................................ 137

How Historical Archaeology Works: A Case Study of Slave
Houses at Locust Grove
Amy Lambeck Young, Philip J. Carr, and Joseph E. Granger .......... 167
Number Three, Summer 1998

Mahlon D. Manson and the Civil War in Kentucky: The Politics of Martial Glory
William J. Kaan ................................................................................ 221

Alben W. Barkley: The Making of the “Paducah Politician”
James K. Libbey .............................................................................. 249

A Wannabe Historian in World War II
Lowell H. Harrison.......................................................................... 269

The Odyssey of a Historian: Solving Mysteries, Murderous and Otherwise
William E. Ellis................................................................................ 295

Review Essay: Renewing the History of Kentucky
Stephen Aron ................................................................................... 307

Number Four, Autumn 1998

Success, Failure, and the Guillotine: Don Carlos Buell and the Campaign for the Bluegrass State
Stephen D. Engle ............................................................................. 315

William English Walling: Kentucky’s Unknown Civil Rights Hero
Berry Craig....................................................................................... 351

Records Everywhere, But How Are They Going to Survive?
John W. Carlin ................................................................................ 377

Book Reviews ................................................................................... 385

A Word From The Editors ................................................................. 420

Index................................................................................................ 421

VOLUME 97
Number One, Winter 1999

For Law and Order: Joseph Holt, the Civil War, and the Judge Advocate General’s Department
Gayla Koerting ................................................................. 1

Adventures in Good Eating: Duncan Hines of Kentucky
Emma S. Weigley ................................................................. 27

Vision or Obsession? Arthur E. Morgan and the Superdam
B. Anthony Gannon ............................................................. 45

Moving Kentucky History into the Twenty-first Century:
Where Should We Go From Here?
James C. Klotter ............................................................... 83

Correspondence from James Still to Dayton Kohler (1940-59):
A Research Note
edited by Edward L. Tucker ............................................... 113

Number Two, Spring 1999

Kentucky in the Nation’s History
Bob Edwards ................................................................. 123

Dangerous Situation, Delayed Response: Col. John Bowman and the Kentucky Expedition of 1777
William Dodd Brown ....................................................... 137

John Orlando Scott: Scion of the Bluegrass in Peace and War
Hugh Ridenour ............................................................... 159

The Towns of King Coal
Margaret Ripley Wolfe ..................................................... 189

Book Reviews ................................................................. 202

Book Notes ................................................................. 236

Number Three, Summer 1999

Munfordville: The Campaign and Battle Along Kentucky’s Strategic Axis
Congressman David Grant Colson and the Tragedy of the Fourth Kentucky Volunteer Infantry
Thomas E. Stephens .......................................................................................... 43

Book Reviews ..................................................................................................... 103

Book Notes ......................................................................................................... 133

A Word from the Editors ................................................................................... 137

Number Two, Spring 2000

Celebrating the Ordinary: Why Common Folk Should Write Memoir
Linda Scott DeRosier .......................................................................................... 139

Theodore H. H. Harris ....................................................................................... 155

“An Intensive School of Disloyalty”: The C. B. Schoberg Case Under the Espionage and Sedition Acts in Kentucky during World War I
Scott A. Merriman ........................................................................................... 179

Book Reviews ..................................................................................................... 205

Number Three, Summer 2000

The Uncommon Wealth .................................................................................... 239

Kentucky’s Separate Coach Law and African American Response
Anne E. Marshall............................................................................................... 241

Alben Barkley’s Rise from Courthouse to Congress
James K. Libbey ................................................................................................ 261

My Life as a Telegrapher on the Kentucky Division of the Illinois Central Railroad
John E. L. Robertson ........................................................................................ 279

Book Reviews ..................................................................................................... 297
Number Two, Spring 2001

The Uncommon Wealth ................................................................. 95

Happy Chandler and Baseball’s Pivotal Era
William J. Marshall .................................................................. 99

“What Really Interests Me Are the People”: Edward M. Coffman on Soldiers, Scholars, and the New Military History
James Russell Harris ............................................................... 123

Popularizing the Founding: A Review Essay
Lance Banning ......................................................................... 153

Book Reviews .............................................................................. 159

Doram Portraits ........................................................................... 208

Number Three, Summer 2001

“All Issues Are Women’s Issues”: An Interview with Governor
Martha Layne Collins on Women in Politics
Elizabeth Fraas ......................................................................... 213

The Slow and Unsure Progress of Women in Kentucky Politics
Penny M. Miller ......................................................................... 249

Emma Guy Cromwell and Mary Elliott Flannery: Pioneers for Women in Kentucky Politics
Rebecca S. Hanly ........................................................................ 287

A Dressing Change in the Keeneland Temporary Exhibit Gallery at the Kentucky History Center ........................................ 302

Book Reviews .............................................................................. 303

Number Four, Autumn 2001

The Uncommon Wealth ............................................................... 337

The Jackson Purchase Considers Secession: The 1861 Mayfield Convention
Berry F. Craig ........................................................................... 339
African American Migration to Louisville in the Mid-Twentieth Century
Luther J. Adams.................................................................363

Derby City Reference: A Review Essay
Kenneth H. Williams..........................................................385

Book Reviews ........................................................................393

Book Notes ...........................................................................447

Index.....................................................................................449

VOLUME 100

Number One, Winter 2002

The Uncommon Wealth ......................................................... 1

The Debate Over Whipping Criminals in Kentucky
Robert M. Ireland ................................................................. 5

Ideology Portrayed in Jacksonian Lexington: Politics, Popular Culture, and “Conscious” Language
Thomas J. Kiffmeyer.............................................................. 35

Book Reviews .........................................................................59

Number Two, Spring 2002

The Uncommon Wealth ..........................................................127

A Younger Brother of the Greatest Generation
Edward M. Coffman..............................................................129

Swastikas in the Bluegrass State: Axis Prisoners of War in Kentucky, 1942–46
Richard E. Holl....................................................................139

Rolling Bandages and Building Thunderbolts:
A Woman’s Memories of the Kentucky Home Front, 1941-45
James Russell Harris ............................................................167
A Kentuckian’s Victory-Bond Odyssey
Thomas E. Stephens................................................................. 195

Book Reviews ........................................................................... 201

Book Notes ................................................................................. 269

Number Three, Summer 2002

The Uncommon Wealth .......................................................... 273

Songs of Life and Grace: Creeker—And Then Some
Linda Scott DeRosier .................................................................. 279

The Removal of Blacks from Corbin in 1919: Memory, Perspective, and the Legacy of Racism
Kristy Owens Griggs .................................................................. 293

Confessions of a 1950s Old Gold Salesman: Kentucky History by the Carton
Frank F. Mathias ....................................................................... 311

Early Kentuckians and the New Nation: The Samuel McDowell Family Letters
edited by Lynne Hollingsworth, Kenneth H. Williams, and James Russell Harris.......................................................... 329

Book Reviews ........................................................................... 349

Number Four, Autumn 2002

The Uncommon Wealth .......................................................... 423

“Henry Clay represents what this country is about”:
A Roundtable Discussion with His Biographer and Editors edited by Kenneth H. Williams and Melba Porter Hay ............ 427

Henry Clay’s Legacy to Horse Breeding and Racing
Jeff Meyer .................................................................................. 473

Daniel Boone’s American Life: An Interview with Biographer
Michael Lofaro
edited by James Russell Harris and Kenneth H. Williams ........ 497
VOLUME 101

Numbers One & Two, Winter/Spring 2003

The Uncommon Wealth ................................................................. 1

“A Glorious Birthright to Guard”: A History of the Kentucky Historical Society
Thomas E. Stephens ...................................................................... 7

Establishing Their Place in the Dynasty: Sophonisba and Mary Breckinridge’s Paths to Public Service
Melanie Beals Goan ....................................................................... 45

Becoming a Soldier
Charles P. Roland .......................................................................... 75

Slavery Ideology and the Underground Railroad in Kentucky: A Review Essay
John David Smith ........................................................................... 93

Book Reviews ................................................................................. 109

Bulletin Board .................................................................................. 234

Number Three, Summer 2003

The Uncommon Wealth ................................................................. 237

The Fayette County School Integration Controversy, 1971–72: Removing the Vestiges of Segregation
David L. Wolford ........................................................................... 243

Father John Thayer: Catholic Antislavery Voice in The Kentucky Wilderness
C. Walker Gollar ............................................................................. 275
Memory, History, and the Meaning of the Civil War—A Review
Essay
Christopher Waldrep ................................................................. 383

Book Reviews ................................................................................ 403

Number Four, Autumn 2004

The Uncommon Wealth ................................................................. 457

Life on the Kentucky Frontier: A Roundtable Discussion edited by Kenneth H. Williams .................................................... 461

The Many Lives of Daniel Boone
Michael A. Lofaro ...................................................................... 489

Daniel Boone as American Icon: A Literary View
Richard Taylor ............................................................................. 513

Daniel Boone the Surveyor: Old Images and New Realities
Neal O. Hammon and James Russell Harris ............................... 535

Book Reviews ................................................................................ 567

Index ............................................................................................. 595

VOLUME 103

Numbers One & Two, Winter/Spring 2005
Thomas D. Clark Memorial Issue

The Uncommon Wealth ................................................................. 1

Part I: Writings (all articles by Clark)

Autobiographical
Growing Up With the Frontier .................................................... 11
Big River .................................................................................... 23
The Book Thieves of Lexington: A Reminiscence ...................... 47

Kentuckiana
Kentucky: Land of Tomorrow .................................................... 67
Traveling Church ...................................................................... 75
Holy Rollers ............................................................................. 93

Southern History

232
The Rural South As Seen in Two of its Institutions: The Country Store and the Rural Weekly .............................................................. 109
The Common-Man Tradition in the Literature of the Frontier ................................................................. 125
Preservation of Southern Historical Documents ........................................ 143
Agriculture Entry from the Encyclopedia of Southern Culture ............................................................... 159

Education

Serious Threats to American Education from Fanatic Fringes and Critics ................................................................. 167
Statement to the Special Committee to Investigate Education in Kentucky, 1960 ............................................................... 173

Kentucky Politics

Constitution-Making in Kentucky in Retrospect ................................................................. 185
The Dead Hand of Heedless Partisanism ................................................................. 193

Part II: Commentary

Clark on His Writings ................................................................. 201
Clark on World Affairs ................................................................. 235
Clark on Civil Rights in Mississippi ................................................................. 251
Clark and Literary Figures ................................................................. 271
Clark Advice on Life in the Academy ................................................................. 299
Clark on History and Historians ................................................................. 305
Clark on Kentucky History and Historians ................................................................. 333
Clark on Kentucky Politics ................................................................. 349
Clark and the University of Kentucky ................................................................. 377
Clark and the Lyman Johnson Case ................................................................. 407
Clark and John W. Oswald ................................................................. 421
Clark on UK and Collegiate Athletics ................................................................. 445

Number Three, Summer 2005

The Uncommon Wealth ................................................................. 461

“Almost Like a Storybook”: A Childhood in Frankfort, Kentucky, 1901-1911
edited by Virginia Van der Veer Hamilton ................................................................. 465

The Making of a Kentucky Architect and Entrepreneur: Insights into the Life of Matthew Kennedy
Francis D. Pitts III ................................................................. 493

Recent Historiography of Guerrilla Warfare in the Civil War—A Review Essay

233
A Killing in the Philippines, 1900: A Kentuckian Faces Insurgency and Military Justice
Meredith Mason Brown ................................................................. 43

Robert Penn Warren at His Peak—A Review Essay
Jonathan S. Cullick .................................................................... 77

Todd Estes .................................................................................. 95

Book Reviews ................................................................................ 127

Number Two, Spring 2006

The Uncommon Wealth ................................................................ 213

The Louisville Civil Rights Movement’s Response to the Southern Red Scare
Tracy E. K’Meyer ........................................................................ 217

Capital Question: Efforts to Relocate Kentucky’s Seat of Government
Robert M. Ireland ....................................................................... 249

Book Reviews ............................................................................... 285

Bulletin Board ............................................................................... 385

Numbers Three & Four, Summer/Autumn 2006

Oral History Special Issue

The Uncommon Wealth ................................................................ 389

“I’m sure there were some that thought I was too smart for my own good”: The Ed Prichard Oral History Interviews edited by Kenneth H. Williams....................................................... 395

Precocious Youth........................................................................ 400
Princeton Undergraduate............................................................ 419
Harvard Law School .................................................................... 428
To Washington with the La Follette Committee (1938) .................. 439
Happy Chandler and the 1930s Kentucky Politics....................... 440
To Washington (1939) and More Kentucky Politics .................................................. 450
Clerking for Frankfurter at the Supreme Court ......................................................... 455
In Washington during World War II ........................................................................ 479
Postwar Law Practice and Politics in Kentucky ....................................................... 507
Marriage to Lucy Marshall Elliott .............................................................................. 524
Ballot Stuffing and Conviction .................................................................................. 528
Post-Prison Struggles ............................................................................................... 542
Phil Graham ................................................................................................................ 549
1950s Kentucky Politics ............................................................................................ 553
The 1959 Gubernatorial Election .............................................................................. 563
The Bert Combs Administration .............................................................................. 565
The Ned Breathitt Campaign and Administration ..................................................... 580
Epilogue ...................................................................................................................... 600
The Future of Kentucky .............................................................................................. 602

Issues That Have Shaped the Field of Oral History—A Roundtable
edited by Kenneth H. Williams ................................................................................ 609

Issues Shaping the Present and the Future of the Field of Oral History—A Roundtable edited by Kenneth H. Williams .............................................................................. 643

Memories of Forrest C. Pogue, Oral History Pioneer and One of Kentucky’s Great Historians
Edward M. Coffman ................................................................................................ 675

Oral History Method and Theory Today—A Review
Essay and Commentary
Tracy E. K’Meyer ..................................................................................................... 685

Book Reviews .......................................................................................................... 699

Book Notes ............................................................................................................. 803

Index ...................................................................................................................... 817

VOLUME 105

Number One, Winter 2007

The Uncommon Wealth ........................................................................................... 1

The Louisville-Jefferson County School Desegregation Case: A Lawyer’s Perspective
Robert A. Sedler ....................................................................................................... 3
“A Great Deal More That Could Be Done”:
Lowell H. Harrison on Statecraft, Scholars, and Kentucky History
edited by James Russell Harris .......................................................... 33

Book Reviews .................................................................................. 93

Number Two, Spring 2007

Editor’s Page
Elizabeth J. Van Allen .................................................................. 191

The Making of Imperishable Honor: Charles S. Todd in the War of 1812
Sherry K. Jelsma ............................................................................ 195

Search for Asylum: The Mormons Petition the Kentucky Governor, 1845 edited by Roger D. Launius .......................................................... 229

Benjamin Franklin Turns 301—A Review Essay
Dee E. Andrews ............................................................................ 247

Awards ............................................................................................ 277

Book Reviews .................................................................................. 281

Number Three, Summer 2007

Editor’s Page
James Russell Harris ..................................................................... 381

Green v. Gould (1884) and the Construction of Postbellum Race Relations in a Central Kentucky Community
Charles L. Davis ........................................................................... 383

Winning the War behind the Lines: Colonel George M. Chescheir and the Axis POWs at Fort Benning, Georgia
Antonio Thompson ........................................................................ 417

What was Modern Republicanism?—A Review Essay
Michael J. Birkner ......................................................................... 461

Book Reviews .................................................................................. 475
Number Two, Spring 2008

Editor's Page
James Russell Harris ................................................................. 161

Between Enthusiasm and Stoicism: David Rice and Moderate
Revivalism in Virginia and Kentucky
Andrew M. McGinnis ............................................................... 165

Church Building and Social Class on the Urban Frontier:
The Refinement of Lexington, 1784-1830
David J. Voelker ........................................................................ 191

Book Reviews ............................................................................. 231

Numbers Three & Four, Summer/Autumn 2008
Abraham Lincoln and Kentucky

Introduction
Abraham Lincoln and the Register
R. Darrell Meadows ................................................................. 297

Articles
Lincoln’s Kentucky Childhood and Race
Brian Dirck .................................................................................. 307

Toward a View of Abraham Lincoln’s
Trans-Appalachian World in Motion
R. Darrell Meadows ....................................................................... 333

One Kentuckian’s Hard Choice: Joseph Holt and
Abraham Lincoln
Elizabeth D. Leonard ..................................................................... 373

Abraham Lincoln and the Danville Farmer: The President-Elect Discusses Policy with a Kentuckian
Mark J. Stegmaier .......................................................................... 409

“Gentlemen, I too, am a Kentuckian”: Abraham Lincoln, the Lincoln Bicentennial, and Lincoln’s Kentucky in Recent Scholarship
John David Smith .......................................................................... 433

Bicentennial Presentations
The Judgment of Future Events: Kentucky Embraces
Table of Contents

Abraham Lincoln, its Native son
John E. Kleber .......................................................... 471

Legend and Myth: Abraham Lincoln in Kentucky
Frank J. Williams ...................................................... 479

Comparing Henry Clay and Abraham Lincoln
Shearer Davis Bowman ........................................... 495

Abraham Lincoln: An African American Perspective
J. Blaine Hudson ...................................................... 513

Classic Scholarship on Lincoln and Kentucky
Mark E. Neely Jr. ...................................................... 537

Lincoln, Slavery, and Kentucky
Lowell H. Harrison .................................................. 571

Bulletin Board:
Research Fellowships ............................................. 605

Index .............................................................................. 607

---

VOLUME 107

Number One, Winter 2009

Editor’s Page
Nelson L. Dawson .................................................... 1

Farming on the Kentucky Frontier
Ellen Eslinger ............................................................ 3

The Evolution of the Residential Land Subdivision Process in Louisville, 1772-2008
Carl E. Kramer .......................................................... 33

Book Reviews ............................................................ 83

Bulletin Board ............................................................ 139
Number Two, Spring 2009
Kentucky and the Contested Legacy of Jefferson Davis

Kentucky Exceptionalism in Gray
James Russell Harris ................................................................. 141

Jefferson Davis and the Meaning of the War
William J. Cooper Jr. ................................................................. 147

Jefferson Davis, Scholars, and the Civil War: A Public
History Dialogue
Edited by James Russell Harris ................................................. 163

Jefferson Davis and Lost Cause Memory: A Forum on Kentucky and the South
Edited by James Russell Harris ................................................. 163

Finding Jefferson Davis on the Commemorative Landscape:
A Roundtable Discussion
Edited by James Russell Harris ................................................. 237

Book Reviews .............................................................................. 263

Bulletin Board ............................................................................ 297

Number Three, Summer 2009
Appalachian Kentucky and the War on Poverty

Introduction
Susan Youngblood Ashmore ...................................................... 301

A New Deal in the Cold War: Carl D. Perkins, Coal, and the Political Economy of Poverty in Eastern Kentucky, 1948-1964
Robert S. Weise ........................................................................ 307

“We are Ordered to Do Everything”: The National Advisory Commission on Rural Poverty, American Social Thought, and the War on Poverty
Thomas Kiffmeyer .................................................................. 339

The Appalachian Thread in the Antipoverty Politics of Robert F. Kennedy
Edward R. Schmitt .................................................................... 371
Number Three, Summer 2010

Editor’s Page
Nelson L. Dawson.................................................................171

Denton Offutt of Kentucky: America’s First Horse Whisperer?
Gary A. O’Dell.................................................................173

Jesuit Education and Slavery in Kentucky, 1832–1868
C. Walker Gollar.............................................................213

Bulletin Board.................................................................251

Book Reviews.................................................................253

Number Four, Autumn 2010

Editor’s Page
Nelson L. Dawson.............................................................315

Knowing about the Tobacco: Women, Burley, and Farming in the Central Ohio River Valley
Jeffery A. Duvall.............................................................317

Racial Politics in Central Kentucky during the Post–Reconstruction Era: Bourbon County, 1877–1899
Charles L. Davis.............................................................347

Book Reviews.................................................................383

Index.................................................................445

VOLUME 109

Number One, Winter 2011

Editor’s Page
Nelson L. Dawson.............................................................1

“And shall thy flowers cease to bloom?” The Shakers’ Struggle to Preserve Pleasant Hill, 1862–1910
David Marsich………………………………………………………………………………….3

Bert Combs and the Council for Better Education: Catalysts for School Reform
Richard E. Day………………………………………………………………………………...27

Mystic Chords of Memory: Thoughts on the Impending Civil War Sesquicentennial
Glenn W. LaFantasie…………………………………………………………………………63

Book Reviews…………………………………………………………………………………75

Number Two, Spring 2011

Editor’s Page
Nelson L. Dawson………………………………………………………………………..151

“Playing Fairly and Fiercely”: Paradigms of the Early Years of Kentucky White Girls’ Basketball, 1891-1919
Sallie L. Powell……………………………………………………………………………..153

A Medal for Mrs. Lincoln
Jason Emerson……………………………………………………………………………..187

Book Reviews……………………………………………………………………………..207

Numbers Three & Four, Summer/Autumn 2011
Exploring Kentucky’s African American Past

Foreword
Research on Kentucky Blacks, Revisited
George C. Wright………………………………………………………………………..283

Introduction
Kentucky African Americans: “So Much Remains to be Told”
Gerald L. Smith…………………………………………………………………………...287

“Upon This Rock”—The Free African American Community of Antebellum Louisville, Kentucky
J. Blaine Hudson…………………………………………………………………………..295

Kentucky Jewry during the Civil War
Lee Shai Weissbach.................................................................165

Book Reviews.............................................................................185

Numbers Three & Four, Summer/Autumn 2012
New Perspectives on Civil War–Era Kentucky

Introduction
John David Smith.................................................................231

Articles

Kentucky, the Civil War, and the Spirit Of Henry Clay
James C. Klotter.................................................................243

The Religion of Proslavery Unionism: Kentucky Whites on the Eve of Civil War
Luke E. Harlow.................................................................265

The Crouching Lion’s Fate: Slave Politics and Conservative Unionism in Kentucky
Aaron Astor.................................................................293

Netherworld of War: The Dominion System and the Contours of Federal Occupation in Kentucky
Christopher Phillips............................................................327

Garrett Davis and the Problem of Democracy and Emancipation
Christopher Waldrep............................................................363

Lincoln’s Judge Advocate General: Joseph Holt of Kentucky
Elizabeth D. Leonard............................................................403

Bluegrass and Volunteer—Sister States or Enemy States?
Benjamin Franklin Cooling.....................................................439

A “Sisters’ War”: Kentucky Women and Their Civil War Diaries
Anne E. Marshall.................................................................481

The Freedmen’s Bureau in the Jackson Purchase Region of Kentucky, 1866-1868
Patricia A. Hoskins.................................................................503
Pioneer Black Legislators from Kentucky, 1860s–1960s
Peter Wallenstein

What Fresh Hell is This? Revisiting Reconstruction
Mark Wahlgren Summers

Forging a Confederate Tradition in Kentucky: Memory, Politics, and Place: A Review Essay
W. Fitzhugh Brundage

Book Reviews

Index

VOLUME 111

Number One, Winter 2013

Editor's Page
Nelson L. Dawson

Kentucky Marine: Major General Logan Feland, USMC
David Bettez

John Mason Brown during the Civil War: Indiana Country and Fighting Morgan’s Raiders
Meredith Mason Brown

Book Reviews

Number Two, Spring 2013

Editor's Page
Nelson L. Dawson

The “Free and Easy” Generation of Kentucky and the War of 1812
James P. Cousins

Barton Warren Stone: Revisiting Revival in the Early Republic
Matthew D. Smith

Unionism, Emancipation, and the Origins of Kentucky’s Confederate Identity
Number Three, Summer 2013

Editor’s Page
James Russell Harris

The Yokohama POW Journal of Private First Class Claude C. Likens, Company D, 192nd Tank Battalion, 1942–1945
Edited by Kelly E. Crager, James Russell Harris, and Elizabeth J. Van Allen

Book Reviews

Number Four, Autumn 2013

Editor’s Page
Nelson L. Dawson

Free and Free Shakers and Affiliates of African Descent at Pleasant Hill, Kentucky
Vickie Cimprich

“Turning Up Their Noses at the Colonel”: Eastern Aristocracy, Western Democracy, and Richard Mentor Johnson
Miles Smith

“The Weeds and the Flowers Are Closely Mixed”: Allegiance, Law, and White Supremacy in Kentucky’s Bluegrass Region, 1861–1865
Stephen Rockenbach

Book Reviews

VOLUME 112

Number One, Winter 2014

Editor’s Page
James Russell Harris

Daniel Boone the Businessman: Revising the Myth of Failure
Neal O. Hammon and James Russell Harris
The Railroad Expansion Controversy in Postbellum Bourbon County: Conflicting Economic Interests and Ideological Perspectives among Urban and Rural Elites
Charles L. Davis

A Kentucky Airman Cheats Death High Over France: Bill Hack Visits Flak City
Berry Craig

Book Reviews

Number Two, Spring 2014

Editor's Page
David C. Turpie

“A Conciliatory Declaration”: George Nicholas, the Virginia Ratification Convention, and the Misuse of History
Jeffrey Allen Zemler

“Read Your Destiny!”: Kentucky Antislavery Sentiment and the Uses of Roman History
Edward C. McInnis

Whither Kentucky Civil War and Reconstruction Scholarship?
John David Smith

A Persistent Quandary: Berea College and the Rural School Improvement Project, 1953–1957
Richard E. Day, Lindsey N. DeVries, and Amanda L. Hoover

Book Reviews

Number Three, Summer 2014

Josie Underwood’s Civil War: An Introduction
Nancy D. Baird

Josie Underwood’s Civil War Diary, Part Two
Edited by Nancy D. Baird

Book Reviews
Number Four, Autumn 2014

Editor's Page
David C. Turpie.................................................................549

J. Michael Rhyne.................................................................553

If You Can’t Go Home, Take Some of It with You: Twentieth-Century Appalachian Migration and the Music of Renfro Valley
Nathan McGee.................................................................589

Nixon’s Southern Strategy Rebuffed: Senator Marlow W. Cook and the Defeat of Judge G. Harrold Carswell for the U.S. Supreme Court
John Paul Hill.................................................................613

Book Reviews.................................................................651

VOLUME 113

Number One, Winter 2015

Editor's Page
David C. Turpie.................................................................1

“Kentucky Was Completely Ignored”: Governor William J. Fields, the Midland Trail, and the Numbering of Highway 60
Susan Croce Kelly.................................................................3

“Titles Must Be Perfect”: The Broad Form Deed, Politics, and Landownership in Eastern Kentucky at the Turn of the Twentieth Century
Stephanie M. Lang.................................................................27

Joshua Taylor Bradford and the Transatlantic Revival of Ovariotomy in the Mid-Nineteenth Century
Donald A. Clark.................................................................59

Book Reviews.................................................................87
Preface
R. Darrell Meadows.................................................................159

Introduction
Thomas Kiffmeyer and Robert S. Weise.................................163

Charting the Course of Twentieth-Century Kentucky: Current Courses and Future Directions
James C. Klotter.................................................................171

The End of Kentucky’s Winning Season?: A Fresh Look at Early-Twentieth-Century Kentucky Decision-Making
Melanie Beals Goan.............................................................201

Toil, Trouble, Transformation: Workers and Unions in Modern Kentucky
John Hennen.................................................................233

“Buried in Original Records, Government Reports, Statistical Tables, and Obscure Essays”? Kentucky’s Twentieth-Century Agricultural History
Mark V. Wetherington..........................................................271

The Republican Party and Modern Conservatism in Postwar Kentucky
Joshua D. Farrington..........................................................307

Socially Relevant History: Appalachian Kentucky in the Twentieth Century
Robert S. Weise.................................................................321

Western Kentucky in the Twentieth Century: From the End of Isolation to the Collapse of the “Gibraltar of Democracy”
George G. Humphreys.........................................................357

My Old Kentucky Home: Black History in the Bluegrass State
Luther Adams.................................................................385

Colonels, Hillbillies, and Fightin’: Twentieth-Century Kentucky in the National Imagination
Anthony Harkins.................................................................421

Yoked to Tradition: Kentucky Women and Their Histories, 1900–1945
Dana M. Caldemeyer.............................................................453
Integrating Women into Modern Kentucky History: The Equal Rights Amendment Debate (1972–1978) as a Case Study
Nancy E. Baker

“Straining To Hear Their Thoughts and Desires”: Researching and Writing the African American Experience in Kentucky
Gerald L. Smith

White Protestants and the Civil Rights Movement in Kentucky
Carolyn DuPont

Mid-Twentieth Century Social Movements in Kentucky
Amanda L. Higgins

Number Four, Autumn 2015
Local History, National Contexts: Exploring Microhistory in Henderson, Kentucky

Introduction
Nicole Etcheson

The Demise of Slavery on the Border: Federal Policy and the Union Army in Henderson, Kentucky
J. Michael Crane Jr.

“Branded by the Lincolnites as Guerillas”: Adam Rankin Johnson, Guerilla Identity, and Irregular Warfare in the Lower Green River Valley in 1862
Scott A. Tarnowieckyi

“On the Frontier . . . of Integration and Desegregation”: White Ministers and the 1956 School Desegregation Crisis in Henderson, Kentucky
David Lai

Selected Documents from Henderson in the Civil War Governors of Kentucky Digital Documentary Edition
Anthony P. Curtis, Patrick A. Lewis, and Whitney Smith

Book Reviews
VOLUME 114

Number One, Winter 2016

Editor’s Page
Patrick A. Lewis.................................................................1

From Corinth to Perryville: Military Movements and the Fight to Save the Confederate Nation in 1862
Thomas M. Grace..............................................................3

“If Just One of the Boats Had Remained”: The 1862 Battle of Augusta and Its Aftermath
Donald A. Clark...............................................................41

Book Reviews............................................................................75

Number Two, Spring 2016

Editor’s Page
David C. Turpie.................................................................133

“All Anarchy and Confusion”: Leadership and the Contests for Collective Approval in Early Kentucky
Blair M. Smith.................................................................135

The Color of Money: African Americans, Economic Development, and Identity in Kentucky
George White Jr..............................................................161

“Save Our Tobacco”: The End of the Federal Tobacco Program in the Central Ohio River Valley, 1980–2005
Jeffery A. Duvall..............................................................189

Book Reviews............................................................................223

Numbers Three & Four, Summer/Autumn 2016
Kentucky and the Struggle for the Early American West

Introduction
Kevin T. Barksdale............................................................291
“They Steal Our Deer and Land”: Contested Hunting Grounds in the Trans-Appalachian West
Andrea L. Smalley.................................................................303

To Open “the Doors of Commerce”: The Mississippi River Question and the Shifting Politics of the Kentucky Statehood Movement
Christopher L. Leadingham....................................................341

Borderland Diplomacy: Western Elites and the “Spanish Conspiracy”
Susan Gaunt Stearns.............................................................371

“Mississippi Mad”: The Democratic Society of Kentucky and the Sectional Politics of Navigation Rights
Michelle Orihel.......................................................................399

Radical Rhetoric, Conservative Goals: The Democratic Society of Kentucky and the Language of Transatlantic Radicalism in the 1790s
Andrew J. Forney.................................................................431

Imagining and Reimaging Kentucky: Turning Frontier and Borderland Concepts into a Frontier-Borderland
Jay Donis..............................................................................461

Book Reviews.............................................................................475

VOLUME 115

Number One, Winter 2017

“They Met Force with Force”: African American Protests and Social Status in Louisville’s 1877 Strike
Shannon M. Smith................................................................1

“Young and Littlefield’s Folly”: Fundraising, Confederate Memorialization, and the Construction of the Jefferson Davis Monument in Fairview, Kentucky, 1907–1924
Joy M. Giguere........................................................................39

Book Reviews.............................................................................75

Number Two, Spring 2017
Environment and Environmentalism in Kentucky
Introduction
Richard W. Judd and David Stradling

The Lay of the Land: Environmental History, the South, and Kentucky
Mark D. Hersey

Birth of the Bluegrass: Ecological Transformations in Central Kentucky to 1810
Andrew P. Patrick

Water, Workers, and Wealth: How “Mr. Peabody’s” Coal Barge Stripped Kentucky’s Green River Valley
Eileen Michelle Hagerman

Kentucky’s “Atomic Graveyard”: Maxey Flats and Environmental Inequity in Rural America
Caroline Peyton

Book Reviews

Number Three, Summer 2017

More Than a Congressman’s Mistress: Ambition and Scandal in the Life of Madeleine Pollard
Elizabeth De Wolfe

Confronting a Petty Tyrant: Patriarchy and Protest at Millersburg Female College, 1880–1884
Charles L. Davis

The Skirted Sheriff: Florence Thompson and the Nation’s Last Public Execution
Carrie Pitzulo

Book Reviews

Number Four, Autumn 2017

New Directions in Kentucky Sport History

Introduction
Andrew Doyle

Defeated by the Accreditors: The Rise and Fall of Big-Time Football at Centre College, 1915–1926
Andrew Doyle
“Doing Just What the Others Were Doing”: The University of Kentucky Wildcats and the Debate over Commercialized College Athletics, 1946–1954
Chad Carlson ................................................................. 525

“On the Opposite Side of the Fence”: The University of Kentucky and the Racial Desegregation of the Southeastern Conference
S Zebulon Baker ................................................................. 561

From “Pitifully Ignorant” to the “People’s Champion”: Shifting Perceptions of Muhammad Ali in the Louisville Defender, 1964–1971
Stephen Townsend ................................................................. 611

“I Got the Horse Right Here”: New Directions in Horseracing Scholarship
Katherine C. Mooney ................................................................. 645

Book Reviews ................................................................. 661

VOLUME 116

Number One, Winter 2018

Improving Slavery’s Border: Nature, Navigation, and Regionalism on the Ohio River
Zachary M. Bennett ................................................................. 1

At the Starting Post: Racing Venues and the Origins of Thoroughbred Racing in Kentucky, 1783–1865
Gary A O’Dell ................................................................. 29

Book Reviews ................................................................. 79

Number Two, Spring 2018

Irregular Violence and Trauma in Civil War Kentucky

Introduction
Matthew Christopher Hulbert ................................................................. 151

The Terror of Kentucky: Sue Mundy’s Highly Gendered War against Convention
By Joseph M. Beilein Jr. ................................................................. 157
The Radicalization of “Bloody-Handed” Bill Davison: How a Union Soldier Became a Pro-Confederate Bushwhacker
By Stuart W. Sanders

Guerrillas in the Archive: Kentucky’s Irregular War through the Governor’s Eyes
By Andrew Fialka

Book Reviews

Numbers Three & Four, Summer/Autumn 2018
Rural Life and Agriculture in Kentucky

Rural Life and Agriculture in Kentucky
Sara Egge and David Hamilton, Guest Editors

Rural Life in the Commonwealth

Introduction
By Sara Egge and David Hamilton

“Completely Sold on Birth Control”: Rural Outreach in Kentucky, 1933–1942
By Courtney Kisat

“To keep all their topsoil from washing away”: Writer Jesse Stuart and the Maintenance of the Twentieth-Century Rural Landscape of Kentucky
By Dale Potts

Recreating Boone’s Wilderness at Cumberland Gap National Historical Park
By Angela Sirna

Underground Wilderness? Mammoth Cave National Park, the Wilderness Act of 1964, and the Limits of Preservation
By Alyssa Warrick

Kentucky Agriculture

Sowing Seeds and Reclaiming the Commons: Possibilities and Pathways for the Future of Appalachian Agricultural History
By Cody Miller

Stinking Creek Stories: Memory, Agriculture, and Community in Rural Southeastern Kentucky
By Kathryn Engle
VOLUME 117

Number One, Winter 2019

“What is the case of ‘Willie Waller’ at Maysville, Kentucky?” : The Strange Tale of a Kentucky Rebel
By J. Matthew Gallman ................................................................. 1

Hemp & Henry Clay: Binding the Bluegrass to the World
By Andrew P. Patrick ................................................................. 39

Seeing Red in the Bluegrass: The Kentucky Un-American Activities Committee and Conservatism in the Late 1960s
By Aaron D. Purcell ................................................................. 57

Number Two, Spring 2019

The Civil War Governors of Kentucky

The Civil War Governors of Kentucky
Amy Murrell Taylor, Guest Editor

Introduction
By Amy Murrell Taylor ................................................................. 151

Dwelling in the Digital Archive: A Meditation on the Civil War Governors of Kentucky Project
By Stephen Berry ................................................................. 161

“Deeds of Brave Suffering and Lofty Heroism”: Martialised Rhetoric and Kentucky Soldiers
By Lesley J. Gordon ................................................................. 179

“An Unfortunate Son of Erin”: The Irish in Civil War Kentucky
By David Gleeson ................................................................. 197

“Literally Destroyed as a Housekeeper”: Hunger and Hardship in Civil War Kentucky
By Anne Sarah Rubin ................................................................. 215

Texts and Textiles in Civil War Kentucky
By Amy Murrell Taylor ................................................................. 229
The First Refuge of a Scoundrel
By Mark Wahlgren Summers.................................................................245

“Disturbers of the Peace”: The Kidnapping of John D. Hale and the Long Civil War in Kentucky
By Kenneth Noe.................................................................267

“The Exciting Circumstances of the Rebellion,” or, The Civil War Made Me Do It: Civil War and Emotional Trauma in Kentucky Governors’ Petitions
By Diane Miller Sommerville.................................................................283

Keeping a Disorderly House in Civil War Kentucky
By Crystal Feimster............................................................................301

Tipling Toward Freedom: Alcohol and Emancipation
By Luther Adams.............................................................................323

Searching for Caroline: “Disciplined Imagination” and the Limits of the Archive
By Carole Emberton........................................................................345

The “Most Notorious” Mr. Jennings: Coal, Transatlantic Capitalism, and Guerrilla War
By Patrick A. Lewis........................................................................357

Book Reviews..................................................................................371

Numbers Three & Four, Summer/Autumn 2019
Debating War in Kentucky

Debating War in Kentucky
Walter L. Hixson, Guest Editor

Introduction
By Walter L. Hixson........................................................................433

Louisville’s German in the Civil War Era
By Joseph R. Reinhart.................................................................437

Mobilization and Its Discontents: Desertion, Crawfishing, and Feigned Illness in Kentucky during the Spanish-America War
By David C. Turpie........................................................................485
“A nurse’s duty”: Mary Curry Desha Breckinridge and the Feminine Professional Ethic of Self-Sacrifice in Progressive-Era American and World War I France
By Anya Jabour

Supporting the Troops, Debating the War: The Persian Gulf War in Kentucky
By David Fitzgerald

Book Reviews

VOLUME 118

Number One, Winter 2020
Beyond the War on Poverty: Appalachia Post-1970

Beyond the War on Poverty: Appalachia Post-1970
Kathryn Newfont, Guest Editor

Introduction: Bloodroot: Appalachia since 1970
By Kathryn Newfont

What Does it Mean to Be “Young” in the Mountains? Voices from the “Youth Activism in Different Generations in Appalachia” Oral History Project
By Tammy Clemons

Appalachian Movements
By Phillip J. Obermiller and Thomas E. Wagner

Eastern Kentucky Advocate: A Q&A with Attorney John M. Rosenberg
By John M. Rosenberg and Stephanie M. Lang

“Signals to Every Dip and Hollow”: the Rise and Fall of the Appalachian Education Satellite Program and the Appalachian Community Service Network
By Carson E. Benn

The “Book of Mamaw”: Religion, Representation, and Hillbilly Elegy
By Joseph D. Witt

“Old Kentucky Homo”: Lige Clarke’s Gay Liberation
By Jonathan Coleman

Book Reviews
Number Two, Spring 2020

Editor's Page
Stephanie M. Lang.................................................................231

“Television belongs to everyone”: The Life, Vision, and Legacy of Kentuckian Julian Goodman
By Anthony Harkins.............................................................233

Landmark Withdrawal: U.S v. Certain Lands in Louisville and the Evolution of American Public Housing
By Carl E. Kramer.................................................................275

Book Reviews............................................................................317

Number Three, Summer 2020

Editor’s Page
By Daniel J. Burge.................................................................387

Under Siege: Kentucky and the Transformation of American Thoroughbred Racing, 1865–1936
By Gary A. O’Dell.................................................................389

The Murder of Peter Banford and the Campaign against the Freedmen’s Bureau in Kentucky’s Bluegrass Region
By Rand Dotson.................................................................447

Book Reviews............................................................................489

Number Four, Autumn 2020

Editor’s Page
By Stephanie M. Lang.............................................................543

“See one, Do One, Teach One, and Record Your Results Accurately” :
How and Why the Frontier Nursing Service Told Its Story with Data
By Anne Z. Cockerham and Janet L. Engstrom.............................545

Raymond A. Kent and Louisville’s Jewish Refugee Scholars
By David L. Baker..................................................................591

Book Reviews............................................................................625

VOLUME 119
Number One, Winter 2021

Editor's Page
By Daniel J. Burge.................................................................1

Mr. Yeaman, from Kentucky
By Forrest Roberts...............................................................5

The Diplomacy of Quiet Candor: John Sherman Cooper’s Tenure as Ambassador to India
By Andrew L. Johns..............................................................37

Book Reviews.................................................................71

Number 2, Spring 2021

Editor’s Page
By Stephanie M. Lang..........................................................111

Contesting the Underground: Civil War Soldier Graffiti in Mammoth Cave, Kentucky
By Joseph C. Douglas and Marion O. Smith..............................113

Examining the Early History of Stadia at the University of Kentucky: From City Park to Stoll Field at McLean Stadium
By Chad Seifried and Tiffany Demiris........................................145

Book Reviews.................................................................181

Number Three, Summer 2021

Editor’s Page
By Daniel J. Burge.............................................................215

Demanding a Market at Home: Stability, Independence, and Protection in the Trans-Appalachian West, 1792–1816
By Keith Harris......................................................................219

A Clash of Ideas: Presidential Election Policy Debates in 1832 Kentucky
By Laura Ellyn Smith............................................................253

Josie Underwood’s Union Blues: A Kentucky Diarist’s Civil War
By Christina K. Adkins........................................................271

Book Reviews.................................................................315
Number Four, Autumn 2021

Editor's Page
By Daniel J. Burge.................................................................347

The Hard Hand of War Comes to Western Kentucky: What the Union Provost Marshals Saw in 1864
By Adam L. Tate.................................................................349

By Leo J. Daugherty III..........................................................387

Book Reviews........................................................................421

VOLUME 120

Number One, Winter 2022

Editor's Page
By Stephanie M. Lang..........................................................1

"America's Native Spirit’: Prohibition and the Consolidation of the Kentucky Bourbon Industry”
By Bailey Browning...............................................................3

No Longer an "academically inferior, church-controlled southern school": How Transylvania College Found Success After World War II
By Jonathan Tyler Baker.........................................................33

Book Reviews........................................................................65

Number Two, Spring 2022

Editor's Page
By Daniel J. Burge.................................................................95

Stephen Bishop: The Celebrated Guide of Mammoth Cave
By Angelo I. George and Gary A. O’Dell.................................99

“The Board is Blue”: Kentucky Registers a Woman Pharmacist
By Lynn E. Niedermeier.........................................................145

Medical Mysteries: Identifying Recipes in the Carpenter Family Papers
By Alyssa M. Ollier.................................................................189
Introduction: Loyalty, Fugitivity, and Community in Civil War-Era Kentucky
By Charles R. Welsko.................................................................213

“In Consequence of Such Escape”: Jailbreaks, Criminality, and Unfreedom on the Eve of Civil War
By Daniele Celano.................................................................223

By Rachael Barbara Nicholas..................................................257

How Emancipation Redefined White Loyalty in Civil War Kentucky
By Lucas R. Somers...............................................................275

“I have always intended to be loyal to my State and country”: A Case Study of Enacting Loyalty in Civil War Kentucky
By Kristen Bailey.................................................................301

“He Has Ever Been Considered, a Good and True Hearted Citizen”: Neighborhood and Community in the Wadlington Case
By Kevin McPartland.............................................................319

Book Reviews.................................................................343